Another Successful Ball. The annual ball and supper of the Georgetown Pire Brigade held Monday evening as usual proved a most enjoyable event. Owing to illness the crowd was not quite as large as usual. Splendid music was furnished by the Orpheus Dance Band, while R.

manner. An excellent supper was served by Mr. Harold Hamilton.

Beware of Monexide Pumes. Motorists who are in the habit of warming up their cars in their garage by running the engine for a time should always see that the doors are open. The monoxide gas from the exhaust is as deadly as any poison gas used during the war and it only takes a few seconds for it to do its deadly work once it reaches the proper density in the garage.

Parmers who figured on paying their taxes from revenue of the pota-to crop, are sadly disappointed. Today buyers were paying only 35 cents a bag, and the offering was very light. The crop this year is lacking in quality but not in quantity. The excessive wet weather resulted in many S small spuds. Leading markets are sulutted at the present time and no advance in price is looked for in the near future.-Orangeville Bun.
