Annual Convention of Halton County W.C.T.U.
The thirty-fourth annual convention of the W.C.T.U. of Halton County was held in the Baptist Church in Georgetown, June 19th.
The convention was opened at 10 o'clock, the president Mrs. Tuck of Oakville in the chair. There was a guest representation from all the five unions of the county.
The devotional exercises were taken by Mrs. W. C. Riddford, President of the Burlington Union, assisted by Mrs. Mitchell, who read the scriptures. The regular routine of business was then taken up by the various departments and all reported splendid progress, especially along "Scientific Temperance Lines" both in the Sunday Schools and the educational institutions of the county.
The election of officers then followed.

President, Mrs. W. H. Tuck, Oakville; First Vice-Pres., Mrs. E. S. Hartman, Milton; Second Vice-Pres., Mrs. Rev. J. Caldwell, Limehouse; Cor.-Sec., Miss E. Crossley, Oakville; Recording-Sec., Miss M. Bennett, Acton.
The afternoon devotional period was taken by the Milton Union and led by the President, Mrs. R. E. Harrison. A conference of the superintendents was then held, and the annual report was conducted by Mrs. J. M. Denves and Mrs. T. T. George.
The next item on the programme was a very interesting and instructive playlet put on by some of the members of the Burlington W.C.T.U., which was deeply appreciated by all.
A beautiful solo was then rendered by Lt. Gaylard of the local corps of the Salvation Army, which all enjoyed.

The address of the afternoon was then given by Mrs. T. T. George, Field Secretary. In her address, Mrs. George mentioned the great need of obtaining information regarding the consumption of liquor. She spoke of taking advantage of teaching along scientific temperance lines in day schools and homes. The parents also have a great responsibility towards their children. The course of study through the Sunday Schools reached over one thousand homes this year. The series of temperance lessons will be ready for the Sunday schools in October, and will result in great good.
The evening devotions were conducted by Rev. A. N. Frith of the Baptist Church, after which Mrs. Allart sang a solo and the Messrs. Packer of Limehouse, duet.
The address of the evening was then given by Mrs. W. Pusley, former Provincial President. It was a forceful effort along temperance lines. During the late provincial election the people were deceived by the liquor ture sent out by the liquor interest. We were promised among other things that the C.C.A. would set a mark of respectability upon the liquor traffic. Money is being wasted by the millions, and womanhood is being lowered while crime is on the increase and our jails are over-crowded with drunken drivers, both men and women, to the ever lasting disgrace of this fair province of ours. This condition of affairs will continue to grow worse till our pulpits ring true, and the pews stand behind the pulpit and the church gets on her knees before God, but rest assured that God will render to every man according to his works.

The report of the Judges of the Gold Medal Contest was then given. Mrs. R. E. Galbraith of Milton, Superintendent of Medal Contest, then presented Master Jack Virtue with the Gold Medal for the best oration of the county along temperance lines. Jack hails from Burlington and has a bright future ahead of him.
Mrs. A. T. Brown of Acton, Superintendent of Temperance in S. B. presented prizes to—Sr. Clara—Prize Laureen Galbraith, Milton; second, Dorothy Crawford, Milton. Sr. Boys—first, Norman Gibson, Acton; Inter-Girls—first, Joy Galbraith, Milton; second, Margaret Pickett, Milton. Inter-Boys—first, Arthur Dayfoot, Georgetown; second, Ross Hartwell, Killbuck; Jr. Girls—first, Francis Deans, Georgetown; second, Muriel Smith, Palermo. Jr. Boys—first, Kenneth Marshall, Milton; second, Thomas Hamilton, Milton.
Mrs. T. T. George, Field Secretary, presented the prizes for Scientific Temperance in the schools of the county.

School—first, Iva Halliday, Milton; second, Evelyn Stewart, Burlington; Lower, first, Arthur Dayfoot; second, Isabel Switzer, Acton; Fourth Book—first, Mabel Grief, Oakville; second, Beth Harrison, Acton; Junior—first, Joe Galbraith, Milton; second, Fred Bolger, Georgetown. Presentation to Mr. Jas. Scott
On Saturday evening, June 21st, 1930, the employees of the Provincial Paper Mill gathered at the Canadian Legion Hall to pay their respects to Mr. James Scott, who is retiring from business at the end of the present month.
Mr. Scott holds a unique position in the paper industry in Canada, and we believe in the United States as well. He has been employed in the industry and in the same mill for the past sixty-seven years. He commenced work with the Mill when it was known as the Barber Paper Company, at the age of ten years, and has remained in the same Mill ever since. He has lost practically no time from work during that period and has never had a serious illness.
The banquet and presentation on Saturday night came as a complete surprise to Mr. Scott. He received an invitation to be at the hall at 9:30 o'clock and when he arrived he was welcomed by sixty of his fellow-workers and was conducted to his chair at a table decorated and flower-laden table. Mr. Ed. McWhirter, Superintendent of the Paper Mill, acted as toastmaster, and after telling Mr. Scott the purpose of the evening, gave a short address reviewing Mr. Scott's career and also expressing his own personal well-wishes for his future. Mr. James Costigan then, read an illuminated address to Mr. Scott, after which Mr. Charles Hoare presented a gold-headed ebony cane and a walnut smoking stand on behalf of Mr. Scott's fellow-workers. Mr. Scott was quite overcome with emotion and in reply said that while he knew that every man in the mill was his friend, he had no idea that they would show their friendship in such a wonderful manner. He thanked the gathering from the bottom of his heart and said that, while he is retiring from business, he does not intend spending his time in an arm-chair, but will be found at the bowling green every day having a game with the boys.
Speeches of congratulation were made by Messrs. W. V. Grant, Charles Burnside, John Garvin and John D. Kelly, all of whom expressed the pleasure they have had in knowing and working with Mr. Scott. The refreshments were then served and many toasts were done in sparkling glee to Mr. Scott's continued good health.
The gathering broke up at midnight with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and all went away feeling that the evening had been a success.

—Don't forget the half game at the Park on Saturday.
