For a serious misdeed John was kept after school. He worked so willingly and cheerfully that the surprised teacher said: "John, why can't you be as agreeable and pleasant during school hours?" "Ose, that's funny!" "That's just what I was thinking about you!" was the prompt reply.

Woe to the Typewriter! A newspaper reporter was sent to a fashionable dance for "copy." He described one of the dancers, a woman of exceptional stature, as possessing a form "that June might envy." The next morning, however, he read that the woman possessed a form "that Jumbo might envy."

Presentation and Address

At the close of the service on Sunday evening last the congregation of Knox Church gathered in the church parlours to say farewell to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Castell.

At the close of the Sunday morning service Knox Church presented Mr. Castell with a beautifully bound hymn book, while Mr. A. C. Robinson read an address of appreciation.

The congregation of Knox Presbyterian Church has learned that you are about to lay down your task and to move from our midst. This will mean a new turn in your life and are not yet able to estimate how great a change it will mean for this congregation.

We wish first of all to rejoice with you in your enjoyment of what appears to be perfect health on this seventy-second anniversary of your birth. To have reached this age with slight undimmed and nature's strength unabated is a splendid comment upon your mode of life.

To retire now with all this reserve of vitality is to be assured in some measure of a peaceful and happy old age which we trust will indeed be yours before the final call to the choir.

As a congregation we have been filled with pardonable pride, as we have observed that in any community, education, it was the choir leader of this church that was recognized and called upon to give leadership in the choir.

We desire to assure you of our warmest friendship to you and of our earnest desire for your continuing welfare. This we express not only in word but also in deed and therefore we ask you to accept this gift which we trust may in some way help you to enjoy the years to come and to remember these years as happy ones.

During the many years you have been with us we have known and appreciate your sterling qualities. Your cheerful and optimistic manner has often made light of what appeared to be a dreary task. Each member of this choir feels that they are losing a personal friend.

OLD BAND BOYS SAY GOOD-BYE

There was a feeling of sadness about the occasion when last evening the old band boys and members of the committee met in the Sunday School Room of St. George's Church to say good-bye to Mr. A. H. Castell, who had ably led the band here for twenty years.

After playing a number of old tunes under the old leader on the lawn, the gathering adjourned to the B.B. Room where a delicious banquet was served by the Daughters of the Church.

After all had partaken Mr. J. A. Willoughby, chairman, the evening proposed the toast "The King." He then called upon Mr. W. Diggins who read the following address while Mr. Jack Bachelor presented Mr. Castell with a beautiful club bag.

Dear Mr. Castell: The old band boys and committee are here to-night Mr. Castell to tell you collectively what we are too bashful to tell you individually.

You have been a good and true friend, a model citizen and an all-around good citizen. You have been what many of us are not, an example in promptness and faithfulness. Unquestionably, you have been a great asset to the band and to the church.

May you and your good wife live long to enjoy the fruits of your good deeds and to see your children and grandchildren as you have so ably performed in the past.

Signed on behalf of the Old Band Boys: Walter Diggins, John Bachelor, Mr. Castell very feelingly replied thanking the boys for their kind words and handsome gift.

Short speeches were made by the following: Mr. W. C. Thompson, Mr. H. W. Mason, R. H. Foulis, W. Diggins, W. P. Bradley, Major Grant, Col. O. Brown, R. W. Cole, S. Kirk, J. H. Beaman, John Bachelor, J. M. Moore.

A vote of thanks moved by J. A. Willoughby was carried and the band boys tendered the Daughters of the Church for the splendid banquet provided.

All join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Castell every blessing of continued health and happiness in their new home in Highgate.
