FIRST AID

The First Aid Class assembled in the town hall for its opening meeting of the season on Tuesday night, Mr. Wm. Long acted as chairman of the evening. Present were twenty-five members, beginners and others interested present.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary, Mr. Broomehead, and adopted. The chairman then called upon Major Debeney of the St. John's Ambulance Association of Toronto and Mr. E. McWhirter to make the presentations of the certificates to the successful candidates and stated that they hoped to see a larger class this coming season.

Major Debeney then addressed the meeting on the importance of the First Aid Brigade in Georgetown would be a big asset to the community. For First Aid to the injured is a special branch of surgery, by a knowledge of which trained persons are enabled to afford skilled assistance in case of accidents and in the absence of a doctor. Mr. Debeney also said that the duty of the First Aider ends where the doctors begin. In closing he said that he would do all in his power to help form a brigade in Georgetown.

There was then some discussion as to whether we would have a Home Nursing Class and also a First Aid Class this year. It was unanimously decided that we should carry on both classes and that the Home Nursing Class start on Oct. 7th and the First Aid Class on Oct. 9th.

A motion was passed to the effect that we invite all those who are desirous of learning First Aid to kindly hand their name into the secretary on or before Oct. 7th.

It was decided that Dr. C. V. Williams take charge of the home nursing and that Dr. Paul be invited to conduct the First Aid lectures.

A resolution was also passed that the ladies of Georgetown be invited to start a First Aid Class and that the men's class would do anything to assist them.

The election of officers was then carried out, Mr. R. B. Poullis being returned to office as president, Mr. E. McWhirter elected 1st vice-president and Mr. Broomehead re-elected secretary-treasurer.

A vote of thanks was then tendered Mr. Debeney for his kind assistance and address.

At the hour was getting late the meeting was adjourned.

Birthday Reception to Major Grant

BY THE LADIES OF KNOX PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A social event of an unusual but thoroughly interesting character was consummated in the school room of Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, last Thursday evening. The function was the celebration of the eighty-fifth birthday of Major Lachlan Grant, which happy occasion was inaugurated, and successfully carried out by the ladies of the congregation.

Major Grant removed from Acton to Georgetown sixty-three years ago, and while he has been identified through the years with the various activities of the community, as a loyal citizen should be, his closest relations have been with Knox Church. Here he has been an Elder for upwards of half a century; superintendent of the Sunday School for many years; interested in all the activities and enterprises of the church at home and in the broader field of missionary and other Christian work, he naturally feels that his church has first place in his considerations, and this has been his experience.

Nevertheless, Major Grant has taken time to perform those duties of good citizenship which claim the attention of all loyal residents of a community. He was at various times active in municipal matters, both in connection with the Town Council and the Council; he was a member of the Board of Education, has high standing in the Masonic order and has ever observed the principles and amenities of the upright resident. His military service dates back to 1866, when he was enlisted as a member of Company No. 6 of the Halton Rifles, at Acton. He received the rank of Major and was was for a time, Quarter-Master for his battalion.

Very human indeed has been his life-long career. Kind and considerate to all; helpful and sympathetic in his relations with those from time to time suffered the loss of friends or fortune—it is no wonder he is popular and beloved in church and town.

The birthday celebration was a happy affair indeed. The ladies had decorated the schoolroom very artistically and especially the central table from which refreshments were served. Mrs. Somerville and Mrs. Devereaux, two of the oldest members of the church, and an attentive group of ladies served refreshments. A storied birthday cake, decorated with lighted candles, was presented to Major Grant, and all present received a portion of the delectable confection. Before cutting the cake, the Major blew out the 85 candles, all of which were extinguished in the third effort.

Following the church being without a pastor at the present time, Rev. Ewen and Mrs. McDonald of Norval, Presbyterian Church, were invited to hostess for the evening. After all had been served Rev. M. MacDonald took the chair, and he, in a most interesting and happy address, which had arrived from Bonnie Scotland the day before, was presented to Major Grant on behalf of his friend, Mr. S. Kirk.

After a happy introductory address by the chairman, brief speeches were made by Magistrate H. P. Moore of Acton, telling of the Major's early days spent in that town, of the kindly feelings still held there for Major Grant, by Mr. L. F. Greenwood, of Norval, the W.M. of Credit Lodge, A. F. & A.M., in which the fraternal relationships and attainments of R. H. Bro. Grant were emphasized; by Rev. Mr. Frith, of the Baptist Church, bearing greetings from the members of that community and a complimentary resolution to Major Grant. A communication was received from Rev. Mr. Wm. H. St. George's Church, expressing regret that he was unable to be present and conveying his warmest wishes to the Major for continued health and happiness. Rev. Mr. Rumley, of the United Church spoke in expressive terms of the estimate of the religious population of Georgetown of the value of the life and conduct of a man of the type of Major Grant to the community. Congratulatory speeches were also made by Mr. E. McWhirter, P. Mimms, C. Stockford, A. Carter, Mr. Debeney and Mr. McWhirter congratulated the successful candidates and stated that they hoped to see a larger class this coming season.

Major Debeney then addressed the meeting on the importance of the First Aid Brigade in Georgetown would be a big asset to the community. For First Aid to the injured is a special branch of surgery, by a knowledge of which trained persons are enabled to afford skilled assistance in case of accidents and in the absence of a doctor. Mr. Debeney also said that the duty of the First Aider ends where the doctors begin. In closing he said that he would do all in his power to help form a brigade in Georgetown.

There was then some discussion as to whether we would have a Home Nursing Class and also a First Aid Class this year. It was unanimously decided that we should carry on both classes and that the Home Nursing Class start on Oct. 7th and the First Aid Class on Oct. 9th.

A vote of thanks was then tendered Mr. Debeney for his kind assistance and address.

At the hour was getting late the meeting was adjourned.

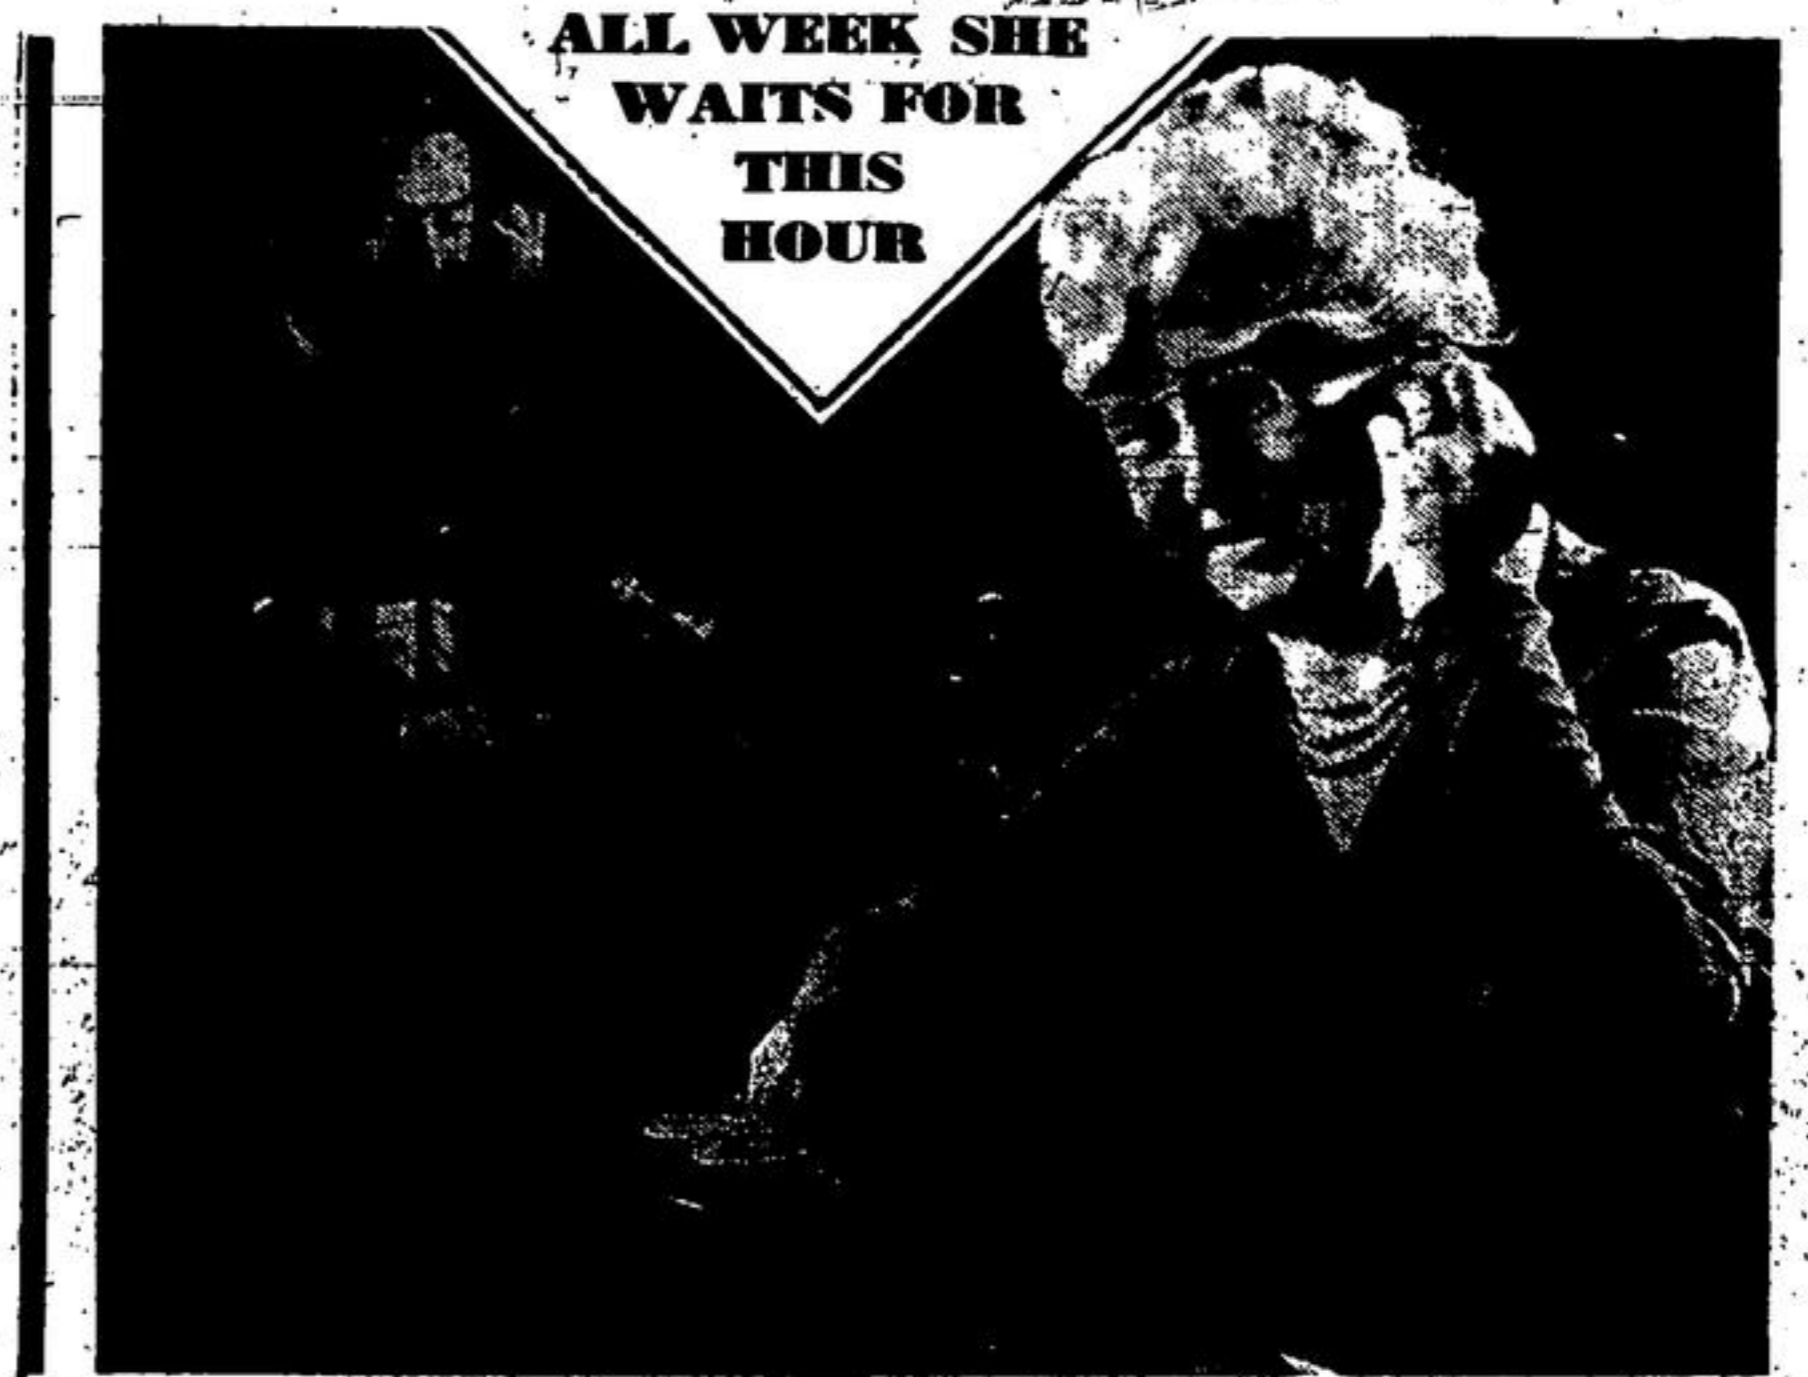

After a social half hour a vote of thanks was tendered the hostess, and the meeting adjourned.

He—You are the most beautiful woman in the world.
She—Oh! How quick you are at noticing things.

How excited — and how happy — she was the first time she heard her son's voice come over the telephone from a distant city. Talking with him was as easy as though he were in the same room. It was something to remember and so cherish for days afterwards.

And how much happier she has become, because Fred comes home by telephone now every week. He calls her every Sunday evening at eight-thirty. It is an hour she waits for and looks forward to all week long. It brightens days that had become a bit empty and lonely with the family scattered. Fred is happier, too. For the price of a movie he gets something no money can measure — his mother's voice — a touch of home. It's a fine way to start a new week's work.

Evening rates of "Anyone" (station-to-station) calls now begin at 7 p.m. Night rates begin at 8.30 p.m. Just give "Long Distance" the number you want — it speeds up the service. If you don't know the distant number, "Information" will look it up for you.
