BUSINESS MEN MEET ANNUAL MEETING - OFFICERS WERE ELECTED

The Georgetown Business Men's As-Mackensie, as president for the past year, outlined the work accomplished during the year, showing a very active year on the part of the Association.
The report of the Becretary-Treasurer.
Mr. L. H. Wraggette, showed the total receipts of $1101.30 and total expenditures of $22.74, leaving a balance of funds in the Treasury of $108.85 and revealing a splendid condition in the Association's finances. The final steps in the establishment of a Credit Bureau were taken and the committee on Radio Broadcasting reported that ar-rangements were being completed for a local broadcast over Station C.P.C.A. on Jan. 29th. The following officers of the Association were elected for 1929: Past President—J. B. Mackenzie. President—A. J. O'Neill.

GOOD REPORT PRESENTED - OF-PICERS ELECTED - 1929 FAIR SEPTEMBER 20TH AND 21ST

The annual meeting of Esquesing Agricultural Society was held in the town hall, Georgetown, on Saturday afternoon last. There was a good attendance and all appeared deeply interested in the future success of the society. The show last year was a aplendid success as regards exhibits and attendance, and while the Society made no money in 1928, they still have a substantial balance on hand in the bank as shown by the Treasurer's re-

AN OLD MANS ADVICE After more than half a century of married life, two of Toronto's oldest husbands still believe that their wedding days were the biggest events in their lives. One of them. John C. Caven, now nearing his 100th birthday, and who two weeks ago celebrated with his wife their 67th anniversary, lays down a definite formula for a happy marriage. Co-operation between man and wife is the main essential. according to Mr. Caven, and he advoyoung couples should be prepared to adopt when they march to the altar: Build a home together; be unselfish in all things; never argue about any-
