MARRIAGES

BELL-GUNDY—In New Toronto on Saturday, March 29th, 1930, Florence Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gundy, Toronto, to W. J. Cameron Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Bell, Georgetown.

IN MEMORIAM

SLEIGHTHOLME—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Arthur Sleightholme, who passed away April 9th, 1925. The rolling streams of life pass on But still the vacant chair. Recalls the love, the smiles, the voice Of the one who once sat there. —Sadly missed by wife and daughter.

FEETER—In loving memory of Ellen Feeter, who died April 3rd, 1929. As through this weary world I wander My thoughts alone will be of you. In memory I will see you ever I loved you better than you knew. Rest on dear mother your labors are over Your willing hands will toll no more. I thought it hard, but God knew best. And took you from this world to rest. —Her daughter Nancy.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM J. COTTRELL—William J. Cottrell, 83, one of Milton's oldest residents, and father of George R. Cottrell, corporation executive of the head office of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Toronto, died April 3rd, at his farm homestead at Milton. The late Mr. Cottrell had enjoyed excellent health until a few days ago. He had lived on his farm at Milton practically all his life. It was there that his two children, George and Ethel, now Mrs. Thomas S. Chisholm of Milton, were born. He was one of the pillars of the local Methodist Church, and was a well-loved and respected by a wide circle of friends. His wife, formerly Miss Margaret May, predeceased him two years ago and besides his son and daughter, he is survived by one grandson.

ACTON

Mr. Malcolm McKerral of Glenwilliams, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wilson over the week end. Mrs. Arch McInnis, an elderly lady and a former esteemed resident of Acton passed away on Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. L. Gierich, at the ripe old age of 83 years. Mrs. David Carnahan received word this week of the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Alex Carnahan, at Grandview, Manitoba. His death occurred on Thursday last, just two weeks after the death of his brother here, Mr. David Carnahan. Besides his widow, four daughters remain to mourn his loss.

Mr. A. LeRoy Dale of Georgetown, who was so seriously injured in a collision with a car and fire on the Seventh Line, on the 14th July last, was able to take his first drive out since his return from the hospital, on Sunday afternoon. Chief Marshall was his chauffeur, and Acton was the objective of the drive. Mr. Dale is looking well, and says he expects to resume his office and court practice very shortly.—Free Press.

ERIN

Word was received here of the death of Mrs. James Houston, mother of Rev. John Lindsay, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Whitby, formerly pastor of Erin's Church, Erin, which occurred Sunday night at her home at Danville, Quebec. Mrs. Houston was in her 86th year. Friends here received the pleasing news that Master Donald Sutton and Miss Betty Sutton, children of late Wm. Sutton, formerly of Erin, were honored in the finals in an oratorical contest at Windermere United Church, Toronto, recently. Master Donald won second place and a silver cup, his subject being "Benefits of a Good Education." Miss Betty was tied for third place, receiving a bronze medal, her subject was "How our Junior League benefits the community."

On Monday morning a telephone call for help quickly summoned many willing hands from the village and neighbors to the home of James Miller, Lot 13, 5th line, Erin. Fire broke out between the roof and eaves of the main portion and soon the house and was rapidly spreading when neighbors arrived. Well directed gallant work with extinguishers and water finally brought the flames under control, but not before a large portion of the roof was ruined and much of the interior decoration destroyed by water and smoke.—Advocate.

GLENWILLIAMS

A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. H. Warren on Thursday evening last, in honor of Miss Martha Marchmont, whose marriage to Mr. Jack Addy, takes place this month. About 60 friends were present. The following address was read by Miss Bessie Forgrave: Dear Martha: We cannot allow this opportunity to pass without offering good wishes and expressing our appreciation of yourself and the services you have so capably rendered us, and this, your home community.

That you are approaching the realization of the fond hopes of most maidens is a reason for congratulations and we join with all your friends in wishing you the brightest and happiest future possible. The fortunate young man who has won your heart will, we trust, allow us to follow with loving interest your future, and hope he will show fully the kindness we would faintly express in these trifling souvenirs we present you. Sincerely yours, Choir, Young People of the United Church and Community Friends.

After the presentation and opening of the gifts, Miss Marchmont thanked her many friends for their kindness. Refreshments were served to the large gathering by Misses M. Graham, M. Mullin, B. Forgrave, Mrs. Fry, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Ingles before the gathering dispersed after a very delightful evening. The Quartette of the Baptist Seminary, Toronto, will be at the United Church on Sunday evening. Misses Susan Hepburn and Rose-mund Bell of Toronto spent Sunday with Glen friends. A pancake social will be held in the United Church on Thursday evening, April 24th. Watch for further particulars. We are glad to see Mr. T. J. Hill who has been in ill health for some time, is improving as well as can be expected.

The warm weather Saturday brought the gardeners and their spades out. Keep Thursday, April 24th open for the big pancake social.

CARD OF THANKS We hereby convey to friends and neighbors our sincere thanks for the many kindnesses and sympathy extended to us on the occasion of our sad bereavement by the death of a beloved husband and father the late John Ballantine Sr.—Mrs. Ballantine and Family.

SWIMMING POOL

FUND OPENED AND CONTRIBUTIONS WILL BE APPRECIATED

The proposal by the Local Council of Women to build a Swimming Pool in Georgetown is now taking definite shape and a fund has been opened to raise money by public subscription for the building of same. This is a matter in which every citizen can help. It is not only the larger subscriptions but the smaller amounts as well are appreciated. Let's all do our bit towards this worthy proposition. Subscription to Date Local Council of Women, eucyre 15100

LACROSSE

A meeting was held in the town hall on Friday night, Apr. 9th for the purpose of organizing the Lacrosse Club for the season of 1930. Owing to the absence of the Perennial Health, Reeve McIntyre presided and the meeting decided to have intermediate and juvenile teams. The following officers were elected: President—Dr. R. T. Paul, Dr. Watson, W. B. Mackenzie and A. E. Cordingley. Vice-President—H. Darling. Secretary—Wallace Thompson. Treasurer—O. W. McIntyre. A Executive Committee—A. Duncan, R. Isley, Dr. Heath, H. Cleave. Manager of Intermediate Section—Allan. Convener of Juvenile, Jos. Hall.

CADET INSPECTION

The annual inspection of the Georgetown High School Cadet Corps will be held in the High School grounds on Tuesday, April 29th at 10 a.m. The students will be examined in the following subjects: Ceremonial, Rifle Exercises, First Aid, Physical Training.

The general public is cordially invited to attend the exercises and give the boys any deserved applause. Major Sawers of Toronto will inspect the corps which is expected to sustain the high reputation gained by the unit in previous years. A substantial prize will be awarded to the smartest cadet in platoon No. 1, and another similar prize will be presented to the greatest one in No. 2.

The following officers and N.O.'s will lead the cadets: Captain RAY Crichton, Second-in-Command, Norman Bally; Lieutenants, J. Harrison, Charles Stocker, Sgt. James Evans, Eben Prith; Sgt.-Major, Hugh McNally.

As the cadets have already reached a fair degree of proficiency, they will undoubtedly give a good account of themselves.

BALLINAFAD

The capacity of the community hall at Ballinafad was well tested on Friday night, April 4th, when favoured by excellent weather conditions, the Ladies Aid Society of the United Church produced their one-act comedy "The Spinster's Convention." The old-fashioned dresses, hats, fans, work boxes and all the paraphernalia that goes to make up an old maid, contributed in no small degree to the success of the production which were so capably acted by each and every player.

That the age of miracle is not past was clearly manifested by the astonishing results which Professor Makeover was able to obtain with his wonderful transforming machine, the "Modelscope."

If you were unable to be present on Friday evening you will have the opportunity of seeing this comedy when it is reproduced by our players in Erin and Hillsburg in the near future.

MILTON

Mrs. W. H. Stewart and daughter, Mary of Toronto, formerly of Erin, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Denver on Sunday. Mr. Stewart is Donald P. (Pat) Robertson, who is taking a course at the Royal Military College, Kingston, spent the week-end at his home here.

E. T. Emerson of Nelson township has sold his farm to a syndicate which will divide the property into one and five-acre lots.

Mr. Hugh Campbell, who has been confined to his room with an attack of pleurisy is making good progress towards recovery, his friends will be glad to know.

Word has been received of the death of William E. Mitchell in Vancouver, B.C., which occurred within a short time of the passing of his brother, Matthew, at Dixie. Mr. Mitchell was the eldest son of the late John Mitchell and was born 12 years ago. He married Miss Edith Ingledew and they went west to live about 20 years ago.—Reformer.

An Accident: "You know that old vase, mum, you said 'ad bin'anded down from generation to generation?" "Missus (anxiously): "Yes." "Maid: "Well, this generation 'as dropped it."
