Wednesday, Mar. 19—"Senior American" talking with Ken Maynard. No. 6 "Tarsan" Comedy—"Don't be Nervous."

Friday and Saturday, Mar. 21 and 22—"The Gay Cavalier" with Ken Maynard. No. 6 "Tarsan" Comedy—"Don't be Nervous."

D. W. Griffith starring Lupe Velez and William Boyd. Comedy—"Hot and Cold" with Ken Maynard. No. 6 "Tarsan" Comedy—"Don't be Nervous."

Tuesday and Wednesday, Mar. 20 and 21—"Drake Case" all talking mystery. "The Mystery of the Mystery" No. 7—"Tarsan the Tiger" Comedy—"Scotch."

Mr. George Scroggie, violinist, of Georgetown was accompanied at the piano by Mr. Kirk. Their rendering of "Adanna," "Cavatina" and "Ave Marie" with encore was much appreciated.

Those who heard Mr. Leland Gregory speak at the recent convocation of the Baptist Church, looked for a treat on this occasion and were by no means disappointed. His talk was a combination of the solid, "Aspiration," "The Hunter's Loud Hail" and "The Week of Prayer." His delivery was clear and emphatic and his audience gave sympathetic applause and demanded an encore.

Mrs. O. H. MacNaughton of Toronto, came as a stranger but in her first reading "The Royal Bumper," she made friends with the entire audience. Her humor, alertness, mimicry, voice and gesture were wonderfully pleasing and expressive. Again and again she was called to the platform and for every appearance added to her popularity.

"God Save the King" was heartily sung by an audience highly gratified and hopeful of another such occasion soon.

PAST MASTERS' NIGHT AT L.O.L. NO. 245

L.O.L. No. 245 held a Past Masters' Night in their rooms on Tuesday evening the 11th inst. There was a good attendance of members and visiting brethren from Cleveland, with Past Masters of the lodge occupying all the chairs.

The degree staff consisting of all Past Masters of 245, consisted of the following: Wor. Bro. W. J. McNally, Wor. Bro. W. Long, A. Royce, G. J. Cummings, J. Blair, R. J. McCartney, W. J. McCartney, Cook, A. Royce, G. Martin. The Past Masters were welcomed and invited to take over the various stations by Wor. Bro. D. A. Lewis, Wor. Master of the lodge. He also requested Wor. Bro. A. Robinson to act as Toastmaster at the banquet, where several addresses were given by the Past Masters of 245 as a musical program was provided by Bro. Joseph and William Young. Wor. Bro. D. A. Lewis complimented the Past Masters for the able manner in which they exemplified the first degree.

Before the close Past Master J. McNally on behalf of the lodge presented Wor. Bro. Robinson with a Past-Master's Jewel and a certificate of the able manner in which he had performed his duties as Wor. Master during his term of office. Wor. Bro. Robinson suitably replied by thanking the brethren for presenting him with the honor and the recognition which the highest position that a primary lodge could bestow upon a Past Master. He also thanked the brethren for their kind and generous guidance and destiny of the lodge for 1929. After all the brethren had partaken of the banquet, the singing of "God Save the King" and "Auld Lang Syne" brought to a close the night of the history of L.O.L. No. 245.

Wednesday, Mar. 19—"Senior American" talking with Ken Maynard. No. 6 "Tarsan" Comedy—"Don't be Nervous."

Friday and Saturday, Mar. 21 and 22—"The Gay Cavalier" with Ken Maynard. No. 6 "Tarsan" Comedy—"Don't be Nervous."

D. W. Griffith starring Lupe Velez and William Boyd. Comedy—"Hot and Cold" with Ken Maynard. No. 6 "Tarsan" Comedy—"Don't be Nervous."

Tuesday and Wednesday, Mar. 20 and 21—"Drake Case" all talking mystery. "The Mystery of the Mystery" No. 7—"Tarsan the Tiger" Comedy—"Scotch."

Mr. George Scroggie, violinist, of Georgetown was accompanied at the piano by Mr. Kirk. Their rendering of "Adanna," "Cavatina" and "Ave Marie" with encore was much appreciated.

Those who heard Mr. Leland Gregory speak at the recent convocation of the Baptist Church, looked for a treat on this occasion and were by no means disappointed. His talk was a combination of the solid, "Aspiration," "The Hunter's Loud Hail" and "The Week of Prayer." His delivery was clear and emphatic and his audience gave sympathetic applause and demanded an encore.

Mrs. O. H. MacNaughton of Toronto, came as a stranger but in her first reading "The Royal Bumper," she made friends with the entire audience. Her humor, alertness, mimicry, voice and gesture were wonderfully pleasing and expressive. Again and again she was called to the platform and for every appearance added to her popularity.

"God Save the King" was heartily sung by an audience highly gratified and hopeful of another such occasion soon.

PAST MASTERS' NIGHT AT L.O.L. NO. 245

L.O.L. No. 245 held a Past Masters' Night in their rooms on Tuesday evening the 11th inst. There was a good attendance of members and visiting brethren from Cleveland, with Past Masters of the lodge occupying all the chairs.

The degree staff consisting of all Past Masters of 245, consisted of the following: Wor. Bro. W. J. McNally, Wor. Bro. W. Long, A. Royce, G. J. Cummings, J. Blair, R. J. McCartney, W. J. McCartney, Cook, A. Royce, G. Martin. The Past Masters were welcomed and invited to take over the various stations by Wor. Bro. D. A. Lewis, Wor. Master of the lodge. He also requested Wor. Bro. A. Robinson to act as Toastmaster at the banquet, where several addresses were given by the Past Masters of 245 as a musical program was provided by Bro. Joseph and William Young. Wor. Bro. D. A. Lewis complimented the Past Masters for the able manner in which they exemplified the first degree.

Before the close Past Master J. McNally on behalf of the lodge presented Wor. Bro. Robinson with a Past-Master's Jewel and a certificate of the able manner in which he had performed his duties as Wor. Master during his term of office. Wor. Bro. Robinson suitably replied by thanking the brethren for presenting him with the honor and the recognition which the highest position that a primary lodge could bestow upon a Past Master. He also thanked the brethren for their kind and generous guidance and destiny of the lodge for 1929. After all the brethren had partaken of the banquet, the singing of "God Save the King" and "Auld Lang Syne" brought to a close the night of the history of L.O.L. No. 245.
