MEETING

Through the good graces of ladies a banquet was provided and almost 150 people sat down. During the supper time several local musicians favored the company with Scotch songs and airs. Mrs. Howard sang "Bonnie Mary of Argyle" and "Comin

Thru' the Rye." Mr. J. Harrison sang "Scots Wa Ha," "Ye Banks and Braes," and "Lassie o' Mine." Miss

Jessie Leavitt gave a piano solo-

Scotch air. Messrs. Young Bros. gave several instrumental selections violin

After the luncheon, the pastor, Rev

Dr. Howard, vacated the chair, and called for the congregation to pro-
