Georgetown and Ashgrove IN SEMI-DEBATE
On Monday evening the Georgetown and Ashgrove Young People's Societies met in Ashgrove for the semi-final debate in the Halton Presbytery contest.
Mr. M. Bird, president of Ashgrove Y.P.S. opened the meeting with a hymn and prayer. Mr. Bird then extended a hearty welcome to the Georgetown Y.P.S.
Rev. Mr. Nell then took the chair and asked the judges and speakers to take their places. The subject of the debate was then read: Resolved: "That the automobile up to the present, has done more harm than good."
The speakers all did exceedingly well. Mr. Merry of Bethel, Rev. W. Mackinnon of Norval and Dr. Watson of Georgetown acted as judges.
Mrs. Cleave president of the Georgetown society called upon Miss Cook for a solo and Miss Cook and Miss R. Evans for a duet. Both these musical numbers were very much appreciated.
With intense excitement all awaited the announcement of the result of the debate. This was given by Rev. Mr. Mackinnon, who stated that the negative side had won.
Lunch was served by the Ashgrove Y.P.S. and was exceptionally enjoyable and enjoyable evening.
