SUMMER IN THE MARITIMES

Sunshine and gleaming sands—the laughter of children and the organ-swell of the Atlantic breakers as the breeze onto the shores of the Bay of Fundy here is holiday, health and happiness. All along the beautiful coast of Nova Scotia are countless watering places, whose names, have become household words among lovers of the seaside. Excellent hotels are at the disposal of visitors and the shoreward scene is no less lovely than its marine companion. The Annapolis Valley needs no introduction to Canadians or to its countless American visitors. It has been rightly called Canada's Devon, with its flourishing orchards and pasture lands and its countless picturesque farms and hamlets. A few hours journey by palatial steamer from Saint John, N.B., Digby, with its Pine Hotel as the hub of activity, Kentville with its Cornwallis Inn, and Yarmouth with its new Lakeside Inn, in extending drives are only a few of the recreations available. On the New Brunswick mainland, father as it were, to this stately family, the Algonquin Hotel, at St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, sets a standard of summering unrivalled anywhere on the continent. The luxurious hotel, with its many attached cottages, in the centre of one of the most exclusive colonies of the Dominion. The golf links, known throughout the length and breadth of the country as one of the finest championship courses available, are met nameake of the home of the royal and ancient game in old Scotland. The Canadian Pacific Railway places all these resorts within easy access of their many devotees.

WHILE BERRIES THRIVE

By Betty Barclay
Use berries in season in as many forms as possible. They are healthy, delicious, and with them you can prepare dozens of surprise dishes that will delight your family and your friends. Here are two:

Fresh Berries Supreme
1 package raspberry or strawberry flavored gelatin
1 pint boiling water
1/2 cup cream, whipped
fresh berries or strawberries

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Prepare potatoes. On large paper plate place meat, potato, and such cooked or green vegetables as you may have ready. Between the meat and the vegetables use pickles of various kinds as garnishes and relishes.

Raspberry Delight
1 package raspberry flavored gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1 cup raspberry juice and cold water
1 cup canned raspberries, drained
Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add raspberry juice and water. Pour 1/4 into mold. Chill. When slightly thickened, fold in raspberries. Fill mold with remaining gelatin. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve with sweetened whipped cream, flavored with almond extract. Serves 6.

OUTDOOR MEALS
When packing a lunch to be eaten in the open, do not forget the dainties with a pronounced flavor such as pickled onions, vegetables, beets, cucumbers and cauliflower. They are greatly needed to give zest to the outdoor meal. Here are two excellent suggestions:

Picnic Sandwiches
Butter slice of bread. Place lettuce leaf thereon. Cover with sliced pickle—overt or soft. Spread another slice of bread with cold baked beans and combine two slices. These sandwiches may be made and eaten right on the picnic grounds.

Outdoor Platter
Cook steak, chops or ham as usual. Prepare potatoes. On large paper plate place meat, potato, and such cooked or green vegetables as you may have ready. Between the meat and the vegetables use pickles of various kinds as garnishes and relishes.

Fruited Ice Cream
1 junket tablet
1 tablespoon cold water
1 cup sugar
1 pint milk
1/4 pint cream
1/2 cup maraschino cherries
1/2 cup crushed pineapple
3/4 cup marshmallows
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Put the junket tablet in cup and add 1 tablespoon cold water. Crush with spoon to dissolve. Add sugar to milk and warm to lukewarm—NOT HOT, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Remove from stove. Add dissolved junket tablet, pour into freezer can; let stand in warm room until firm. Cool, pack in ice and salt, and freeze.

to a mush. Add chopped cherries, pineapple (allowing some of the juice), marshmallow (measured after being cut in small pieces), lemon juice and cream, whipped. Finish freezing. Recipe makes 10 to 12 servings.

Preliminary Steps Census of Retail and Wholesale Trade Now Being Taken

The fifteen thousand enumerators who have been engaged since June 1st in taking the Population Census have also been making a record of the name and address of every retail and wholesale establishment in the Dominion. These names are to be the basis for the Postal Census of Merchandising and Service Establishments.

It will be some weeks before all the lists are in the hands of the Officials in the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. When they have been carefully scrutinized and certain other preliminary work done, schedules will be mailed to each retail or wholesale establishment. It is expected that somewhere between 150,000 and 200,000 names will be received and, though a very great amount of preparatory work is necessary before schedules can be mailed, it is expected that they will be sent out in August.

Every time one man puts a new idea across he finds ten men who have thought of it before he did. But they only thought.

What is a Bargain?

¶ In this community are hundreds of individuals and families on the watch for an advertisement which will offer them what they want at an advantageous price.

¶ Call them bargain hunters if you will, but thrifty shoppers would be a better designation. Thrift is a commendable trait and merchants should cater to it.

¶ One family wants a new carpet—the need is not urgent. Another family is looking forward to buying dining-room furniture—it may not be for a twelve month.

¶ One man is thinking of buying himself a watch. One woman a shopping bag; another an umbrella.

¶ All can be made to buy earlier—by advertising. Advertising can make the desire so keen that the bargain is forgotten in the fever for immediate possession.

A NOTE TO MERCHANTS

¶ Stimulate business by the offer of some slow-moving lines at special prices. Brighten up business by advertising some desirable goods at reduced prices. Make advertising banish dull business. Often you can tempt the buyer who is biding his or her time, to buy from you—at a time of your naming.
