Cordingley's Hardware

And Lo, Another Year Has Passed

A smiling, healthy youngster enters and a tottering old man leaves. Such is the allegorical description of the passing of 1929 and the coming of 1930. But, all who give service to our community proceed along a different path. At the threshold of another year we say farewell to 1929 and eagerly welcome 1930, and with all the enthusiasm, with all the gladsome anticipation of a new adventure, but tempered with the experience of past years, we advance toward the goal of good-will that transcends the passing of time.

To one and all we extend our Best Wishes for New Year.
