DUBLIN'S RE-UNION WAS FINE SUCCESS

For months efforts have been in progress for a re-union of the Old Boys and Girls of Dublin School on Dominion Day. The response to the invitations sent out was highly gratifying when a gathering of between 700 and 800 assembled at the school on Tuesday afternoon.

The old school looked unusually attractive in a new coat of paint, of agreeably contrasting colors, and carefully shorn school playground, and the addition of Mr. Donald Waldie's meadow, admirably gave ideal recreation for platform, games and sports.

The reunion attracted old pupils and their families from a wide area. They were present from all parts of Ontario, from the cities and from the rural districts, from New Ontario and New York, from Glouversville and Johnstown, from Toronto and Hamilton, from Detroit and Rochester, from Buffalo and Ballinasfad, from Guelph and Georgetown, and from Esquewaug and Nassagawey, Milton and Brampton, and naturally a large contingent from Acton.

The programme was diversified and interesting. Johnston Brothers, a trio of Scottsblowers, from Toronto, entertained the proceedings during the afternoon with the strains of Highland airs. There were baseball games, on three separate diamonds, horse-shoe pitching, waiting on the dancing platform, but above all the meeting of old friends and the rehearsing of incidents of personal acquaintanceships and community life.

After a bounteous supper, in which the menu was wholesome, attractive and generous, the crowd was assembled at the platform. There Auctioneer Kerr auctioned off the famous autograph book, prepared by the Dublin Women's Institute, Mr. Duncan McDougall being the highest bidder.

The proceedings of the committees, through whose efforts the re-union was brought to so successful a conclusion, were—Refreshments, Peter Isaac, Music, John Black; Sports, J. B. Mackenzie; Platform, J. Sprawl; Booth, Duncan McDougall; and Chairman, Duncan Waldie and J. B. Black. They were assisted by a host of willing and competent workers.

The event was historic and was thoroughly enjoyed by the hundreds who attended.—Free Press.

We hereby convey our sincere thanks to neighbors and all who so willingly helped to extinguish the fire at our premises on Thursday last. Their kind assistance was much appreciated.

ANNUAL CHURCH PARADE OF LOYAL ORANGE LODGE AND TRUE BLUES

St. George's Church was filled to capacity on Sunday evening last, July 6th, on the occasion of the annual church parade of the True Blue and L.O.B.A. Lodges. The parade left the lodge rooms for the church headed by the Georgetown hose, the all-student costumes of the True Blues, looking very neat and cool. The service, printed on special service sheets, was heartily sung by the large congregation, the hymns especially being very enthusiastically rendered. Special prayers were offered by the pastor, who also read the lessons from the Old and New Testaments.

An extremely most hearty welcome to the various lodges represented at the service, the Rector reminded the members of one of the objects of their order, namely, that to be a true member of the L.O.B.A., they must be members of one of the L.O.B.A. and regular attendants at his home.

Basing his remarks upon the text "Christ is the love of the Church and love himself for it," (Ephesians 5:2), the Rector said there was a tendency in human nature to take things for granted. We do not often take the trouble to enquire into the origin of things, and this was particularly true of the church. We take the church for granted, without enquiring as to how it came into existence or what would be the result if it were ever to cease to be. This large subject the speaker said, could not be handled in detail, but he would take the church as it might be worth while just to find out what was the mind of Christ with regard to the church, to find out what His mind was, and also His teaching in this connection.

Our Lord was born into a very "classy" environment. This was the Jewish Priesthood with high ritual, sacrifices, feasts, fasts, ablations and ceremonies which He abhorred and used all through His earthly life. He was circumcised, attended all the Passovers, was always tagged and attended the synagogue worship regularly week by week. He declared when on trial for His life that He had never openly in the Synagogue and in the Temple, which shows that He found established religious usage of the Jewish Law, like God's natural laws cannot be broken without serious danger and loss to the individual who breaks them. He was circumcised, or deliberately broke them.

The founder of the church was the Lord Jesus Christ, who prayed all night to God and then, at the age of 12, out a large number of followers, that they might be with Him and that He might send them forth to preach the Gospel. He instructed in the organization of the church. The word church means those "called out" and placed together into an organization by a common impulse. Common devotion to His Divine Spirit, whom He would send, to lead them, to teach them and to guide them into all truth. They were to baptize all believers and make disciples of all nations. St. Paul speaks of this church as the "Body of Christ," and the "Church of Christ." The Church not only proclaims Christ's will, but also embodies Christ's will. It is a Divine Society and although its children, its members may not all be living up to their obligation, their privileges by reason of their neglect of God's word, keeping His day of rest, attending His house on His day to offer praise and worship to Him, yet they are still God's children and when they leave the far country and decide to return they find the Father going out to meet them and welcoming them back as sons. A time like the present affords a good opportunity to face our obligations afresh and decide as good soldiers of the King, to march forward under His banner to victory, with the Great Prince Leader going on before.

During the offertory the Choir sang very acceptably the anthem, "Abide with me fast falls the eventide." Mrs. Bradley, organist, presided at the organ in her usual capable manner.

At the close of the service, the parade reformed and marched through the streets to the Park, where a beautiful banner was dedicated and presented to the True Blue Lodge.

Farmer's Fatal Fall

Tragic circumstances marked the end of W. Wellwood, farmer, Dunlop, highway whose funeral was held Friday afternoon. Mr. Wellwood was on a load of hay in his barn on Wednesday when he slid and fell. The hired man heard the thud on the hard barn floor and rushed to his employer's aid but found that his life was extinct. Mr. Wellwood was 60 years of age. He was formerly associated with the Wellwood Dairy in Toronto and came from the city to the Herbert Conover farm about two years ago.

The Most Economical Protection for Your Home

"Price-per-Gallon" is a very deceiving basis on which to judge the Cost of Paint, as is shown below in the comparative costs of painting two houses of the same size.

All things being equal, the higher the Price-per-Gallon, the higher the quality—and the lower the initial or ultimate cost of paint is sure to be. Cheap "Price-per-Gallon" Paint not only increases the cost of painting, but also the cost of labor of protection and the cost of repainting. These points are illustrated in the following comparison.

Low Brothers High Standard Paints Vs. Cheap Paints

Average Price Low Brothers High Standard Paint per gallon	$5.35	$3.50	Average Price, Cheap Paint, per gallon
Average Coverage per gallon	450 Square Feet (2 Coats)	300 Square Feet (2 Coats)	Average Coverage, Cheap Paint, per gallon
Required for 2250 Square Feet	5 Gallons $26.75	7 1/2 Gallons $26.25	Required for 2250 Square Feet
Labor Cost of applying 5 Gallons of Low Bros. Paint at $7.00 per gallon	$35.00	$52.50	Labor Cost of Applying 7 1/2 Gallons Cheap Paint
