BOTH LOW PRICE AND LOW COST

A tire for which you pay a low price may turn out to be very costly. One for which you pay a lot more may not live up to its price tag.

Both in the fact that its first price is moderate and its quality as great as to make its final cost the very lowest—the new SEIBERLING ALL-TREAD TIRE means economy. We have your size.

Below is a price list of a few of the sizes:

Size	Portage	Regular	Heavy Duty
30 x 3 1/2		$ 5.75	$ 7.65
29 x 4.40 - 4.40 x 21		6.50	8.30

TOWN COUNCIL

SPECIAL MEETING—COURT OF REVISION—AUDITOR APPOINTED

A special meeting of Council was held on May 29th, the chief items of business being the questions of pavement and salaries.

The paving of the connecting links to the highways which include Church and Charles streets and Maple Ave. and King street from Queen to the 4th Line was discussed but action was deferred until further information was obtained regarding payment of same.

The question of reduction in salaries of town officials was also discussed, but no action taken.

It was moved by Gibbens and seconded by Parr that the Thompson family be granted the use of the Park for their reunion on July 4th. Also that the Black Knights be granted the use of the Park for August 12th.

Moved by Gibbens and seconded by Parr that a considerable amount of uncollected back taxes was written off.

Council adjourned.

On Monday, June 1st members of Council met as a Court of Revision to hear appeals against the town assessment.

Wm. Ashburner was granted a reduction of $75 on his unimproved property.

Miss M. Campbell was granted a reduction of $150 on her property on Market street.

The appeal of Thos. Orlove, Queen street was dismissed.

Moved by Gibbens and seconded by Parr that this Court of Revision do adjourn to meet on June 8th at 8 p.m. to hear appeals from Mrs. C. A. Beasley, Mr. Alex Noble and Smith & Stone Co., Ltd.

Council adjourned.

Council met in regular session on Tuesday evening with Mayor Macdonald in the chair, Reeve Cleave and Councillors Davis, Parr, Cummings, Gibbens and Barnes present.

A communication was read from the Government re: reduction of tubercular patients by the government. Council passed a resolution to be forwarded to the Government asking that they bear the expense of caring for all tubercular patients.

Moved by Parr seconded by Cummings that Treasurer P. B. Harrison be granted leave of absence for two months and that P. L. Heath, Clerk be authorized to sign cheques in his absence.—Carried.

Moved by Gibbens seconded by Parr that the Mayor appointing an auditor for the year 1931 be read second and third times and finally passed and that blank be filled with the name of H. R. Minna, salary $300.—Carried.

Moved by Cleave seconded by Parr that the Mayor and Councillors meet Dr. Gollop to arrange regarding frontage tax and secure deed to municipal property.

A. R. Speight and Mr. Mitchell addressed Council re repairing to the roadway leading to their property. The road will be repaired.

Mr. Jerry James addressed Council again re accident claim.

Matters regarding the Woolen Mill property and the collection of back water rates were discussed.

A number of accounts were passed.

THE LATE MRS. ELLIOTT

At the home of her elder son, R. J. Alfred Elliott, near Shawville, Que., on May 28, 1931, there passing away at the age of 82 years, another of those early pioneers in the person of Mary A. Kent, whose faith, courage and industry have greatly assisted in laying well and good the foundations of our country.

Before her marriage to the late Hugh H. Elliott, township of Clarendon, in Pontiac County, Province of Quebec, Mary A. Kent, who was a Canadian born, near Huntley, Ont., in Ottawa Valley, lived with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kemp in Clarendon township. Being the eldest in the family she early learned those habits of industry which were so necessary to pioneer life. Her parents had come from Ireland in the early forties when the country was mostly bush.

The Ven. W. H. Naylor, Archbishop of Clarendon in his book "The Church in Clarendon" makes frequent reference to Mrs. Elliott's husband, who in addition to being a successful farmer, was a contractor and builder and many are the homes, churches and other structures still existing as a monument to his courage and industry.

The deceased while actively engaged in her home and family duties, also for many years actively directed the manufacture of cheese at the farm, the market being largely Montreal and Ottawa Valley.

In religion Mrs. Elliott was a staunch Methodist until at time of Union she came into the United Church, Georgetown, where she had lived with her only daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) McAllister and where she was well and favorably known.

To mourn her loss there are three sisters, Mrs. Peter Laing of Denver, Col., Mrs. H. P. Coburn and Mrs. J. A. Carson of Edmonton, and two sons and one daughter, Mr. R. J. A. Elliott and Ruggier H. Elliott of Shawville, Que., and Mrs. McAllister of Georgetown, Ont.

The remains were interred in the Shawville united cemetery on Wednesday, May 27th, the funeral services being under the direction of her pastor, Rev. Mr. Wright, assisted by Rev. Mr. Temple of the Anglican Church, Shawville.

GLENWILLIAMS

The annual True Blue and Orange Order church parade was held on Sunday, May 30th to the United Church here. There was a good crowd consisting of a number of visiting Lodges. An interesting and instructive sermon was given by Rev. H. Caldwell, pastor. Special music was rendered by the choir. We appreciate the work of the L.O.O. and also the Orange Order and hope that they will be able to visit our church again.

Miss Myrtle Curry of Toronto was here for the week end.

Mr. Tom Roberts of Guelph made a short visit to the village on Friday.

Mr. Wm Wheeler of Brampton spent Sunday with his parents.

Mr. Lloyd Barth was guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt of Brampton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hill and their son (Kimer spent) the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marsden of Woodstock.

Mr. W. Day and Miss O. Allen of Toronto spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hepburn of Hamilton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Hepburn.

A number of our young people are attending the services to Terra Costa church which has been opened by Rev. Mr. Caldwell of Limehouse.

We are glad to hear Mr. Waggstaffe has recovered from his recent illness. The men are very busy drawing gravel through our village. Could they not stop and fill up some of the holes in the road?

"Brethren and sisters," began the dusky program. "I will preach to you this morning on the present style of women's wearing apparel, taking my text from the Book of Revelations."

LIMEHOUSE

(The following was received too late for last issue.)

Mrs. A. Conroy of Toronto spent last week with her father, Mr. Jas. O'Neill.

Mrs. E. Marshall spent the week end at her home here, entertaining a number of friends from a distance on Sunday and Monday.

Some of the holiday visitors in the village were:

Miss Hall of Hamilton at Mrs. Robt. Lane's.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Lane of Toronto at the parental home.

Miss Lydia Caldwell was home for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gowdy and babe at the home of Mr. Wm. Gowdy.

Messrs. Wm. and Ralph Marshall and Miss Editha of Toronto at the parental home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Olsby of Brampton at Mrs. Benton's.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McDowell and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McDonald at Mrs. Lepoldovics.

Mrs. S. Hill of Toronto with Mrs. O. Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Trumer and children of Guelph with Mr. and Mrs. A. Hill.

Messrs. Arthur and Ritchie, Benton were home for the holiday.

A number of young men from Toronto (sent out in one of our cosy nooks over the week end and had a splendid time even though the weather was not all one might wish for.

Mr. Howard Henderson of Toronto (one of the old boys of Limehouse) called on some of his neighbors on Monday.

The Government are considering setting aside 22,000 acres in the township of Matchedash for a park and game preserve.

BALLINAFAD

Sunday, May 24th was Father's and Sons' Day at the United Church. A male choir was in charge of the musical part of the service and their selections were very appropriate to the occasion and most acceptably rendered.

Rev. Mr. Aitken's address which was based on "My son, be strong in the grace that is in Jesus Christ" completed a very impressive service.

Among the holiday visitors were Miss Jessie Lindsay and Mr. Madill of Toronto, who spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. S. Lindsay. Also Miss Calbraith of Waterloo leaving staff was a guest at the Manse.

Mrs. Robert Warnes' home was the meeting place for the Women's Missionary Society on Wednesday, May 27th. Miss Shortall presiding and Mrs. Warnes read the scripture lesson. Arrangements were made for the quilting and packing of the bale of supplies which will take place at Mrs. John McEchnie's on Tuesday, June 16th. The programme was opened with a reading given by Edith Warnes entitled "Two Minutes". The topic from the study book "Social Work and Social Engagements in Japan" was read ably presented by Miss Nell McKay. After an interesting discussion on the life of Dr. Kagawa, the great Japanese evangelist, Mrs. McEchnie read a short article on the work which he is accomplishing among his own people. The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Kirkwood.

The Young People of the United Church are very busy at present getting ready for the play which they purpose giving at the garden party on June 25th at Mr. Robert McInerney's.

Mrs. and Mrs. John W. Snow were presented with a fine baby boy on Saturday, May 23rd. Mother and babe are both doing well. Congratulations are in order.

ASHGROVE

Ashgrove League held a meeting on Sunday evening under the direction of Mr. John Ruddle, Citizenship Vice-President. Rev. Hector McLean, missionary of China, gave a very interesting address which was much enjoyed. The meeting two weeks ago was in charge of Mrs. Frank Ruddle, mission Vice-Press, at which Mrs. Aitken of Ballinafad gave a splendid talk on the West.

Quaker's Seat

A passerby stopped to watch an old man in his garden working.

"Which weeds do you consider the easiest to kill?" he asked.

"Widow's Weeds," answered the old man.

"You only have to say 'wilt thou,' and they will."

"Girls were harder to kiss in your days, weren't they, grandpa?"

"Well, mebbe; but it wasn't so blame dangerous. The ol' parlor sofa wasn't apt to smash into a tree just about the time ye got all puckered up."
