—The softball games at the High School grounds on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, are featuring good ball and attracting large attendances.
Unfortunately some of the players are not appreciating the condition of the ground and the privilege of using the High School grounds for playing on the lawn and prohibited in spite of the protests of the caretaker and the notices.
As secretary of the Georgetown Softball League, I would draw to your attention that this means of recreation and amusement has to no small extent been made possible through the cooperation and support of the High School Board, and if we are to have the use of these premises for future games the grounds and the present high standard.
Kenneth M. Langdon, Secretary.

—Marie Dressler Wins Again. Marie Dressler was awarded the highest acting honors for her work in "Min and Bill." She'll win again with this heart-warming portrayal of the drudge who marries her boss!
Marie Dressler brings you laughs and tears in her most lovable part in Clarence Brown production "Min and Bill" with Richard Cromwell, Jean Harlow and Myrna Loy.
See this famous picture Saturday night, July 2nd, afternoon or evening at the Gregory Theatre, Georgetown.

—SCOUT NEWS. In response to a timely letter which appeared in the Georgetown Herald last week regarding the condition of the War Memorial, I should like to say on behalf of the troop that although we are quite willing to care for the Memorial, we did not know for certain whether or not some other organization had taken over this happy responsibility. It is now evident that this is not so, we shall endeavor to keep the soldiers "acres" in the best of condition and the sad and chagrined Mr. Norman Keys when he again graces our humble town with his presence.

MEN'S CLASS MET AT HOME OF MR. MACLAREN

—About thirty five members and friends of the A. R. E. Men's Bible Class Church, Georgetown, gathered at the home of Mr. MacLaren, their leader, on Sunday evening, last, for their closing meeting until September next.
After spending some time in the beautiful rose garden the class assembled in the parlour and Mr. D. Wilson, President, called on Rev. Mr. Rumbley to open the meeting with prayer. The roll was marked and several matters of business pertaining to the class discussed.
It was decided that the class re-meet on the first Sunday in September and meet in the afternoon.
The President then called on Mr. MacLaren, who delivered a very interesting address. Mr. MacLaren, in his remarks, dealt with the problems that the Christian religion was up against to-day and the stand that the Church should take during this time of stress and economic depression.
At the close of the address Mr. N. Buris moved, seconded by Mr. A. Speight, a vote of thanks to Mr. MacLaren for his able and faithful services as teacher of the class.
It was arranged to hold the annual class meeting at the home of Mr. MacLaren about the middle of July.
Mrs. MacLaren then served light refreshments.
A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. MacLaren for her kindness by Messrs. P. Harrison and W. T. Evans.
