The Georgetown Herald T M MOORE Publisher and Proprietor ember Canadian Weekly Newspaper

Canadian National Electric Railway From April 26th until May 16 (Daylight Saving Time) Week Days until Priday To GUELPH TORONTO 7.01 a.m. 6.49 a.m. 9.21 a.m. 9.21 a.m. 11.41 a.m. 11.29 a.m. 2.01 p.m. 1.49 p.m. 4.21 p.m.

6.41 p.m. 9.01 p.m. 12.01 a.m. 11.49 p.m. and Holidays 46.49 Sam .7.01 a.m. 921' a.m. 9.21 a.m. 11,41 a.m. 11.29 a.m. 2.01 p.m. 1.49 p.m. 4.21 p.m. 4.09 p.m. 6.41 p.m. 6.29 p.m. 9.01 p.m. 11.01 p.m. 1.01 a.m. Toronto 3.09

p.m., 5.29 p.m. and 7.49 p.m. Saturday. Sunday and Holidays. · Except Sunday. Past freight same day delivery service Preight picked up at Guelph. Georgetown, Phone 13.

C. N. R. Time Table (Standard Time) Passenger and Mail Passenger

Passenger and Mail

Passenger, Sunday

Central Ontario Bus Lines ARROW COACHES

Going East. 9.50 a.m. 12.45 p.m., 11.45 p.m. Daily week days only during Exhibition period Aug. 28th to Sept. 12 Sundays and Holidays ONLY-Leaves Georgetown for Toronto 8.05 p.m. All Buses Step at Long's Store where tickets may be secured.

DIRECTORY

TE BOY DALE Barrister and Solicites Georgetown, Ontario Offices King Bidg., Mill 84.

CLARENCE H. WIGGINS Offices O'Neill Block, Georgeton Tylenhome-158

Berristers, Etc. Brampton, Ontario G. Graham, . E. B. Graham. O. H. Bowyer

KENNETH M. LANGDON Berrieter, Seliciter, Netary Public Pirst Morigage Money to Loan Offices: in Street South Phone 88

F. R. WATSON, D.D.S. M.D.S. Marion Priest, L.D.S., D.D.S. Hours:- 0 to 5, Except Thursday

P. L. BRATH, L.D.S., D.D.S. O'Nell's Carriage Factory Hours & a.m. to & p.m.

Miss Lamb PRACTICAL MATERNITY NURSE By Day or Week For particulars phone strt, Georgetown L R. J. Goorpetown

CHIROPRACTIC NETLEKIC The Chireproctor

Palmer Graduate 19 Year's Practice to Medicine, Surgery, Octoopsilay. X-RAY SERVICE Office over Dominion Store Monday. Wednesday and Saturday 2 to 8 and 7.30 to 9.30 p.m. ther days and hours by appointment

Frank Petch LICENSED AUCTIONERS. Prompt Bervice

Bellenham 20:12. Georgetown tir. Post Office Cheltenham C. E. McCLURE

Auctioneer cal Estate Merchandise and farm terms Phone 96 r 5, Georgelown, Wood!

Good body beech and maple wood and served and served wood and served as $2.00 aingle cord. J. H. S. Carrestown. U.S.

received invitations to at-

of the management on Day Monday, August

"I am ordering Shredded Wheat for lunch today'

"I don't waste the noon hour trying to read a long menu. I just say, 'bring me two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with a bowl of half and half and some berries'. It's a nourishing delicious lunch and keeps me wide awake all the afternoon. The crisp, flavory shreds of baked wheat are delicious and I know I am getting all the whole

SHREDDED WHEAT

WITH ALL THE BRAN OF THE WHOLE WHEAT

Free Eye Examination is Bait and the examination fee is hidden in the price of the

We make a nominal charge for eye examination and sell our Lenses and Frames at standard prices WE SPECIALIZE IN EYE EXAMINATION M. R. STARK, R.O.

At Dann's Drug Store, Georgetown, every Wednesday. afternoon and evening, Phone 327 for appointment

NEW OPENING

First Class Service and Pure Food Meals Served at all Hours Accomodation for Ladies

M. F. Lang, Proprietor Main St. South

Special Annual August Watch Sale

BIG BARGAINS WHILE THEY LAST Pine grade Wrist Watches, Champ reg. $35.00, Merici reg. $25.00, Hudson reg. $17.50, guaranteed, Sale price with ribbon strap $2.50. Each bracelet to match $2.00 extra in white or yellow.

Rectangular and fancy shapes in Pal Quality 15 Jewel Ladies $12.50 each; Pal Quality Hudson, 15 Jewel Gents $18350 each with bracelet or strap complete. Special Boys and Girls Wrist Watches reg. 15.00 for $3.50 each.

INGERSOLL WRIST AND POCEET WATCHES BEN POCKET WATCHES HINTON'S JEWELLERY

GEORGETOWN

Automotive Specialists

BRAKE SERVICE VALVE GRINDING MOTOR REBORING

New electrical equipment handle the above work with machine like precision and at a low cost to the car owner.

RING GEAR guaranteed for the LIFE of your car.

Welding of all Kinds PROMPT SERVICE ON ALL WORK Try us on your next greate job.

SPEIGHT'S GARAGE

Wise with -your wanderings, -you thought to finds Us somehow altered too; but

We talked of them as of a finished thought you strange. Our hobby horses for your Pegasus. Tom's encouraging presence.

MISS E. GRANT

cal care began to collect her neat be-longings, doing everything with preci-sion and a certain exact little man-its upholstery.

A real man stands

Many persons, and city anglers per-up for the right. A real man says say anything about it, even if they has more than others, confuse

"No" when asked to do a sinful thing.

another girl, who also here the name "What a delicious soup," she murof Grant and whose first name was mured; "it is the kind Tom likes so as the meal proceeded. And whenever up. But above the water he may Eva. but who was as unrelated to much—" and then jumped, as the old he was mentioned everyone seemed to erect fences to shut cattle or keep Ellen Grant in blood as she was in gentleman brought his hand down on turn and smile at Ellen. She tried to them out, and he can post notices life's surroundings. Bound to pay her the table with a bango exclaiming efface herself into her wished-for at- designed to warn anglers to keep off first visit to the family of her flance, flercely that it was just like women titude of governess, but she was not his place. He cannot catch a trout her pretty face were a most worried to say a thing was delicious which silowed to do so. Pinally there came out of season on his own farm nor look.

wasn't fit to eat. His voice died off a lull, and Ellen bent forward a little permit anybody else to do so without an affliction; but at the idea of fac- a little, remarked weakly: have the same interests as herself. for he became quite purple at the and tears on her cheeks. now, for she knew they were often himself on the morrow. absent from their New England town.

Did that include his married brother, Miss Grant." could, and Tom would be there early joily houseful, all having a gay time your name?" she asked gently.

in the evening. Here was her station, over the holidays with games and—"Eva Grant."

and she set her teeth and followed the But before she had finished her sen
"And yours?" They all turned porter with her dressing-case and um- tence she feared she had blundered brella out to the door. He helped her again, and became quite sure of it

Surely some one would come to what I mean." meet her, and she scanned anxiously Decidedly it was no use, and Eva the faces of the people who had been finished her mutton with the wretchall seemed to find those for whom on with Tom's people. ness-like travellers who went sturdily and forlorn. Pinding herself jostled wandering vaguely through the station, went out on the opposite plat- and roared: form, beginning to think she must

Then she suddenly saw a large, old-ashioned barouche, now so rare, with most tidy traveling-bag which had a pair of fat, black horses and an conspiciously on its side the initials aged, old fashioned coachman who was E. G. she hesitated a little, wonderthe passers-by. As she glanced un- At that moment a young man came have a new railway station added to frustrated when one of the merchants and said inquiringly

Grant? "Oh, yes!" exclaimed Eva joyfully. felt and, asking for her check, sug-gested that she should "get in" while waiting for the trunk, for which he dispatched a porter.

Eva looked eagerly out of the winafble of the city which was to be her future home, but the duck had already settled down thick and gray and she could only see the outline of house when, after a short avenue of lonesome firs, they shopped at a dark forbidding-looking porth. The was opened by a taciturn maid who. saying only, "This way, m'm," led Eva and up a long flight of black-walnut ing to hide the fact that she was taking a careful survey of Eva's dress.

"Yes, please," said Eva meekly. Shut in at last alone with her trunk herself blushing. But, finding by her watch that three and, although Ellen was not conminutes had gone by since she con- scious that her train had been late, sulted it last and that therefore Tom she was too polite to contradict. was so much nearer, she refrained She was placed in an easy chair, and began slowly to dress for dinner. fed with tea and delectable little The house seemed large and hand- cakes, her wraps taken, a cushion put some, but somehow it was different behind her back and altogether was be impartial. But Eva suddenly de- ner seemed to make Eller her especial rep curtains of old-fashioned and ex- usually loud shout of laughter:

if Eva had not been absorbed other matters, the would have been surprised at the woman's apparent air of defiance. "Here are the children, miss." said shortly.

names," thought Evs as she stopped ing-room full of every hixury. A gay ther nurse's skirts and expersed only eyed stri was called linguist, that you're on Evan destring her mysteriously toring in what Ellen considered an Piret same hour tomorrow, there would be her greatly too, and, making up her some on the table brought perhaps by mind that she must at once take a the fairy with golden wings who had decided stand against such foolish been her-Eva's-constant playmate when she was Pussy's age. "Shall we see her?" asked Pussy. shaking her soft hair out of her eyes, The thoughts, the projects that you wide-open-with delight. Eva sat down on the floor with an arm about each child to describe the dress of it up by asking primly: "Can I see > triffing as audibly as she dared, and bed probably. You must see them tosoon dragged away her mutinous morrow, they are such dears. Cousin forward to Tom's mother, daughter of the house. Soon the the public highway without trespass"I hope you had an easy journey, room filled with laughing pleasant ing on the farmer's land. The farmer self and pulled slowly out of the strain ground showly out of the strain ground showly out of the strain majestic perpeople, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people, who greeted her cordially and insisted that the bed of the stream people is the stream people in the stream people in the stream people is the stream people in the stream people in the stream people is the stream people in the strea tination and with her usual methodical care began to collect her neat behave nothing to do with this story to hand, va decided, than because he family. several years a governess and was now Once seated at the table he paid no handsome man entered, the father of crossed might fail in attempting to several years a governess and was now on her way to undertake the duties of that position for the grandchildren of a friend, who wanted all the section of the extent of his conversation of the friend, who wanted all the section is a friend, who wanted all the section is a friend, who wanted all the section is a first of the family. He led her off to the forbid this, for the canoeist would be myself to be a real man. The old the family. He led her off to the family. He led her off to the forbid this, for the canoeist would be myself to be a real man. The old the family ing private land. There would be, at enemy were, but where they were, to be the extent of his conversation paternal admiration which greatly ing private land. There would be, at enemy were, but where they were, at a triend, who wanted all the wirtues anyway save when he complained elo-emiraced her, even while she told her- any rate, a keen argument about it. Courage in danger is half the battle.

She was too well poised and too tried to be content. sure of nersell, without being exactly. The mistress of the house divised onceited, to have any especial fear of her time between trying to anticipate what lay before her, but she could her husband's querulous demands for are," she thought. "I do hope that his place; he cannot turn the stream cable. not help wondering about the details everything which was not on the after this they will let me take my from its bed; he must let it run; he of her knew home, of which she was table, and a strenuous inspection of tea with the children, and not come cannot divert it or prevent it going un- into incoherent mutterings, intersper- forward a little to catch Madge's eye the offender being liable to a fine as until four hours later was in itself and, feeling that she really must talk have been more startled. They all gave in the country, is to avoid arguments only shudder in despair. She regrett- train. But I suppose the night before and she stared back at them, equally He is a sound reasoner and a ready deed now that during the few weeks of a holiday everything is late and astonished by the effect of her in- bter. He knows his grounds, his huntheir engagement she had not asked crowded. Do you know, I am so giad nocent question. to spend a Thanksgiving in New Eng-She was most afraid of his mother, land, for I have always heard so much den commotion in the hall, the por- against an argumentative poscher with

But she wished she had asked Tom contemplation, and Eva had a miser-Then she remembered that he had the season are lost," remarked the As they started at this new excite- forget that his farm is his farm and said vaguely that they were "all" to old lady pompously, "but I am glad to ment Mrs. Jennings struggled to col- not public highway. The best course be home for Thanksgiving tomorrow. see you would keep them with us, lect her bewildered wits.

"Yes, indeed," exclaimed Eva eagerdown into the bustle, and she felt when she was answered by a cold awaiting the incoming train. But they ed conviction that she should never get present, and they all cried out with they were seeking, and in the midst As the pumpkin pie was placed But they were not people who would of the confusion of laughing welcome upon the table she made one last laugh at the distress o fa girl. They and the hurry of the silent and busi- erfort, and, turning to the old gentle- made Eva feel at home; and then Mr. man, said timidly, "Tom expects to Jennings turned to Ellen with off by themselves she stood uncertain get here about eight, doesn't he, sir!" twinkle in his eye. Then the skies fell, for the old by the crowd she yielded to it and gentleman banged his fist down with Arthur's house as governess," he said. a force which made the glasses hop "Louis and his wife have been looking

As kilen Grant stepped from the insist that you can't go back on us!" her hand, said, "Miss Grant? This way, miss," and plunged into and she was ushered into a smart little sedan car, and whirled away, before she had time to look about. "Dear me," she thought as she sank back on the springy cushions, "how pleasant it is to go so fast." Arriving at a beautiful old colonia house, she was welcomed on the doorsep by a stream of light and gay voices which all poured out together into the cold twilight and surrounded her with a pleasant atmosphere of home. The house seemed full young people, and she was at once drawn into a vortex of confused laughter and greetings and escorted into a cheerful drawing-room, where she felt herself embraced and kissed by an elderly lady with a most charming face who murmured as she did so: "My dear, I cannot greet you in any other way." Rather taken aback, Ellen stammer ed a little and was provoked to feel "What a shame about the train's being late!" now exclaimed a chorus, from what she had expected. Perhaps it was only because it was so still and silent, she thought, trying to girl with her mother's gracious manrecalled. The Hudson's Bay Company church near the factory. Old scenes which is a foregone contribution of the discount of comed that she have maked black-wallur whisper under cover of a more than the tremendous development that will templating becoming a customer of cal leanings, all citizens should get pensive make nideous. Anyway sine could not help feeling deserted at no the car is so crowded with more than ern Ontario a huge power house is Admitting that there may be occa- efforts to provide work. There never two. Tom's telegram only came a at present under construction on the Just then there was a knock at the few minutes ago. And to think after Abitibi river about eighty miles north door. A nurse entered leading two all that he isn't here! It is such a of Cochrane. This plant will develop door. A nurse entered leading two shame, dear, when he has looked for more than 250,000 horse power and little girls of eight and twelve, and, shame, dear, when he has looked for more than 250,000 horse power and should the north reveal a latent min-Kilen smiled vaguely, although she eral deposit the power is ready. Pros- and it is not out of the way to sugfelt a little confused and was relieved when she was led off upstairs to gold, silver and platinum, and it is she a most attractive bedroom, where the rumored that there may be a large dainty furniture was covered with the diamond deposit somewhere in the How freshest and brightest of chints and vicinity. stupld of me not to know their where a door stood open into a dress-

little fire winked sociably at her from Pirst Tramp—"After I had given her more to create be the hearth and a huge bowl of violets back her lost purse, she put her hand other agency. saided the potmeer suddenly, and then, on a low table sent her perfumed in her pooket and said: Take this for Second Tramp-"What did the fire Piret Tramp-"A home of ment wasting of time, she replied to an enthusiastic account of a proposed starlight and bonfire skating party

Then, as Madge was for a momen comparatively subdued, she followed rose leaves which perhaps the fairy the children tonight, or have they "Louis' children? Oh, they're Margaret didn't bring hers: it is such

The fact that she could not see him At last Eva summoned up her courage ner table, her companions could not anybody else, who goes out after trout a jump, and then became petrified with farmers. The Ontario farmer is "It was such a pity about Tom's with astonishment, staring at Ellen; a hard man to beat in an argument.

tieres were flung aside, and into the a zeal that would make you think ways described as being awfully jolly. It was apparent that Thanksgiving room ran a lovely girl in evening dress, there must be hundreds of thousands and she knew that his sisters would meant turkey to the old gentleman, with a clock around her shoulders of trout just inside his fence, although, But she wished she rad asked form contemplation, and ava had a miser. Oh, where is form argument is one of the pleasures he late material and country correspon-"Many of the good old customs of the wrong house. Where is Tom?"

"There has been some mistake," she of the place, get his permission to exclaimed. Then, turning to her fish or pay him for the privilege. He Oh, well, she must do the best she ly. "I think nothing is so nice as a weeping visitor, "My dear, what is has something you want and if you

"And yours?" They all turned to ward Ellen, who shrank in her chair. "Ellen Grant." "Oh!" cried Eva. "That is stare and a short. That is hardly name of the girl they expected where went-the girl Mrs. Arthur Jennings expected as governess."

A sudden light burst upon every surprise and with dawning merriment.

for some one just like you. And you are really one of our family now-I edly the economic advantages to be cover their various territories thorderived from civilization's invasion of oughly with a bona-fide circulation of the north are many and varied, but paid-up subscribers. The wise merone feels a certain sentimental re- chant will dismiss the itinerant speciluctance to this violation of the land alty advertising salesman with a wave that has for nearly two and a half of the hand. centuries been Ontario's oldest setlement. In 1672 Moose Factory was founded by that intrepld band of explorers into Hudson Bay and has been continuously occupied ever since. It has been the growth and development of the fur trade under the and glamorous historical associations.

FARMER OWNS STREAM

Bed- of River is His Undisputed Property-Has Right to Order Trespassers Off and May Post Notice Prohibiting Tresweek got into a hot argument with a The man who slams the door farmer across whose place fairly wide and rapid stream ran, and he asked Saxaphones and addies the Star to back him up in the argu- We often must ignore, ment he made and publish the "fact." But we can't stand the selfish brand-We are unable to do it. The farmer The man who slams the door! was, we believe, entirely within in After their departure Eva put on a long trip, you know. Now: I'll rights in ordering the angler off his Many kinds of raucous sounds her simplest evening dress, a white leave you to dress, and send a maid place. A man cannot fish on another We loathe and just abbor, mull embroidered in light blue, out to you. Tom will be here before very man's place without permission. This, But we could kill the imbedile we thought, everybody knew. It is in- The man who slams the door! of deference to the evident quietude long."

of the house. A chime of Japanese With an encouraging smile, Madge herent, in the private property system. bells rang before she was quite ready. departed.

and, much flurrich at the idea of being late, she hastily finished and ther," thought Ellen. and the bed of it. The angler entered NOTES AND COMMENT skurried down stairs, arriving at the Luxuriating in the services of the the stream, where it crossed the public drawing-room door breathless and al-maid. Ellen put on her best even-lighway, he waded the bed of the most in tears, at the thought of the ling dress, a very simple one. Then stream, and when the farmer ordered Then stream, and when the farmer ordered the week-end accidents occur while ordeal which lay before, her without she stood by the fire, looking about him off the place he refused to go, claiming that the flowing water be- riay school. She had a confused idea of a spici- . "I almost wish they hadn't put so longed to no one person and he had ous heavily furnished room dimly many fragile things in the room," she the right to wade: the bed of the lighted, by the empty fireplace of reflected. The children will be sure stream, as long as he did not go ashore. which stood a portly gray-haierd lady to break them."

If, he argued, he came to a place tised days of depression there seems where he could wade no further then to be a surplus of everything but least so it seemed to Eve as she went room, she was welcomed by another he would have to turn back and regain money work and parking spaces at sion and a certain exact little manns uphotstery.

ner. Just twenty-four and obliged by By a series of jerks he got himself noticed it. Their whole effort, plainly, streams with navigable streams. If a A real man never does anything low by a series of jerks he got himself was to make her a member of the man seated in a canoe could ride a or mean. A boy should try hard to anyway save when he complianed car emarked her, even white but not where a person wades the Read the above mottoes over very natured encouragement on this, her bed of the stream, for the bed of the slowly and carefully. How many of stream is land owned by the farmer. them can you apply to yourself? Try Eva, which the latter distressfully felt down evenings unless they want me its way. He cannot pollute the stream; he cannot put in nets or to play for them."

fortunate than the news in the tele- sed with occasional resentful giances and said in clear tones: "Who is any other violator of the fish and Had she thrown a bomb on the din- The best course for a city man, or dred acres and the water which flows As they sat thus, there was a sud- across it. He will defend his water "Oh, where is Tom?" she cried a trout there at all. The fact is that had such a dreadful time-I went to gets out of living, and another fact is that he does not want city fellows to dence has to be set on Tuesday and of the angler is to defer to the owner tion you may get along fine.

SLICK ADVERTISING SALESMAN don't you are in danger of losing your Reformer, learned a salutory lesson an excessive rate, but they are quite about the activities of strange advertising salesmen. The method employing the salesmen in this case was simply as follows: They called at the persons who drive at a low speed usnoffice of a small country newspaper ally are looking around and not payand enquired about advertising rates.

They moved on to a nearby and much responsibility; and some of these drilarger town where they used a tele- vers get interested at some object over phone to solicit advertisements from in a field, such as a team of horses, a business men on the strength of a flock of sheep, or a pretty girl, etc., statement that a neighboring village and forget to turn the steering wheel newspaper would issue a special edi- until it is too late and they have tion of 5000 copies. The salesmen run into a pole and smashed it off. read nicely-prepared copy ads. and But of course, smashing a telegraph writeups over the phone to their intended victims. The latter would be as it has become too common; while given a large space at comparatively whose who drive at a high speed are and some of the merchants "fell for ing the road properly. These drivers Within a few week Ontario will it." Only by accident was the use up to her, and, taking the beg from its list, that of Moose River on the got in touch with the village paper's shore of James Bay. Already the editor and learned that he knew driveway ahead of them before they great bridge across the river has been nothing about the proposition. Busi- stop to see if anyone is coming but completed and the once silent wil- ness men in another community may that isn't the fault of the fast direct derness is echoing to the clang of the not be so fortunate. The experience then. That's the other fellow's funconstruction gang. It is expected that of the Simcoe men should serve to eral. steel will be laid next month and convince all retail merchants in every and though traffic will not be invited community of Ontario that it is part until 1932, this, one of the "last fron- of wisdom to devote their advertising tiers" of Ontario, will now be only a outlay to their own weekly newspapers. few hours' journey distant. Undoubt- which they know are reliable and putting his stamp of approval on the representatives in a co-operative and action of a number of Ontario munici- sympathetic way, and if they can be pany. To the youth of Ontario it palities in refusing civic relief to of any financial assistance privately has always typified adventure and anyone in possession of a liquor per- or through organizations to which romance a place of great distances mit, has decreed that liquor is noth- they belong that assistance will be ing but a luxury. There can be no more than appreciated and at the disputing that fact. This rule was in same time it will help to relieve the of the T. and N.O. railway system of cities and municipalities, and some Another way to help the un great base of supplies for exploration criticism was levelled at them for the ed and business generally, although parties and for the shipment of equip— action taken, but a common sense not directly, is to exchange the gospel ment for the development of discov- view of the situation is now being of blue ruin for notes of encourageeries and the exploitation of natural taken and some of these places are ment. There is too much blue ruin resources. Tourists will flock to this wondering how they failed to take talk and it is not helping business in trading post on Moose Island and action before. With the prices of any way. In fact it is one of the constand in silent wonder before the liquor what they are Anti. with the tributory causes to business stagmaweathered timbers of the Anglican only move they may take being up- tion. church near the factory. Old scenes wards, it is a foregone conclusion that is organizing a great museum of in- permits which will not be renewed, spirit. All of these combined will teresting relics, and in anticipation of while many others who might be con- produce results. Regardless of poliundoubtedly follow as well as to sup- the government will think a second behind the governments of the day. ply present day power needs of North- time before he takes out his permit, both dominion and provincial, in the home, it can always be obtained by in the chairs of scorn and indifference means of a physician's prescription. but otherwise there is no excuse for money being spent for this purpose, pectors are already out searching for gest that the people of Oniario, 'h this period of stress and lack money, declared a moratorium their own, and refrain from the purchase of liquor. As previously stated, it is nothing but a luxury, a harmful one at that and one which will do more to create bad citizens than any Canadian Mational Exhibition de for 1931 tre Friday, August 28th, Saturday, September 18th.

THE MAN WHO BLAMS THE DOOR

Dislike the talking bore. But we detest the noisy pest-The man who slams the door!

province trout fishing one day last But when he's late, we simply people are attending church or Sun-

WHY WE DESIRE YOUR COPY

Wednesday morning when the Herald As these calls are due mainly to a wrong impression of what time the Herald goes to press we feel that this word of explanation is due if dis-post office early Wednesday afternoon. should go to press Wednesday noon. Display advertising takes a long tising must of necessity be in not later than Tuesday noon. Merchants will help the Herald and help themselves if they get their advertisements in Monday so that only unavoidably

MOTORISTS - TAKE WARNING

Slow drivers, take warning! approach the matter from that direct at the rate of 60 miles per hour, be sure and be in your own lane or driveway far enough, because if you the Town Council will this winter in providing work and direct relief conditions do not improve. The extension of this help may involve the expenditure of a considerable sum of money and will no doubt draw criticism from certain quarters. Instead of finding fault with the Council in its efforts to help those in need citisens generally should get behind their drive for funds and two colored six ters were bearing down hard or Uncle Rastus --"I can't give nothin," exclaimed th old darloid ... "I owes meatly everybody in this here ole town already." "don't you think you owe

NORKLESS

CAN PUT HIM OFF