WANT TO LIVE FOREVER

Paradise may be a serene and del-ectable place, but, somehow or other ectable place, but, somehow or other most humans endeavor to avoid entering the pearly gates just as long as they possibly can. Even when afflicted with pain or sorrow, when bereft of friends and fortune, life is still dear to most people. They would live forever, if they could. Since history began men have sought the fountains of perpetual youth. Of late years the same object has been sought through the grafting of monkey glands. Railway Shop Workers Give Long Service

Nine men shown in the illustration above have a total service of 391 years spent at the Motive Power shop of the Canadian National Kailways at Point St. Charles. Montreal. This gives an average of over 43 years for each man, but the senior has the amazing record of 63 years, while the junior is a mere youth with 27 years behind him. This group was photographed outside the door of the old shop, now closed, through which they had made their daily entrances and exits. The shops are older than the men, dating back to 1857, a period of 72 years. This shop has now given way to a modern structure capable of dealing modern structure capable of dealing and modern structure capable of dealing are spent at the Motive Power shop of the Last word in machine shop equipment in the look least word in machine shop equipment in the Dominion.
