LOCAL NEWS

Halloween to-morrow night.
—This was a wet election-day.
—Guess you better put 'em on again.
—It's all over now but the counting.
—Town Council meeting next Tuesday night.
—Rebekah euchre and Dance in the Arena, Friday night.
—And ladies, listen: Eye took to wearing clothes in the fall.
—Next meeting of Equipping Council will be held on Nov. 11th at 1:30 p.m.
—There will be two minutes silence at 11 o'clock on Armistice Day, Nov. 11th.
—Norman Norton of the Naval garage is now agent for the Ford radio.
—On November 5th we will commence our daylight delivery—Maple Leaf Dairy.
—If you want to spend an enjoyable evening, go to the Rebekah euchre and dance in the Arena on Friday night.
—If the Council have any gravel left over, King St. residents would like a little dropped in the holes on their street.
—Any day now we expect to see the advent of a combination hip-flask and cigarette lighter—the same liquid can be used for both.
—The Women's Society of the Baptist Church will hold a tea at 8 o'clock in the Public Library on Saturday, Nov. 9th from 4 to 6 o'clock.
—The Georgetown and Equipping Humane Society will meet in the Council Chamber, Georgetown, on Thursday evening, Oct. 31st at 8 p.m.
—It is advertised that the poor would be welcome in this church, "and after inspecting the collection I see that they have come."
—A Masquerade Dance will be given by the Mason Orchestra in the Town Hall, Acton, on Thursday night, Oct. 31st. You are invited to be present and have a good time.
—The talking movies at the Gregory Theatre are drawing big houses. It is a pleasant place to spend an evening and see a good picture. There is a good program announced for this week.
—A meeting of the Georgetown Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. W. V. Grant on Wednesday, Nov. 6th at 8 o'clock. Pumpkin pie contest. Dr. McAllister will address this meeting.
—A nervous chicken thief helped himself to a hen in Mrs. Annie Adams' chicken house about 7 o'clock on Sunday evening. By the noise it was making he evidently had hold of the wrong end of the bird.
—Mr. A. O. M. Brynes of Lismore house combined with Mr. Dale and Mr. Fox of Guelph and Mr. McLean of Rockwood held a sale of fully accredited Holstein Cattle in the Winter Fair Building at Guelph, on Nov. 7th.
—"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine." This proverb is just as true today as it was in the days of old. Entertainment on Thursday, November 7th will prove it. Get your tickets now to ensure a seat. Admission 50c and 10c only.
—In the course of his address at the United Church on Monday evening, Rev. W. L. Davidson said he would sooner have the open bar room than the present system of government control of liquor. It may be Mr. Davidson is right.
—We back up what we advertise. If our boots don't give satisfaction and are the fault of the boots we will give you a new pair or repair them free. We have now more men, women, and boys rubbers in stock than at the other stores in town put together and we are selling them from 50c to $1.00 lower than any other store. Boots and there is no kick coming. The best place to get women's boots at all prices. Repairing as usual. We have broke loose on low prices—J. Honey, the only factory shoe store in the county.
—It May Be Yes
There are a lot of subscribers who owe us on their subscription to the Herald and we need the money. We need it right now, and if you are arrears will you kindly let us have the amount due us. If you don't read this please let us know and we will bill you.
—The Ball of Barnabazoo
This operetta will be presented by the Georgetown United Church Choir in the Gregory Theatre, on Monday 18th Nov. and Thursday, 21st Nov. Tickets, adults 50c, juveniles 25c. Plan now open at Watson's Drug Store. Secure tickets early and avoid disappointment.
Poppy Day Wreaths
Orders are now being taken for Armistice Day. These wreaths are manufactured by disabled Veterans of the Great War, and any profit from their sale in Georgetown will be turned over to the local Poppy Day Fund. Please place your orders as soon as possible with Mrs. T. Grieve or Dr. C. V. Williams.
Believe It or Not
Christmas of 1929 will be the coldest in years, according to James R. Bowers, 72-year-old sage of Chateaufort, and long distance weather prophet, whose predictions are gospel to the farmer folk of Owen Sound district. Mr. Bowers says that the winter will start Nov. 27th, and that the season will be decidedly cold.
