SUNBEAM CHICK STARTER

"I Fed 1400 Chicks with Sunbeam Chick Starter" Mr. William Park, Vineland Station, Ont., successfully hatches large broods of baby chicks each season. How Mr. Park succeeds so famously in raising them, is best related by himself.
Read What Mr. William Park Says:
Standard Milling Co.,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sirs:
I have just completed using half a ton of your Sunbeam Chick Starter and have found it to be an excellent feed. With 1,400 chicks to date, my mortality has been negligible and no trace of bowel trouble.
This success I attribute largely to a good start with a good feed.
Yours very truly,
WILLIAM PARK.

THE RULE OF LIFE

Well Mason writes the following: I have written to show the path we should tread, and we have been led to the path of duty and wisdom.
I am pleased to meet him in town on Friday and Saturday looking the picture of health.
He has made a remarkable recovery.

SHOULD YOU FEEL INCLINED TO CENSURE

Should you feel inclined to censure Paula you may be otherwise viewed. Ask your own heart, eye witness If that has not fallen, too.
Let not friendly words be broken; Rather strive a friend to gain; Many a word in anger spoken Finds its passage home again.
Do not, then, in idle pleasure, Trifle with brother's fame;
Guard it as a valued treasure, Sacred as your own good name.
Do not form opinions blindly, Hastiness to troubles lends Traces of those who thought unkindly Of becomes our warmest friends.

HALTON RIFLES

By Capt. Halton, D.R.O.

CAMP SANITATION; MEDICAL SERVICES

The Corps of Guides; Tactical Exercises; Some Personalities

The Halton detachment to the Tactical exercises left old Chatham taking Wolfe and Montserrat; of Dollard and his noble sacrifice at the Cape Breton; of Madeline Vercheret and all the rest of the Saints and Martyrs and Heroes of the Canadian history whose lives and sacrifices form the themes of the glorious Pageants.
It was a great Canadian celebration, the first of its kind in three hundred years, and there were men in the detachment who felt that it would take just about that long before they would be fully recovered from the first one; for old Quebec possessed all the elements of hospitality and after all it was to be a celebration.
Six years later, many of those officers and men were to return to Quebec, with sterner thoughts in mind to form battalions, also composite Battalions, dressed in the uniforms of the bands, with little of the ceremonial, but with much of the discipline and the hard work that is the accompaniment of battalions in training for Active Service.
Major Kelly of the 5th Halton Rifles was one of the officers in the 3rd Composite Rifles under Colonel Boyd, and as he will be with many of the Overseas Officers of the 4th Composite R.C.F. I mention him in the history book in 1914, and the story of his life for the Empire on the ride near the Nile.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THIS year the well dressed bowler should wear brown leather shoes, cream flannel trousers, plain or wide striped, a blue coat and a white felt hat. Shirt sleeves and a white felt will be taboo. Such was the declaration of the Dominion Lawn Bowling Association at its annual meeting in Toronto. Georgetown Ladies' Bowling Club will please take notice.

AT least ten and possibly fifteen level crossings will be eliminated by the provincial department of public highways this year. Plans have been made to build five subways or bridges over dangerous spots and to change the routing of provincial highways at certain points to eliminate another six or seven crossings considered dangerous.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

It is generally conceded that the use of tobacco in any form is harmful to young persons. Cigarettes are little more harmful than other forms. It is only the use of cigarettes is becoming more prevalent among women. Not only do they injure their own health but they are but they set a bad example for children and youth, and as mothers of future school teachers and all leaders in the community would do well to discourage in every way the use of cigarettes among the young. One of the best ways would be to insist that they refrain from the use of them.—Street-Viewers Review.

WITHOUT any thought of sentiment or suggestion of the means for legislation to anyone, the cold, hard truth is that the retail merchants of our town are the best friends we have The retail merchant conducts a school of commerce for our education, and the nation is the beneficiary of the school. He is the one who stands against fraud and deceit. He stands for the square deal. He lives where he does business and his success depends on making a friend of you and your neighbor. Like he has to "make good" the retail merchant is one of our great factors in our commercial system and this is true solely because he renders us better service than we can get elsewhere. Take him away and our home town is gone. The retail merchant will continue to do his affection so long as we value our homes, because the average citizen is proud of his town.

ALTHOUGH a couple of years ago credit in Canada, this cannot be said to be the situation today. Savings deposits of Canadian banks have not grown as rapidly as the demand for loans, both collateral and current.
A rough and ready indication of the situation is the ratio of deposits to loans. This ratio is about 100 to 100.
In 1927 the ratio of deposits to loans was about 120 to 100. This ratio is at the lowest figure that it has touched in February since 1920.—Financial Post.

WITHOUT exaggeration we can say that fifty per cent. of the people shake hands because the other party has some hand-shake. It is justly the energy expended in doing the act; otherwise give you the feeling that the action is good for the soul, it gives you a real feeling of the good comradeship. Another guy shakes hands with you as if he had hold of a wet sock. This bird means to give you a real feeling of the good comradeship. Another guy shakes hands with you as if he had hold of a wet sock. This bird means to give you a real feeling of the good comradeship.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

MAY a few words of encouragement be permitted to all pupils and students who are now in the last part of their school year, especially to those who are writing examinations. It is a time when the progress at school. This is perhaps a greater opportunity than you dream of now. It means advancement for a lifetime, or it may mean the beginning of a series of repeated failures. No examination is easy, but to some it may appear almost impossible. There is nothing impossible and no time for you to worry. You are sure to pass and capable of passing, and you will be proud of your mind. You will give it your very best effort or positively die in the attempt. Then success is almost assured, and you will have acquired a habit of facing every sort of difficulty you may meet with in your life hereafter. A little self-denial of seemingly legitimate pleasures and sports, a little extra time in study early and late, a little keener concentration on the work that is most difficult and you will be surprised how much lost ground may be gained.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

THE death occurred on April 8th, at her home in Rockwood, of Mrs. James Lambert, in her 87th year. Mrs. Lambert, who before her marriage was Mrs. Peavy, had lived with her husband for 30 years on a farm near Township, and six years ago moved to Rockwood, where the family has since resided. She is survived by her son, Frank and one son, Frederick, of Rockwood. The funeral took place from the family residence on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, at Everton Cemetery.
