YOU CAN WIN $100 IN CASH

Because we have appreciated the opportunity of serving you in the past and because we feel that you are interested in the newest things that are being offered in men's apparel, we are writing you to tell you that we have sent forward our Fall and Winter set of special order samples, for ROYAL YORK and JOHNSTON APPROVED Clothes to H. Golstein, who is our agent in your community.

. You find in our range the most complete assortment of patterns and colors, but you will find that in every instance where it was possible to increase the weight and quality of the cloth; we have given you the benefit of the advantage in lower price.

We feel that, having demonstrated your interest in our line in the past, we want you to have the full advantage to make your selection for your Pall wardrobe from a full assortment of patterns.

A year ago we conducted a competition for a name for our Special Order line. The selection of ROYAL YORK clothes was the result. As a customer or prospective customer, we want you to have an opportunity in connection with another contest and we are offering $100.00 as a cash prize for the best slogan of six words as to why ROYAL YORK clothes are the best.

We want a slogan to go with the name.' As a suggestion one might say "THEY SATISFY ALL WAYS," but we believe in asking our friends and customers for their suggestion that we can get something even better than this. If you are the fortunate one to have your contribution selected, re will be glad to send you a cheque for $100.00. Remember there are only two conditions incidental to this competition-first, the slogan must not contain more than six words. Second, your contribution must be signed and mailed to us through the agent for ROYAL YORK clothes in your community. The competition closes October 31st, 1930. Any letter mailed up to midnight of that date from anywhere in Canada will be eligible. Send as many slogans as

See H. Goldstein your ROYAL YORK agent, look over his set of samples, make your selection for your Fall wardrobe and send in your contribution to the Slogan Competition at once.

Goods at stock reduction prices as advertised last week are still available. Come and get your share of the bargains.
