Why Farmers Prefer Endowment Insurance. HAVING insured farmers for nearly sixty years, we do not know of any group of men to whom life insurance has been more beneficial. Our experience has been that the average farmer lives out the term of his policy, and profits personally from his thrift. The most popular policy with farmers is the Endowment Policy. It is generally bought for the amount of any mortgage that stands against property, so that funds to pay off the mortgage will be available at maturity; or in the event of premature death. Every farmer who is physically fit should own life insurance, and if he buys a Confederation Life policy we can and will arrange for premiums to be paid at convenient times. Write for a pamphlet entitled "Wm. Matheson Was a Farmer." It tells of his experience with a Confederation Life Policy guaranteeing Total Disability Benefits. Address: Confederation Life Association. Head Office: TORONTO. Local Agent: Georgetown.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING Just a few weeks now until Christmas and in the foreground of the executive was held Thursday evening. All are on their toes to make the Christmas shopping which the word always brings to mind, looms the Christmas shopping which is rather frightful when thought of and when the list of those who are to be remembered this year with gifts, is made out. To really accomplish a winter's worth of Christmas shopping one must begin early so that there will be no necessity of those last few days of hurried buying if the start in that line is delayed too long. Already some stores are showing lovely things which would be suitable as gifts, and if one has been fairly observant while in conversation with intimate friends, or while gazing in the windows of many suggestive shops, one has undoubtedly picked up which will now become very useful in assisting in the choice of Christmas gifts. One's friends unconsciously give hints that may be acted upon when the shopping begins—such as the admiration of a pair of gloves, or of a scarf in a shop window; a long keen look at a piece of silver, or a shining necklace; a small jug to replace one recently broken; a pretty bridge table cover, those made of taffeta being very popular; a new book the name of which has recently appeared in the reviews, a dozen house blooming bulbs to cheer the dreary winter days now coming; or any of the hundred and one gifts and useful things which may be picked up at reasonable cost before the holiday prices have been set.

THE DEAR BOY "Did the children behave when you bathed them?" asked the mistress of the new French nurse. "All but, so biggest boy—and, miracle!—he has not cried and will be nearly as fat as I was before I could get him in." "Which biggest boy—We've only one boy, and he's only two years old?" "Is he no him at all, I mean. 'Tis a boy who wears glasses an, has a curly hair." "Boy! Boy! That's not a boy! That's my husband!"
