ANNUAL MEETING HUMANE SOCIETY

The fourth annual meeting of the Georgetown Humane Society which was held in the Council Chamber, Thursday evening, Nov. 28th, 1929, proved the most successful yet held, which is encouraging in that it shows a growing interest in humane work in Georgetown and vicinity.
The work of the past year was reviewed and members of the Society feel that considerable progress has been made in this very necessary work.
The Society wishes to thank the Mayor, Town Council and Chief Marshall for endorsing and assisting in carrying on. Our thanks are also due Mr. J. M. Moore, Editor of "The Herald" who by his interesting and instructive articles on animals and humane work has incalculably helped those who cannot speak for themselves. We should like also to express our thanks to those who have sent in complaints, and to those who have helped in any way whatsoever to further the good cause.
The report for the year reads as follows:
Cases investigated regarding starved, abused, neglected, and abandoned animals:

Warnings given	23
Number of horses that have been under the notice of the society	46

Total number of animals cared for 279

The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:
President—H. O. Reid (V.B.)
1st Vice-Pres.—Wm. Ashenhurst.
2nd Vice-Pres.—Rev. P. H. Wase.
Sec.—Treas.—O. B. Bane.
Asst. Sec.—Treas.—Mr. LeRoy Dale.
Inspector—Lt.-Col. O. C. Brown.
Executive—Mrs. (Rev.) Ewan Macdonald (L. M. Montgomery), Mrs. Herbert, Mrs. Nelson Cook, Miss L. Reid, Rev. H. Caldwell, Arthur Besonnet, Mr. E. Torrance.
The educational work of the Junior Humane Societies is going ahead. Thanks to the helpful co-operation of the teaching staffs and the children themselves. Some new societies have been formed during the past year and other schools are hoping to organize by the New Year.
Back copies of the "Humane Plead-er" are being distributed among the rural schools for winter reading, and there is no doubt but that the magazines will prove both enjoyable and helpful.
The Poster Contest, which was held in connection with the Fall Fair was a decided success. Next year should be even better with several more schools coming in.
This report will close with an expression of sincere appreciation for the kindly interest taken in the work of the society by Magistrate H. P. Moore of Acton.

Personal Attention Needed
Egg-eating among chickens is largely a vice that can be discouraged with a very little care and attention. Leaving the birds in colony houses after they have started laying will start the habit; too few nests in the laying house will lead the hen to lay on the floor and the fowl are quick to realize the palatability of their own product. The easiest way to end the trouble is to stay in the pen for half a day, locate the egg-eaters and remove them. This treatment is usually 100 per cent effective.

300 Turkeys Raised
Approximately 300 turkeys have been raised at the Ontario Government Turkey Farm near Forestville in Norfolk County during the past year. About one half of these will come under the care prior to the holiday season. The better type of birds, however, are retained for breeding purposes. Very valuable information with respect to turkey raising, particularly the conditions under which turkeys thrive, has been obtained since the farm was established a few years ago.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING
JUDGE AND MRS. H. P. MOORE OF ACTON MARKED FIFTY YEARS
If public and community service have brought the same amount of happiness to the people of the county of Halton, Judge and Mrs. H. P. Moore of Acton, they had a very happy time at the celebration of their Golden Wedding yesterday. Celebrated at their home "Moorecroft" in Acton.
The function took the form of a reception in the afternoon and evening, which was largely attended by the people of the county of Halton, by relatives, friends, and representatives of the United Church and of various other organizations in which Mr. and Mrs. Moore have been interested for many years. The guests included those of the county of Halton.
A glance, merely, at some of the positions Judge Moore has held will be evidence of the long and active service he has given to community and country. He was editor and owner of the Acton Free Press for forty-nine years bringing this paper to the forefront among weekly newspapers of Canada. He was president of the Canadian Press Association in 1892. For forty-four years he was secretary-treasurer of the Board of Education in Acton. For thirty-three years superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School in his home town. He was a member of the official board of the Methodist Church for forty-four years, a class leader for thirty years, and a member of every General Conference of the Methodist Church since 1860, and a commissioner at the first two sessions of General Council of the United Church. His church connection and his newspaper experience led to his election to the Board of Publications of the church in 1860, a position he has held continuously since. Some four years ago he was elected the chairman of the Board, of which he is the oldest living member. Likewise he is the oldest member of the Board of Management of Albert College, Belleville, having been appointed Judge of the juvenile court for this territory. He has a very strong interest in the Ontario Magistrates' Association, and at their convention in Barrie in September last was elected president.

THOSE WHO MAKE GOOD
Whenever a Barnardo boy falls to make good, or gets into trouble, it is immediately given wide publicity. Barnardo does not care how many such a success, and there are hundreds of them all over Canada. The London Free Press has published a feature story under a Dorchester date line:
"John W. Penn, of Malahide, has purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Wick their 100-acre farm for $11,500. This farm has been in the hands of the present owner for 30 years and is considered one of the most beautiful in the county. Mr. Penn is to be complimented on being able to secure such a large tract of land, he came to this country under the Dr. Barnardo Home and has made good. With the help of his father-in-law, they have saved until they were able to purchase and pay cash.
"This man is a true regard to thousands of other immigrants. We read a lot about a few Welsh miners who went to return home, who cannot make a success, but right in Old Ontario today are many recent British immigrants who are making good. There is a tendency in some quarters to jeer at British immigrants, but at least the fathers of our Ontario came to Canada as poor immigrants. They were just as hard made and made many mistakes as the newcomers who come to our shores to-day. What is required is a little patience and a little sympathy."

EMPIRE FERTILIZERS LIMITED HOLD A BANQUET FOR AGENTS
Agents of Empire Fertilizers Limited working in Peel, Halton and Wellington Counties, gathered together at Bushness Inn, Erin, Ontario, last Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. for their annual banquet. In spite of the stormy weather there was a large attendance and after an excellent dinner Mr. J. D. McDonald of Chatham rendered several vocal selections, accompanied on the piano by Miss Marjorie Gray, and Mr. Jack Hall of Hillsburg presented several clever readings.
The meeting was then addressed by Mr. G. W. Jarvis, President of Empire Fertilizers Limited, at the close of which the chief speaker of the day, Mr. E. J. Egan, Vice-President of Empire Fertilizer Company, Chatham, was introduced by the chairman. Mr. Smith presented an exceptionally good address on the subject of Fertilizers, its manufacture, and much valuable information was gained by those agents present. Mr. Egan's address was followed by the following speakers: Mr. Geo. W. Orsham of Georgetown, district manager for Peel, Halton and Wellington Counties, Mr. W. F. Gray, Hillsburg, representative of the district of North York, and Mr. Smith Griffin, Acton, Ontario, who made such an excellent showing at the Winter Fair with his potato exhibit. Mr. Griffin won several first prizes and grand champion. Invaluable information with respect to fertilizer raising, particularly the conditions under which turkeys thrive, has been obtained since the farm was established a few years ago.

JUDGE AND MRS. H. P. MOORE OF ACTON who celebrated their Golden Wedding yesterday

TERRA COTTA
Our citizens were shocked to learn of the sudden death of Miss Dorothy Picot, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Picot of this place, who passed away to her long home on Saturday morning, Nov. 30th. Deceased had only been ill for two or three days. Heart failure was thought to have been the cause of her sudden death. The remains were interred in Glenwilliam Cemetery, on Monday afternoon. The services were conducted by the Rev. J. L. Craine, secretary-treasurer of the Board of Education in Acton. For thirty-three years superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School in his home town. He was a member of the official board of the Methodist Church for forty-four years, a class leader for thirty years, and a member of every General Conference of the Methodist Church since 1860, and a commissioner at the first two sessions of General Council of the United Church.
