LOCAL NEWS

Merry Christmas to all. The new Gregory Theatre opens tonight. Community Christmas tree next Monday night. Equipping Township Nominations Monday, Dec. 31st. Stewarttown Concert has been postponed until Friday, Dec. 28th. Try Wade's Music Store for bargains in musical instruments. We are all delighted with the good news that King George is recovering. Friends' Ball New Year's Eve, Dec. 31st. Bigger and better than ever. The safest way is to tell the wife everything that you think she is liable to find out. The Glen United Church Sunday School entertainment will be held on Friday evening of this week. Good program. Everybody invited. Mr. W. A. Neilson of Hornby finished a successful threshing season last Thursday and reports a field of grain throughout his district. Dr. A. H. Wilson, son of Mr. W. G. Wilson of Annapolis, will be a field of grain throughout his district. Mr. Ralph Ross gave a very interesting lecture on his European trip to the members of the League at the United Church last Monday evening. Knox Presbyterian Sunday School Christmas Entertainment will be postponed until a later date, also the Sunday School will be closed for the next two Sundays. Notice to High School pupils—Pupils of Form II who have not handed in their Zoology and Laboratory Note-Books send them to E. Peterson, 16 Canada St. Hamilton. The epidemic of colds prevailing at present is said to be responsible for a heavy demand for rum and honey, a popular remedy. Many thrifty sufferers dispense with the honey. Mayor Dale reports that the deputation that visited Ottawa last week were well received and the prospects for a new Post Office in Georgetown in the near future are very bright. Built on the confidence of its subscribers, the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, stands supreme today among farm papers, while its Magazine Section is easily at the head of the list. A report of St. Alban's Sunday School entertainment held in Glen Williams on Monday, and the annual meeting of St. John's Little Helpers of Stewarttown, will appear in our next issue. The Bell Telephone Company of Canada is publishing a series of interesting advertisements giving the people an insight into the business of this great company. Read them in the Herald. Any persons desiring to make a contribution to the Christmas tree distributed by the Women's Institute of Georgetown, will kindly leave their donations with Mrs. D. Livingston not later than noon, Friday, Dec. 31st. This item from the files of fifteen years ago, says the Beacon Reformer, is almost amusing in the light of present-day tendencies: "Miss Adkinson, aged 25, of Newark, N.J., was sentenced to 30 days in jail for wearing a silk skirt which was slashed to the knee, and no petticoat hid her silk hose." Have your eyes examined by O. F. Walker, Eyeight Specialist, at Wilson's Drug Store, Georgetown, the second of every month. Phone 75 for appointment. To Our Subscribers. Owing to Christmas coming on Tuesday the Herald will not be issued until Thursday next week. Important to Carriers. The meeting of the Curling Club will be held at the Arena on Thursday, Dec. 20, at 8 p.m. for the purpose of electing slugs. All interested please be present. J. D. Kelly, Secretary. Children's Christmas Show. Georgetown Business Men's Association request all Public School children in town to call at the Town Hall on Friday afternoon of this week between 3 and 4:30 p.m. when they will be presented with tickets for the Gregory Theatre on Thursday, Dec. 27th. Salvation Army Concert. The date of the above concert has been changed from Dec. 22nd to Dec. 20th. The annual prize-giving and concert of the Salvation Army will be held in the town hall, Georgetown, on Thursday evening of this week. Chairman, Mr. J. Godfrey. Tables, diatologues, carols and illuminated club swinging, and the visit of Santa Claus. Everybody welcome. Admission 15c. Judge Seen to Retire. The illustrious J. Milton, who expects to retire from his position as county judge for Halton county at an early date, tendered a dinner last week to the members of the bar with whom he has been associated throughout the county. Speeches were made eulogizing his honor for his fair and impartial treatment to all during his term on the bench and regret was expressed he was soon to retire. Choice Christmas Meat. Our citizens are assured of some very choice Christmas beef this year. The prize steer weighing 780 lbs. dressed from the Royal Winter Fair, has been purchased by Erwin & Goldham, Georgetown's enterprising butcher, who always endeavor to procure the best possible for their many customers. This prize beef added to their other display of choice meats, fowl, etc. makes a very attractive place to do your Christmas shopping. Gregory Theatre. Wednesday, December 19th—Grand Opening of the new Theatre, "Merry of the Marines" with Richard Dix. No. 9 "Taran The Mighty". Comedy "Is Everybody Happy?". Friday, Dec. 21st—"The Crowd" a drama of everyday life, starring Eleanor Boardman. Comedy "Come on Horse" Fox News. Saturday, Dec. 22—"The Hawks' Nest" thriller, chills, mystery, in drama of his town's Oriental Lair, starring Milton Sills. Comedy "Hot Luck". Rabbit Carrot. "Panicky Panache". Coming: "When a Man Loves" with John Barrymore. "The Big City" with Lon Chaney. "Chang". Home—Milton. On Tuesday, December 19th, at 4:30 o'clock, at the Presbyterian of St. Patrick's Cathedral, the marriage was solemnized of Doris, youngest daughter of Mrs. Frances Miller, Hamilton, to Marie Rexford Hume, only son of Mr. T. D. Hume and the late Mrs. Hume of Milton, Ont. The bride was most charming in a French frock of independent blue gossamer with hat to match, and carried an arm bouquet of Sweetheart roses and baby's breath, tied with white ribbons. Miss Norma Miller, attractively frocked in beige gossamer and brown transparent velvet, with hat of brown felt, was her sister's attendant. Mrs. Miller, mother of the bride, was becomingly gowned in black crepe trimmed with embroidery in white, and hat of contrasting shades. Only immediate relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. A wedding dinner was served to a number of guests in the Blue Room at the Wentworth Arms. Mr. and Mrs. Hume left by motor for New York City, and on their return will reside in Burlington.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Mr. Jim McBean of Chicago is home for the holidays. Miss Dorothy Trotter of Mantowaning is visiting at Mr. L. E. Pickett's. Mr. and Mrs. R. Harrison of Toronto spent Sunday at Mrs. J. Parley's. Miss Mary Prith has gone to Ottawa to spend Christmas with her brother, Ranley G. Prith. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Campbell of Hamilton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacKenzie on Sunday last. Miss Alleen Moore attended the annual dinner of the Atkinson Studio Club at the Academy of Music at Toronto on Saturday evening last. Rev. A. N. Prith left for Maxville on Monday to attend the funeral of his brother, Mr. Erasmus R. Prith, who passed away, following a lingering illness on Monday morning. An Xmas Rhyme. Give a little, live a little, try a little, sing a little, bring a little happiness to someone else, play a little, be a little glad; rest a little, eat a little, live a little, love a little more. Remember the Mail Carriers. Please remember the rural mail carriers on Christmas day. The men who come to your farm gates 307 times a year. They have to make the trip on Christmas day the same as other days, and wouldn't a remembrance from the box holders brighten the day for them? We think so. Cutting Terms Collis Hill. At a meeting of the wardens of Peel and Halton, Messrs. M. S. Lindsay and T. A. Blacklock, and the chairman of the Good Roads committee of both counties, held at Oakville, for the purpose of cutting terms on the roads. The roads were divided into two classes, A and B. Class A roads were to be improved by the Government, and Class B roads by the counties. The Government was to pay 50 per cent of the cost.

"Fruit-tives" Did Stop His Rheumatism

MR. FLOYD "Fruit-tives" soothed his kidneys—fed his system of uric acid and poisonous waste—regulated his bowels—purified his blood—and this is why Mr. W. Floyd of Nahmno, B.C. is no longer bothered with Rheumatism any more. "I suffered with Rheumatism in my shoulders and, as most of my friends were taking 'Fruit-tives,' I decided to try them. In a short time the pain disappeared and I had relief for the first time. I think this medicine really marvellous." If you are bothered with Rheumatism Pains in the arms, legs or back, or with Neuralgia or Headaches, get "Fruit-tives." 25c and 50c. a box—at dealers everywhere.

At Okleville on Tuesday Fred Groff, of Trafalgar, was sentenced by Police Magistrate McQueen to serve three years in Kingston penitentiary for auto theft and burglarizing the homes of Charles Sheridan and Victor Lawrence. The prisoner pleaded guilty. In 1926 Groff was sentenced to serve six months for burglary.
