KNOX PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

PROF. BRYDON OF KNOX COLLEGE PREACHED INSPIRING SERMONS TO LARGE CONGREGATIONS. TEA MEETING AND PROGRAM

Another mile stone has been passed in the history of Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, and the occasion was celebrated on Sunday last when anniversary services were held in the beautiful church edifice in town.

Large congregations were present both morning and evening when the services were conducted by Prof. Brydon of Knox College, Toronto, the preacher of the day.

At the morning service Prof. Brydon chose as the scripture lesson the first seventeen verses of the fifth chapter of St. John. As his text he chose Exodus 33rd chap. 11th verse: "And the Lord spoke unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend." Isaiah 41st chap. 8th verse: "But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham; my friend." James 2nd chap. 23rd verse: "And the scripture was fulfilled which saith: Abraham believed God, and was imputed unto him for righteousness; and he was called the Friend of God."

The speaker's subject was "A friend of God," and his splendid sermon was most inspiring to the large gathering present. He said in part: "Young people have not passed far enough in life to understand the real meaning of friendship. We must know the trials of others to be true friends. The Bible depicts men and women just as they are. Two men were named as friends of God, Abraham and Moses. God wants to be friends with all, and if God is like Jesus Christ we have a strong friend for ever and a man so full of joy and believed in men as Jesus Christ. We may meet many great people with whom it is impossible for us to be friends, but how great and glorious to think we may be friends with God. Whatever else may be in life we are not a friend of God all in vain. We should not criticize others when we know nothing of their hearts. God takes a number of names as he is asking each one of us to-day and we should harken to the still small voice. When our help is all and comforts fee God is always a present friend to help us. Jesus Christ said you are my friends if you do what I command you to do. Great things because he knows our difficulties and is a friend of man. God is talking to us in that still small voice to-day and we may talk to God in prayer. God's voice should lead us. The greatest thing man can do is to lay down and open his heart to God and be a friend of God. The foundation of the church to-day is 'Friends of God'."

The pulpit of the church was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers.

The special numbers by the choir under the able leadership of Mr. Pollett, the solo in the morning by Mrs. Pollett, the solo in the evening by Miss Marie Pleck and the organ voluntaries by Mr. Pollett, were much enjoyed by all present and added materially to the enjoyment of the occasion.

The tea meeting in the Sunday School room of the church on Monday evening was largely attended. The ladies of the congregation very ably sustained their past reputation by serving a most bountiful and delicious supper of which all partook most heartily. Following the supper an excellent musical program was rendered in the auditorium of the church conducted by the choir of the church. Mr. McCutcheon, baritone, of Hamilton; Mrs. Nellie Leuty, contralto, of Toronto; and Mr. Young, violinist, of Toronto, of Boston Church was chairman of the evening.

CORRESPONDENCE

To the Reeve of the Township of Esquevile:

Being a resident of the Township I understand that there is a contract to be let just outside of the town of Glen Williams. To straighten out and fill in a new piece of road and as I note by the conversations of a number of the unemployed that a steam shovel will be sent here to do this work.

As you are I suppose familiar with the unemployment situation in this town and other towns near at hand and as there are plenty of men and teams that could be put to work, why not spend this money in the township or our section of the county instead of sending it to Toronto or Hamilton.

Hoping that you will bring all the pressure that you have at your disposal to have county council do this work in this way and I think it will help to relieve a bad situation this winter.

Yours Truly,
Wm. Schenk.
Glen Williams, Oct. 20th, 1930.

BALLINAFAD

Pre-Communion service will be held in the United Church on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. John A. Nell of Hornby will preach.

Malcolm McKay of Toronto University was a week end guest at the home of his aunt Mrs. Wm. McKay. Old timers tell us that they have seen the roads blocked with snow in October, which remained until the Spring breezes melted it. We trust that those days are past and that we will have a return of the magnificent autumn days which we have been enjoying during the past week.

R. A. McNery added the Silver Trophy given at the Caledon Fair to his list of prizes.

Mr. Evans of Acton has been decorating the former Methodist church and it is looking quite fresh in its new dress.

The Ladies' Aid held their regular meeting on Tuesday, when they made arrangements for the supper which is to be held under the auspices of the United Church. The men of the congregation are making provision for an excellent programme.
