October 18th, 1931, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hyde, a son (William Reginald)

VATSON-In Georgetown, on Sunday, Oct. 25th, 1931, Alfred Watson, aged 84 years, 2 months.

OBITUARY

DARIUS WILLIAMS descendant of one of Canada's idest and most wdely known families passed away on Tuesday, Oct. 20th, in the death of Darips Williams, in his eighty-sixth year. The end came peacefully at the residence of his son, Dr. J. P. P. Williams, 550 Palmerston Boulevard, Toronto. Mr. Williams was born in Glenwilliams, Ont., which bears the family name of its founder -that is, Mr. Williams and his father, who founded the woollen mills at that centre. Mr. Williams continued to conduct his father's factory and business, after the latter's demise until the year 1906, when he came to Toronto, and became a manufacturers agent. Ten years ago he retired from active business and went West to live with his daughter, Mrs. John Cumberland, of Pincher Creek, Alts. He was brought East to Toronto for medical treatment about two weeks ago. While in Toronto he was actively identified with Centennial United Church. He served on the Board of Directors and was teacher of a Bible class. He was a member of Credit Lodge, A.F. & A. Mr. and is survived by one daughter. Mrs. T. J. Cumberland of Phicher Creek, Alta.; and two sons, Charles L. Williams of Sudbury and Dr. J. P. P. Williams of Toronto. He was the last surviving member of the Charles Williams family of Glerwilliams.

ALFRED WATSON One of Georgetown's oldest most highly esteemed residents in the at the morning service, and Rev. W. Henderson of Christ Church Cathedral person of Alfred Watson, passed away A. Henderson, B.A., of Christ's church Hamiton. He took for his text the Sunday, Oct. 25th, in his 85th year. in the evening. He was married three times, his first all who heard them many beautiful floral tributes.
