THE FLYING OF THE FLAGS

The Canadian Legion Provincial Command meeting in St. Thomas recently passed a resolution asking the Government to pass a law making it an offence to fly any flag on any buildin in Canada, excepting the home of an ambassador or consul, which is under international law unless accompanied by the Union Jack, and that tourists be compelled to fly the Union Jack if they wish to display that of their own country. For years visitors, at least some of them, from the United States were in the habit of coming over flying the Stars and Stripes without displaying the Union Jack. This is an act of discourtesy which Canadians one and all resent while they may not always protest. But latterly, no doubt owing to the fact that the matter has been called to their attention, our southern cousregard so much.
