CONGRATULATIONS
HIRAM WALLACE CELEBRATED 100th BIRTHDAY AT GUELPH

The Guelph Daily Mercury joins with the citizens of Guelph in extending congratulations to Mr. Hiram Wallace on the occasion of his centenary, and in wishing him further years of happiness.

One hundred years is a long time as the span of life goes. The oldest living pioneer of this district, in the true sense of the term, for he was born in the township of Nassawaugua, a few miles from this city, and had resided in this section of Ontario for a full century. Mr. Wallace retains his faculties to a remarkable degree and has lost none of his zest for living. Afflicted with none of the ailments that so often beset old age, he enjoys every minute of every day.

His life linked with the early days, he is one of the few left who remember this thriving city of Guelph as a hamlet of scattered log houses, and who in retrospect can hear the long drawn howl of the wolf pack as it swept through the wilderness on the hunt; can recall the oaks as they strained on the yoke.

Mr. Wallace has run the full gamut of experience. His life has been full one. His longevity he attributes to hard work and plenty of it, and that probably has much to do with the happiness that is part and parcel of his philosophy of life. Possibly the fact that he made it a point to be happy and pushed aside worries and anxieties also had something to do with it.

During the one hundred years that Mr. Wallace has been on this earth he has seen Canada grow from a swaddling arms to a luscious young nation. He has seen a good many other changes, from pioneer days of the ox-cart down the years to the automobile and aircraft, and expects to see yet others before he is called from this vale of tears.—Guelph Mercury.

Dear Mrs. Millere: Your friends of Limehouse have learned with sincere regret that you Mrs. Millere and children, have decided to move to a neighboring town in the near future.

We cannot tell you how much your cheerful presence will be missed everywhere. The vacant place will be hard to fill, but we must content ourselves in knowing some other community will gain by your loss.

As a slight token of our regard and good will we ask you to accept this silver. In using it we hope it will keep pleasant memories of your friends here.

We wish you all every blessing in your new home associations, and pray we may all so live that some day we will meet as families unbroken, where we will not have to say good-bye.
