The Georgetown Herald

Sixty-Sixth Year of Publication

The Georgetown Herald, Wednesday Evening, October 28th, 1931.

$1.50 per Annum in Advance; $2.00 to U.S.A

The Georgetown Herald J. M. MOORE Publisher and Proprietor nber Canadian Weekly Newspaper

C. N. R. Time Table (Standard Time) Passenger and Mail assenger 2.39 p.m. going East and Toronto Sunday's going East 2.39 p.m. .8.72 p.m. Passenger 9.42 p.m.

8.54° a.m. Passenger 2.08 p.m. essenger. 6.25 p.m. Passenger and 10.09 p.m. Passenger 8.31 a.m. Passenger, Sunday 10.09 p.m.

ARROW

Mail and Passenger

Leave Georgetown Daily Westbound 8.50 am., 12.50 p.m., 3.50 p.m. 7.10 p.m., 49.50 p.m. daily execept Saturday) Saturday only 11.50 p.m. 10.50 a.m. Saturday, Sunday and holidays only. Leave Georgetown Daily Eastbound 7.05 a.m., 10.05 a.m., 5.50 p.m., 8.20 p.m.
10.20 p.m. Siturdays, Sundays and Rolldays only. Reduced Fares to Holden of Season Tickets

LONG'S

DIRECTORY

LE ROY DALK Berrister and Selicites Georgetown, Ontario

CLARENCE EL WIGGINS Consister, Seliciter, Notary Public Offices—O'Neill Block, Georgetown Tylephone-158 GRAHAM GRAHAM and BOWYER

Brampton, Ontario G. Graham, E. B. Graham, C. H. Bowyer

KENNATH M. LANGDON Barrister, Selicitor, Notary Public First Mortgage Money to Loan in Street South

F. B. WATSON, D.D.S. M.D.L. Maries Print, L.D.S., D.D.S. Ge gretown Office House: -0 to 5, Except Thursday

P. L. BEATE, LDS., DDS. of O'Reall's Courings Pactory

ACTICAL MATERNITY NURSE by Day or Week stribusiars phone 84rd, Georgetown C. Georgetown CHIROPRACTIC

The Chiroprotor XXAY SERVICE Differ over Dominion Store

Mathematical Figure 1 (1988) 2 (1988) 5 and 7.30 to 9.30 p.m.

Frank Petch LICENSED AUCTIONEER

Property of Pool and Halton Georgetown (Lrs

McCLURE Auctioneer

COLMAN SERVICE

freeding at all times and empried weekly at lowest Phone 231, George

SECOND INSTALMENT

The 1931 Tax Notices having been sent out, the Second Instalment is due and payable

Nov. 3rd, 4th, 5th

At the Bank of Montreal

Important to Tax-Payers-By-law "A" which w in force, gives the Collector no option in connection with penalty if taxes are not paid on dates indicated in notice.

W. G. MARSHALL,

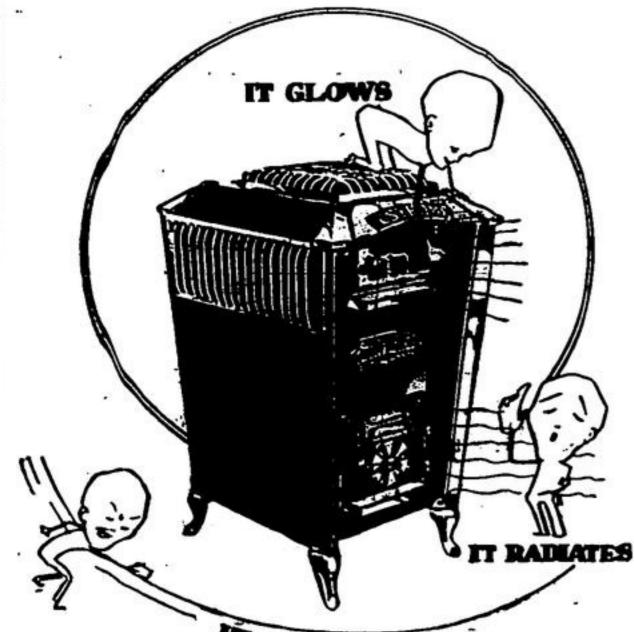

Golden Gate Cafe

NEW OPENING

First Class Service and Pure Food Meals Served at all Hours

Accommodation for Ladies

M. F. Lang, Proortstor

CIRCULATES

The Cosy Home In Heater Secit! - Tryit! - Buy it! Anyone who has estually seen this Hester will tell you it is by the handsomest piece of home sting equipment ever made. Its exceptional beauty is just one of the many reasons why you will went this masterplace is

The exclusive it is the drawn arrangement to keep the rom going up the chains, to save find and re. The standard finish is of Wellsville policied and nicholed trimmings. The de furnit is all porceins enamel walnut to match, whichings. Either one will delight you. See now.

Hydro Electic System

Orders takenor Ranges

Appliances d all Kinds

the eulogy spoken when hearts Is an empty thing at best.

Would perfume the mountain side If the sun's glad ray had but shone And the pretty bud espied.

wolfve alms to give to the poor, Don't wait till you hear the cry Of wan distress in this widerness Less the one forsaken die.

Oh! harken to poverty's hard lament! Be-swift her wants to allay: Don't spurn God's poor from the favoned door, As you hope for mercy one day.

Of sorrow's irksome load:

Don't wait till he's laid to rest For the eulogy spoken when hearts

By Pranklin Welles Calkins

then placed two strands of barbed out into the ravine. wire on top of that. Wherever possible they used trees and high stumps the alarmed animals jumped at the of phrase, and aptness of quotation. removed boulders and other obstruc- were rapidly looping in. tions to get the bottom strands close to the ground.

Near one of the old logging camps they put up two log houses, and when meant. The wabbling centre of their energetic endeavour. The spirit that and biscuits and cheese with an oc-parks, and a place in which one likes they brought to live work and place in which one likes everything was ready they brought to dragnet needed support. He ran at animated them is revealed in a state- casional pudding.

Anse Hewitt, the manager, chose for pews. Tatro moved with his large the centre and helped to straighten that will not fall." There is reference they wanted from the bar which I behind these physical evidences of and stiffen the whole section as he cats and covoles which destroy fawns.

Anse quickly reached a point near failed, in preparation for the crop gave them cigarettes and the control of the control of the control of the work of Dr. Heine, the felt I could not charge them for, progress lies the fact that the life of lifted the top of the dragging wires. Society's colporteur, who speaks at even if I did many of them had not the community is seng carried on by the community is seng carried on by a high sense of civic pride.

I leave gun to 'ome."

Rainy Lake Ribber mabbe t'ousan' make kill too-me, I got poison, and we go quick-see if any meat left." They immediately put on their snowa newly forged tool with a long jagged fence, which there ran along the bar-crept forward to reconnoitre. He found got its horns fast in trying to ram through the fence. "You got wire shears and hammer?"

he asked in a whisper.

Anse nodded; he had the tools in belt sheath under his cost.
"We get wolfs right off," declared hammer and the thears.

shoe to the wires by tying it with skull of another. strings he had the section so stiffened Anse, severly bitten in a diozen that by pulling at the free end he places, scrambled to his feet and Both men were double pairs of heavy the fence or at the drift pile."

hind his blind is

Let your hand extend to a stricken taut they lifted it to an upright posi- Jean went after fresh wire with which tion so that it hung with its lower to mend 'the fence. edge touching the drift, like a dragnet in the water. A slight wind that quartered across the bluff was fortunsiely in their favor. They were now near the mouth of the small pocket in which the wolves were fighting over > the top line of meshes was above their of Job. heads and made a quick rush over the As usual, the Editor draws on liter- anchorage.

mooks, freckled with ponds grown to of wolves piled one upon another and Gold." Into these chapters Mr. Smith the discharging of our cargo. some barren stony bluffs the higher which hung suspended half-way up daring shown by those who translate the fence. The beasts were at the and circulate the Scrpitures, and in a under the circumtsances rendered the determined through the merchants and the determined through the det usual new growth of cut-over tracts.
Taking Anse Hewitt, a logger and a few days before. A wall of snow for gold with the outstanding features blished a game ranch.

end of a snow pit that Jean had dug very wonderful way links the search for gold with the outstanding features. I called on the Governor also the manufacturers within its confines. Colonial Secretary and offered them This business depends upon the carnas a windbreak round the edge of the tes the principles laid down by vivid any assistance.

cats and coyotes, which destroy fawns.

At the end of five years the ranch

At the end of five years the ranch

Index or the surface of the snowdrift was least 26 languages and acts as port any money having lost everything. It is evident that in the community worker at Saint John, N.B., and also (By men, I mean the white men of the home-town dotter is deally going inclosure held some seven hundred oving section and escaped at one of visits lumber and mining camps in the town.) head of Virginia deer, more than fifty the surface dips. Another near Anse Quebec and Ontario. Colportage work As there was not sufficient flour or its rounds of the "butcher, the baker elks and almost as many caribou. managed to jam its mustle through in Western Canada also receives hon- potatoes on board I drew upon the and the candlestick maker," and in That same year more than one hun- one of the meshes, got fast and was ourshie mention. dred head of white-tail buck were baited into traps with salted clover ward and killed it with his hammer. before each chapter, and an apt quoand then crated and shipped at twen- Many of the pack now scrambled in- tation from Karl Barth's famous book, to Montreal in due course." ty-four dollars a head. For the next to the snow pit, where they sought "The Word of God and the Word of The "Connector" was the first ship year a sale of nearly three hundred to find a way of escape. Others leap- Man" prefixes each section. ed at the wires of the solid fence at In the closing pages, reference is able to render very valuable assistance Then came the "hardest winter ever the farther end of the pit. Several made to the new twenty-five cent in relieving the suffering. Before as the hour of eleven came The min. his man were out every day and ofAnse now pushed his middle-section land. Whilst gratitude is expressed the "Connector" had done. extra wires to raise their fence and into the pit or commed them within sion that the Society is always in need of funds to carry on its work.

Where the posts were not high enough Now came the difficult part of their This brilliant piece of work ends.

Show cakes. That forced the wolves the report leaves the definite impression to the store and into the pit or commed them within sion that the Society is always in need not possible to store it at Belisso.

I trust the steps I have taken will not possible to store it at Belisso. stratagem; they must secure the line with a reference to the symbolic use meet with the approval of the man-forty head or more of small deer, one

A third wolf ha descaped while Jean out of heaven from God, the city was third of its caribou and five or six was dragging his section of wires over as pure as gold—as if God had made wapitis. In that time Anse and Jean a humsmock of drift, but Anse prevent- it of all the golden prayers and goldhad killed seventeen timber wolves ed any more from getting away by en devotion of His people." but still the beasts increased in num- aligning the central section along. The whole report emphasizes the ber, attracted from afar by so rich a the wall of snow cakes. The square- world service of the Society in the ly piled-up wall of snow gave good translation and circulation of the support to the wire. The meshes, scriptures, and gives abundant evi-

While Jean was at work fastening home and abroad willing to avail the loose end to the solid section Anse themselves of its translations, but also saw that there were at least a dozen one of the great agencies for the evanfrom a snow pit to the level where big gray wolves fighting and scramb- geliration of the world. Jean had been using his snow knife. ling within the snare. When any of near the pit as was practicable. Runn- -- More to be desired than gold, yea that I met her on my arrival. "Wolfs—big pack—she come across ing back, he found a wolf crowded than much fine gold." He had thrown a loosened snowshoe to the manager as he passed. shoes and started towards the wolves. Anse used it as an additional brace.

The half-breed carried his snow knife. He was rejoicing in the success of their trap when the unthought-of Pinancial Post against carrying civic blade and a wooden handle. Most of happened. There was a flurry of programs of unemployment relief work snow on his right, and a wolf darted out of a hole that it had dug in the Covernments having furnished enorren slope. The intermittent yelping drift. Hammer in hand, Anse ran mous sums of money for this object, it grew in volume as they approached to the vent. Instantly the under is natural that municipalities selse the Near the crest of a ridge that - ran mined drift, where out of his sight chance to carry out undertakings that nearly straight down the slope they wolves had been digging, gave way, would otherwise wait for some years. and he dropped upon them.

see without being seen. He crawled one animal snapped a leg; the teeth that will restrict credit and cause an of another clicked in his face as he increase in taxation. The Governfended it off with one arm. Wolves ments, in considering the plans subside the fence. The beasts there snapped at him on either hand as mitted by municipalities, should bewere forty of them, he declared had he got to his feet. A section of the ware of too much elasticity. After all, piled drift fell in at his back, but only a part of the monies reach the the stretched wires lifted above clos- actual laborers and after all, we against a hard rim of the drift-not Extravagance in respect to unemploya second too soon, for nearly all the ment relief an only mean added burhalf-crased creatures had rushed to dens for the average citizen. attack him. Anse dared make no attempt to crawl out; his life would have paid the forfeit before his man could have got to him. He wielded watched his man. With careful eye his hammer with all his might and Jean measured the slope that lay be shouted for Jean. He brained one low them. Then he moved back along animal at the outset and quickly put the fence and down, a gentle decline another out of action with a broken lessly with-drawing wire staples from Ame had been thrown back against the posts. Not until Jean had loosenthe posts. Not until Jean had loosenthe deft again. Wolves were piling ing him?" inquired the candidate.

ed a dozen twenty-foot lengths of upon him, compelling him to use not only, his hammer but his left elbow in' the dog," was the roly from the how the half-breed intended to use and even his head to find them-off, individual at the gate.

and those of his employer and ran Under the half-breed's fierce at-them separately under and over the tack wolves scattered, but not meshes at equal distances along the until the heavy snow knife had broline. When he had fastened each ken the back of one and crushed the could carry it forward in a nearly up- joined his man in taking the offenright position. He now cautiously slid sive against the eight or ten unhurt slope of the ridge behind which the ed, dodged and snapped viciously as tive letter in which Captain H. W. woollen socks. Jean now crawled One wolf got out under the wires panies. Captain Robson is a native back along the crown of the ridge where the drift had coved in with of England. For three years he has and slid the loosened mesh wire close Anse. Another jammed its head made his home in Bolizo, British hole through it and crawled forward ing lines of fence at the end of the until he could see over the ridge be- pit and dug its way out. After two or three minutes of hard "Heap of wolfs!" he whispered to fighting the pit was cleared of live. Anse as he came back. "She pile up animals and the helpless one hang- document by which to gather and aroun' bones-all plenty hungry yet." ing in the fence had been killed. In record a confirming impression of the They made their final preparations all there were then eleven timber Bolizo disaster. swiftly and silently. Together they wolves lying dead upon the snow. pulled at the extreme end of the Severely bitten though Anse was, he free wires. When the section was was able to guard the gap while in which the wolves were fighting over their prey.

Bible Society Report

In which the wolves were fighting over their prey.

In which the wolves were fighting over their prey.

In which the wolves were fighting over their prey.

In and Foreign Bible Society throughing, I immediately anchored the ship community, and through the continuant out the world is this year entitled and sent away a boat in charge of all change of hands purchases food.

The free end of the section so that the famous 28th chapter of the Book the position as possible, and so even the people of the nome town and in

When the pack saw them some of lit up by beauty of language, felicity have sent nearly one thousand. The loyalty of a city's people in "This state of affairs did not lead washed away.

busy digging drift when Jean straight- lifted two or three feet above the top dence of the never-cessing activities ened up from his work with an angry and drooping inward, made an ef- of a Society that is not only the auxiexclamation. "Pestel" he said. "Me fective barricade.

The book is tastefully produced and too far. The Federal and Provincial In a cloud of snow dust the manager fought blindly among the acrambling beasts. He felt a keen nip as one animal snapped a leg; the teeth that will restrict credit and cause an While this work may provide very have always had the unemployed with Pighting, the manager got his back us, though not in such large numbers.

AID FOR THE UNEMPLOYED

"Might I have the deasure of see-

Canadian Ship First to Assist Hondurans

Thrilling Report of Captain of Connector Tells How Crew Gave Time. Rations and Labor

it forward until it lay alongside the wolves in the pit. The beasts scurri- thrilling than fiction is the descripthe two emen chased them within the Robson, commander of the Canadian When Jean was ready for final ac-tion he slipped off his moreasins and and there the fighters managed to the circumstances by which he was motioned to Anse to do the 'same, strike down an animal as it leaped at forced to break the rules established to the summit. Then with great can through one of the broader meshes at Honduras. During that time he has tion the half-breed looseped a cake of the top an so hung securely trapped. commanded the Connector in her runs snow with his hunting knife, made a Another crawled between the narrow- back and forth between Bollizo and Jamaica: to connect with the "Lady" Boston, Halifax and Montreal,

> "I beg to tender the following report on the position at Boliro:-"The voyage from Jamaica to Bolizo, September 9th to 12th was made incomparatively fine weather although I knew by wireless reports there was is hurricane, in the vicinity of Bolizo, so was not surprised on arrival to find no pilot at the station. I continued The popular report, so eagerly looked through the channel until at the

The navigator's letter is a valuable tually worked the ship to her usual ts life of service brings joy, happiridge and out upon the flat of the ary treasurers "old and new" in his I found the town a total wreck, not it passes through.

ravine. The wires slid easily over the treatment of the subject. After the one house or building that was not The greatest asset of the home-In a dash of forty yards Anse was of Gold Mining, the chapters have maining. Lighters were not to be had, through the series of wage carner, acres of a north-woods tract that he his man had taken of the favorable and found:" "Channels among the iron barges being lifted up and car- and back again to the wage carner, could sell neither for farming nor for lay of the ground. There came sudoverlind The land was hills and humlay of the ground. There came sudrocks," "To the furthest bound," ried to the centre of the town, this who starts it back over the cycle—and grazing. The land was hills and humdenly into sight upon his left a pack "Breaking open a shaft," "Gotten for necessitated the use of ship's boats for so long as it stays in the community. wild rice and eel grass. Except for tearing at the skelten of their quarry, weaves examples of the heroism and At the time of my arrival our power of the citizenship.

They fenced the tract with woven pit had hidden the pair from the examples chornicled in the Society's The shortage of rood was the main munity, and upon the amount which sight of the wolves in their first rush annals for the year, until, instead of a thing so I put the ship's cooks on is spent by them in support of local drab statement of fact, the whole is night and day baking bread and business and industry.

wires in front of them in a vain at- There are several references through- I also used the ship as a hostel for dollars is reflected in the general porrolls of mesh wire to odd lengths to tempt to get over the fence; others out the book, to Canada and New-homeless people, to have a bath and gress and development of our cities fit rough ground, and in many places raced through or round the pit and foundland. Emphass is laid on the a meal. The shortage of water beran up the ridge that Anse and Jean difficult economic conditions which ing a serious item, as Boliso depends There is a true saying that comfaced Bible Society workers here, but entirely upon rain water for their re- munities don't just grow. They are "Run you! Run-run-I feenish!" their spirit is summed up as follows: quisites and most of the vats were built by man-men and women who the ranch a hundred Virginia deer, top speed along the moving wires to- ment which some from South Saskate- I had the Colonial Secretary's wife enters a town which is composed of eight caribou from Canada and ten ward the scurrying wolves. All the elks, or wapitis, from a preserve on Manitoulin Island. Every animal had to be hauled to the ranch from a loop upon his right. In an instant to be hauled to the ranch from a loop upon his right. In an instant who does not believe that an occasionto be hauled to the ranch from a most of the beasts were leaping at al crop failure means the death of and only the clothes they stood in. have found a community which is wilderness railway station over twelve wilderness railway station over twelve the wires near the top of the ridge. agriculture. We gathered the harvest I did not "sleep" any of the men, but prosperous and content. Such a place, where a solid post held the detached wherever available, and summer-fal-section taut.

We gathered the intrees the man a bath and a meal seen through the human eye, is a lowed the human soil where the crop for any of them who came off. I also place built of stores, brick and mor-Anse quickly reached a point near failed in preparation for the crop gave them cigarettes and anything tar, presenting a pleasing picture; but cargo, this only after consultation its travels moulding the character of to arrive after the disaster and was known in Minnesota." Blissard fol-ran toward Jean, who was closing in English Bible—the chespest obtainable sailing I boarded the warship and bid ister that morning was a young man lowed bliggard until three feet of packhis end of the trap, but with savage made possible by the generous birthgood bye to the Governor, he was ed snow lay on the levels. Anse and yells the half-breed drove them back day gift from Canada and Newfound- most profuse to his thanks for what Bravely he struggled to control his ten far into the night. In many of the wires in upon the wall of for this generous gift, the reading of . With the exception of whiskey and deeper. places they were obliged to string snow cakes. That forced the wolves the report leaves the definite impres- cold storage cargo the majority are > fourteen hundred wounded. Burial of the dead being impossible, fires are burning night and day, burning the lost everything, but by a miracle my wife has been saved. The water completely filled the lower part of our house and was up, and well up, in ence came to shake hands and to tell the bed rooms, my wife was up to him how much they had enjoyed the her neck in water struggling through sermon. He watched for her. Finally wreckage to save herself, she eventu- she appeared, the last in line. The ally managed to wade to a house young minister suddenly felt that he which was well back from ours and must tell her how she had helped him. As he did so a faint yelping as of them tried to leap upon the drift wall illustrated by photographs dealing with was ten minutes walk away, she arfighting beasts reached his ears. The the manager's yells and demonstra-sounds came from across a barren tions drove them back. Jean had straight down Cibe line of the manager's yells and demonstra-bluff and straight down Cibe line of them back. Jean had graphs of colporteurs at work offering lent a man's under clothing and a hold your attention?" made fast his section of the wires as to the people the Written Scriptures lady's dress, it was in these clothes hold your attention?" I have bept her on the ship, and brought her to Jamaica, and I' feel course I do not mnd," she said. "If sure the Company, considering the you will pardon me, I was looking circumstances will not look upon this past you. You are young, but as I with disapproval. (There is a strict watched I saw an older man. The ruling against such action under nor-The tidal wave that followed the hurricane caused most of the damage

It would not be fair to conclude this letter without drawing to your attention the admirable way, in which the entire ship's crew worked during this most trying time, and especially my Bolize sailors, all of whom had lost some member of their family, as well as their bomes. These men were most faithful and loyal to the ship. working well throughout the day to their homes, but to a man, they always reported for duty at 6 a.m. I remain, Dear Sir, your faithfully, Captain W. H. Robson, Master.

PLAN MUSICAL FESTIVAL The first constitution for Halton

County Public School Musical Postival Association, drafted by a committee appointed at the last annual meeting. was endorsed, with minor changes, by last night's meeting of the executive, President P. W. Cooke presiding. The main feature calculated to establish a son who takes a paper regularly from basis of fair representation was the decision to mame those who will or another's or whether he has sub-henceforth be members of the associafor perhaps a hundred yards. The shoulder. Three times he was hurled farmhouse on East 18th Street, when tion as: One representative appointed the mount has person orders his paper wire there was attached to posts back against the drift and felt through he observed a young woman standing by each rural-school board and two discontinued he must pay all arrears, Close to a post he cautiously clipped his heavy clothing the pinch of jaws the wires of the whole seven-foot section.

Anse's wonder grew as the half-for help, instantly rushed to the re-hushand is at home?\

back against the drift and felt through he observed a young woman standing the pinch of jaws at the gate. The candidate politely named by the board in a town or inif for help, instantly rushed to the re-hushand is at home?\

back against the drift and felt through he observed a young woman standing to the gate. The candidate politely named by the board in a town or inif for breaking bones.

Jean, hearing his employer's shouts for help, instantly rushed to the re-hushand is at home?\

corporated village; one representative from each branch of the Women's Infor help, instantly rushed to the re-hushand is at home?\

hushand is at home?\

the observed a young woman standing by each rural-school board and two named by the board in a town or init the gate. The dandidate politely named by the board in a town or init the payment is made, and then corporated village; one representative from each branch of the Women's Infor help, instantly rushed to the rehushand is at home?\

has desided that refusing to take D.E. and Council of Women, and all have decided that refusing to take supervisors of music in Halton schools. newspapers or periodicals from the the stuff. Then his pulses hammered the feet were luckily buried in snow with excitement.

His feet were luckily buried in snow of the death of your dog. What causfriend-holding his hand all evening!"

SOME TIME

Some time, when all life's lesone have been learned. And sun and stars for evermore have set, The things which our weak judgments here have spurned-The things o'er which we've grieved with lashes wet-Will flash before us out of life's d nd we shall see how all God's plans were right. And how what seemed reproof love most true But not to-day. poor heart! God's plans, like white, unfold:

We must not tear · leaves apart; Time will reavel And if through patient the land Where tired feet, with sandals loc · · ed. may rest. When we shall clearly know derstand. think that we shall knew best."

THE HOME-TOWN DOLLAR

Anse knew instantly, what his man our workers to despair, but to more I cut down the meals to soup, joint churches, good schools, playgrounds,

Bravely he struggled to control his Wolves got over the drifted-in fence, of wire netting upright outside the and game got out. At the end of six weeks Anse estimated that from kill-keep the pack inside while the other of gold in the Holy Scriptures. "It was among the gifts offered to the infant Saviour: and when John saw house standing and out of a popula-but she smiled just a little, and her house standing and out of a popula-but she smiled just a little, and her

The message in her giance gave him a sudden new courage. He forgot to his preaching. From time to time he glanced at the woman, and never

He was blushing and sternmering course I do not mand," she said. "Of things you said you had perhaps not felt deeply. But I saw a man who had tasted the bitterness of life and who was still seeing the sweeter, brave and unfinching in spite of many pointed, but he spoke sympathetically.

minister? Do I resemble him?" let themselves be lured away to easier or better-paying work. But you'll be here when the day is done." He had asked for a crumb of en couragement and nad received a whole losf. Many times the strength

it gave him helped him to "stand

DECISIONS RESPECTING NEWS-

Court decisions respecting newspaper subscriptions are very clear. Any perpost office or removing and leaving them limpeld, s prime facie evidence of intention of fraud.

Little Ethel: "Mother, are you the