Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station

Calling by NUMBER saves time keep a list handy

Telling the operator the NUMBER you want in a long distance call, whether you ask for a specific person or for "anyone there" gives you a quicker connection.

If you do not know the NUMBER, ask "Information" and she will look it up for you. Then make a note of the NUMBER and you will avoid delay/next time.

It will pay you — both in time and money — to keep a list handy of the long distance NUMBERS you frequently call. We are ready to help you prepare such a list — in a special directory if you wish — and "Information" will find your new NUMBERS as you need them.

TO THE YOUNG

Be very kind to aging folk; Their steps are tottering now; Remember, they were young as you are Not very long ago. And God spare you, you will be Some time as old as they. And you may win at cruel things That heedless young folk say.

HALTON RIFLES

Billetts in Georgetown—A Catalogue of "Glories" Names

By Col. Jas. Ballantine, D.R.O., V.D.

Judge not that ye be not judged; we carried the torch to the goal. The goal is won; guard the fire; it is yours; but remember our soul breathes through the life that we saved, when our lives went out in the night; Your body is woven of ours; see that the torch is alight.

It is one thing to inspect those men of 1914 as they gathered together at the Armouries that night in early August, and another thing to try to visualize them now, when so many of them are no more than a Regimental Number, and a name on the records of the Fourth and other Battalions, or on some memorial tablet.

That good looking thin faced fellow by himself is Alf Winterburn; I was told a pretty story which I have not time to repeat here, but from the description given me. When we were at a small place near Fleurbaey in the Ardennes, and I was in the Brigade staff, as well as the Guard made for cover. When the storm abated and the rain returned, the story was told of a lone Sentry marching up and down his beat; and having seen that the guard had taken to cover, he asked the sentry how he came to be there, and the reply was "I am waiting to be relieved, Sir." When Winterburn passed on, one of his old comrades heard the news with a heavy heart.

Don't Worry About Vitamins

Of course, you need vitamins—and you can get them all in this breakfast: A glass of orange juice for Vitamin C—then a bowl of Shredded Wheat with whole milk for Vitamins A, B, D and E. A delicious breakfast, easily and quickly prepared and costs but a few cents. If you like a hot dish, pour hot milk over the biscuits.
