FATAL AUTO ACCIDENT

HUGH JAMES CLARK FATALLY INJURED WHEN TRUCK COLLIDES WITH FREIGHT TRAIN
A little after ten o'clock last Wednesday evening when James Clark was returning from Toronto where he had taken a load of live stock, his large truck which was driving, ran into a freight train at the O.P.R. crossing on No. 7 Highway just above Brampton. It was storming at the time and the wet snow on the windshield, it is thought, obscured the vision of the passing train. His truck struck the twenty-fourth car in the train, and was turned southward and dragged until it turned over on its side. A cow and a calf that were on the truck were thrown clear and escaped with little harm, but Mr. Clark was pinned in his cab and was unconscious when found.

He might have lain there for hours had not three men, Messrs. Murray, Beatty, Bob Boyd and Whyte, standing conversing at No. 10 corner, watching the train, going south, and seeing the truck, proceeded to begin speculating whether the train had struck the truck. One of them had a car at the three corners, the quarter of a mile to the crossing, where they found the crushed truck and Mr. Clark pinned in the cab. They hoisted the injured man and summoned Dr. Bromley who hastened to the scene of the accident. The ambulance was sent to the hospital, and Mr. Clark was taken to Peel Memorial Hospital. Word was sent to the young man's home here and Mr. Clark was brought to the hospital at midnight at the residence of the injured man never regained consciousness and passed away early on Friday morning. Deceased was 38 years of age and was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Clark of Georgetown, who with their family have the sympathy of the entire community in their very sad bereavement.

IN MEMORIAM
SCOTT—In loving memory of Mrs. W. W. Scott, Lincolnton, who passed away March 24th, 1930. God saw the road was getting rough. The hills were hard to climb. So he closed her weary eyelids. And whispered "Peace be Thine." We washed her bitter day. It caught us bitter grief. To see her slowly pine away. And could not give relief. Sadly missed by Mr. and Mrs. John R. Scott and Family.

SCOTT—In ever loving memory of our dear mother, Rachael Scott, who passed away March 24th, 1899. We often sit and think of you. And think of how you died. To think you could not say good-bye before you closed your eyes. You were always a loving mother. Faithful kind and true. And until we meet again dear mother. Our hearts will grieve for you. Greatly missed by daughters, Mrs. Alex. Dobble and Mrs. Ed. Hill.

HUGH JAMES CLARK
The sad and sudden death of Hugh James Clark, following an accident near Brampton, on Friday night, has cast a gloom over the entire community, and a happy home has been bereaved of an only and dearly beloved son and brother. The late James Clark was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Clark and was born in Ohingucousay, near Norval, 38 years ago. When about eleven years of age he came to Georgetown with his parents. He was educated at Georgetown and Brampton High Schools and Toronto University, and, at the time of his death was in the employ of the Dominion Government as Inspector of live stock at the stock yards in Toronto. During the Great War he served with the Royal Flying Corps and was severely wounded in an aeroplane crash. He was a member of Georgetown Post of the Canadian Legion; a member of Knox Presbyterian church and the Young Men's Class. James Clark was a young man who was well known and highly respected throughout the community and he had a host of friends who deeply regret his untimely death. Besides his parents he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Louise, Georgetown; Mrs. Douglas Ross, Montreal; and Mrs. Ray Graham of London. The funeral on Monday afternoon last from his father's home on Queen street was one of the largest ever seen in this community, over 100 people being present to pay their last respects to the deceased. ### OBITUARY

WOLF CUBS
Last Friday night the Cubs met at the usual time and the evening session in Knox Church. It was decided to hold a weekly instruction class for the sixers and second class. This should be a great help to the boys in earning their badges. GIRL GUIDES
Maybe we aren't sailing ahead with flying colors now. Nine girls, who have received training through the winter months from Mrs. Grieve, went rather fearfully to Mrs. Parr last Thursday night, to try to pass their Sick-Nurse Badge and everyone passed. And that's not the half of it. Six junior guides passed the same code in front of Lieutenant Hawes. And now for the very serious part of it. Seven of the girls, Ellen, Cora, and Irene Mulholland among them, are trying to pass their Cook's badge. We extend our sincerest sympathy towards the examiner, Miss Young, who by the way, has to eat the sample of cooking that the girls bring to her. If the girls keep winning badges like they are now, everyone will have at least five badges when the course will not displease Captain Carter. BROWNIES
The fact that the Guides haven't anything over the Brownies is upheld by the Brownie girls and their two leaders who now make up the Brownie Pack. They're due for a lot of credit too, they've taken, been started three weeks, and they have an ideal company. But there is still room for more girls, so come along every Monday evening, remember that the meeting will be held at 7 o'clock every Monday evening from now on.

LEPER MISSION MEETING

The annual meeting of the Leper Mission was held in the United Church, Friday, Mar. 20th at 3 p.m. The meeting opened with the singing of a hymn and the president, Mrs. A. Watson, presided. Rev. Mr. Rumbley led in prayer, after which the minutes of last meeting were read and approved. The treasurer, Mrs. C. B. Dayfoot, gave a very satisfactory report. Then followed the election of officers for the ensuing year. President—Mrs. A. H. Fuller. Vice-president—Miss Myrtle Laird. Secretary—Miss M. Young. Treasurer—Mrs. C. B. Dayfoot. The scripture lesson was read by Miss M. Young and Mrs. Rumbley favored us with a delightful solo, accompanied by Mrs. A. O'Neill on the piano. Miss Oliver introduced the speaker, Dr. Margaret Patterson of Toronto. The subject was "Lepers in India" and at the close, Mrs. Dayfoot on behalf of the Mission moved a very hearty vote of thanks to Dr. Margaret Patterson for her very able and inspiring address. Another hymn was sung and the meeting was brought to a close with prayer by Rev. Caldwell.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

A very interesting programme featured the regular weekly meeting of the Form II Literary Society. The main feature was a debate on the topic, "Resolved that the radio is more useful than the newspaper." Helen Brown and R. Duncan upheld the affirmative while Willis Price and Percy Saxe upheld the negative. Many points were brought out very clearly and forcibly for each side so that the judges found it very difficult to deliver a verdict. The decision was given in favor of the affirmative. The Department of Education has published the schedule for the Lower, Middle and Upper School examinations in June. There is general rejoicing over Miss Penner's return to her official duties.

LOCAL SHOE MERCHANT COMPLETES SPECIAL TRAINING COURSE IN ORTHOPEDICS

Mr. Will F. Smith, well-known shoe merchant, of Main Street, has just returned to Georgetown from Toronto, where he has been taking a special course in Orthopedics and Scientific Shoe Fitting at the Scholl Orthopedic Training School. For taking this special course was due to the fact that to-day the shoe merchant faces problems that his predecessor 30 years ago did not. Cement pavements and other conditions of human life have so changed the human foot that seven out of ten persons are suffering from foot trouble of some sort. To relieve these people has come to be a necessary part of advanced shoe store service. To provide such a service means a training in the scientific fitting of shoes and handling of foot troubles. Mr. Smith and those other shoe men who attended this special course in Toronto were taught shoe fitting by first going through special studies on the anatomy of the human foot, symptoms and causes of the different types of foot weaknesses; finally, the best methods of handling these abnormal foot conditions. Practical demonstrations were given of how even so-called good feet were gradually being thrown out of shape or otherwise weakened by wearing the wrong type or last of footwear. One of the features that Mr. Smith found particularly interesting was the correct way to make a print of a foot on a Dr. Scholl Pedograph Machine, and how to read this print or chart so as to find out the true condition of the foot and type of footwear or corrective appliances required to assure foot comfort. The accompanying photograph shows the class while in session. Mr. Smith may be seen sitting in the third row, fourth person from right hand side.

Mr. Smith extends an invitation to all his customers and their friends to call and secure a pedograph print of their feet whether or not they are having any trouble with their feet or footwear.
