USE HEATING PLANT TO COOL OR HEAT HOUSE

-----A new development in heating equipment will largely revolutionize the systems of heating and controlling the air in modern homes, was the interesting statement made today by the Home Heating Department of the Gilson Manufacturing Co. Limited. Not only will the furnace heat the house in cold weather, but it will be during the sultry days of summer. This is accomplished by a modern type of air vapour system which keeps a proper amount of moisture in the air when the furnace is used to generate heat and is equipped to keep the air of the home comfortable and invigorating on the days when "there isn't a breath of air anywhere." The new type of "heating-cooling" plant is a big step forward in home tion, requiring no attention except to
