CHRISTMAS EVE

The hushed and breathing low. Within the kneeling chapel tranced And Jewelled lights that from windows throw Dyes like a painted missal

Down from the thro Descends, and ness, lo! Angels with silver trumpets stationed

And from their Herald In awful gladness far o'er land The gates of Hell are shattered o'erthrown, And all the morning stars sing: "Lo! 'tis He." -Richard Le Galliene.

Quebec Winter Sports

Winter-sports activities radiate from the Cha-teau Frontenac, Quebec's famous hostelry, where Jack Strathdee will again be winter-sports director. Will be on the staff of the Chateau Frontenac this This season he has a new attraction to offer during the Ice Pageant, February 12 and 13, when 24 girl members of the Toronto Skating Club will perform an ice-dance to be known as the "Danse Moderne".

This will be a veritable "Ziegfeld production on Ice." | Will be on the stan of the Chateau Prontenac this winter. They are Ivind Nelson, Hans Gunnarsen, and Orrice Higgs, of Revelatoks, British Columbia.

Burnett Burke formerly of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association, will be instructor at the Chateau's skating risk.

Vivele Carnaval! Vivent is sports d'hiver! In these few words may be summed up the spirit of Quebec in winter-time. Here for many years have gathered lovers of winter sports and frolics from all parts of the western hemisphere.

The ancient capital of Canada is the American continent's metropolis for ski-ing, ski-joring, ski-jumping, toborganing, bob-sledding, skating, snow-showing, dog-team driving, surling, and hockey, during the sinter months, and in addition has a unique attraction to offer the visitor in February when the International Dog Sied Derby annually takes place.

In all about two hundred skaters will take past in this ever attractive and beautiful Pageant.

A record list of entries is pusmised for the Dog Sied Derby this season. Arthur Beauvals, driver of the Chategu tum, announces that he will have a better team than ever. His new buskles were bred at Caughnawaga, the Indian reservation near Montreal. At the Dog Derby, February 30, 31, and 22, the visitor will see such famous mushers as St. Goddard, winner of last year's Derby; Seppala, Norwegian hero of many an epic drive; Frank Dupuis, and many another well-known figures in action for three days over a 128 mile course, mushing 41 miles a day.
