It may be said that we did not require so large a fund, owing to our having a balance. We were exceedingly fortunate in Georgetown and District in having so little call on the fund last year and we do not expect to again be so fortunate. In any case we are anxious, if possible, to build up the fund so that in future it may be able to serve those who are now serve invisable seems.

The Motto of the Legion is "Ser-Trank Chisholm, Garnet Shepherd, Ivan Pox, Johnston Neelands, George to June 30, 1928 The Motto of the Legion is "Service," service to all ex-service men and their dependents. Therefore the fund will help, where possible, genuine cases of possible, genuine cases of possible.

Therefore the fund will help, where possible, genuins cases of poverty in those who may be temporarily stranded in the district. In doing this the fund is helping not only those, but possibly preventing them from becoming a charge on the ratepayers.

On Saturday next your contribution will be gratefully received, be it small or large. Remember the Legion is but performing the work that is as much, if not more, that of the public, in as much as they are doing it for those who went overseas in the memorable years of 1914-1918, prepared to pay the supreme price for Canada and the British Empire, and who came back broken men and women, and for the needy dependants of those who lie in Financers Fields, and who, from falling hands threw us the torch. That the Hospital tries very hard to make the setting well process a happy affair for its many small patients is evidenced by the establishment this year of a Stummer Home. Due to limited funds it was necessary to proceed very cautiously with this Summer Home experiment, but the tiny cottage at Port Bruce which was rented for the season was quite perfect in the eyes of the hospital kiddles—for it was close to the lake; it had an ivy covered veranda; and there were flowers all around it.
