As a congregation we wish to express to you our gratitude for the service you rendered to the church. You have been endowed with talents which you have used most liberally in the interest of the church. As a member of the choir and for a time as leader you have served the church and for this service we desire that you accept our gratitude.

As your friends who wish you all happiness and success in life we sak you to accept this gift and we trust that you may long remain among us and that you may continue to be active in every good work.
