Yesterday Chief Stewart received a complaint that the woman had stolen a watch in Orillis and had boarded a Gray Line coach for Toronto. After a somewhat exciting chase the officer overtook the bus at Painswick, three miles south of here, and took the woman off. On the way to Barrie, the officer said, she threw the watch out of the police car, but it was recovered in the ditch. She will be tried first by Magistrate Wilson at Burks Falls.

The banquet the losing side was to put up was held Friday afternoon at Sandy McKay's farm. Missas Nell and Kate McKay scied as very hospitable hostesses.

Clames and contests were enjoyed during the afternoon followed by a short programme of speeches by old and new members. We were very sorry Mrs. Clandier was unable to be present but her place was well taken by Missas Were then presented to Thirss and Marjory, who also accepted a huge bouquet for their mother.
