The Georgetown Herald J. M. MOORE Publisher and Proprietor lember Canadian Weekly Newspaper

C.N.R. Time Table (Standard Time) 2.39 p.m. Pensenger, stops for passengers going Bast and Toronto .. Sunday's going East 8.12 p.m. 9.55 p.m.

Going West 8.54 a.m. 2.08 p.m. 6.25 p.m.

ARROW

10.55 a.m. 3.55 p.m. 5.55 p.m. (8.25 p.m. Set. only) (9.55 p.m. daily except Sat.) (11.55 p.m. Saturday only)

6.15 a.m. daily except Sun. 9.50 a.m. 1.16 p.m. 4.40 p.m. (6.07 p.m. stops only on flag signal) 9.15 p.m. 6.15 p.m. Sundays and Holidays only. Reduced Fares to Holders of Season Tickets TICKETS AND INFORMATION AS

LONG'S

DIRECTORY

LE ROY DALE Barrister and Solicitor Georgetown, Ontario Offices Gregory Theatre Bldg, Mill St CLARENCE IL WIGGINS Berrister, Selictier, Netary Public Offices—O'Neill Block, Georgetown Telephone 158

GRAHAM, GRAHAM and BOWYER Barristers, Etc. Brampton, Ontario am, E. B. Graham, C. H. Bowyer E. G. Graham,

KENNETH M. LANGDON Barrister, Selfeiter, Netary Public Pirst Mortgage Money to Loan Offices: Main Street South

F. R. WATSON, D.D.S., M.D.S. MARION PRIEST, LDS. D.D.S. Georgetown Office Hours-9 to 5, Except Thursday

Afternoons F. L. HEATH, LDS. D.DS. Office in Lane Block, one door north of O'Neill's Carriage Factory Hours 0 a.m. to 6 p.m.

CHIROPRACTIC "NEILSON" The Chiropracter Palmer Graduate 19 Year's Practice No Medicine, Surgery, Osteopathy X-RAY SERVICE Office over Dominion Store

Monday, Wednesday and Saturday 2 to 5 and 7.30 to 9.30 p.m. Other days and hours by appointment

FRANK PETCH LICEDISED AUCTIONEES the Countlet of Pool and Halton Prompt Service Tolophenes Chattenham 26r28 Georgetown 61r3 Post Office-Cheltenham .

COLLECTIONS Do we get Results? A Toronto Client Writen:-pleased with your work in hand-ing my collections. I had considered these simost hopeless."

Kelly & Alken ORANGEVILLE, ONTARIO

Monuments POLLOCK & INGHAM Galt, Ont. Designs on Request - Phone 1042

Inspect our work in Greenwood

THE New Way Buy Coal Blue Coal'

No Extra Delivery Charges to / HORVAL

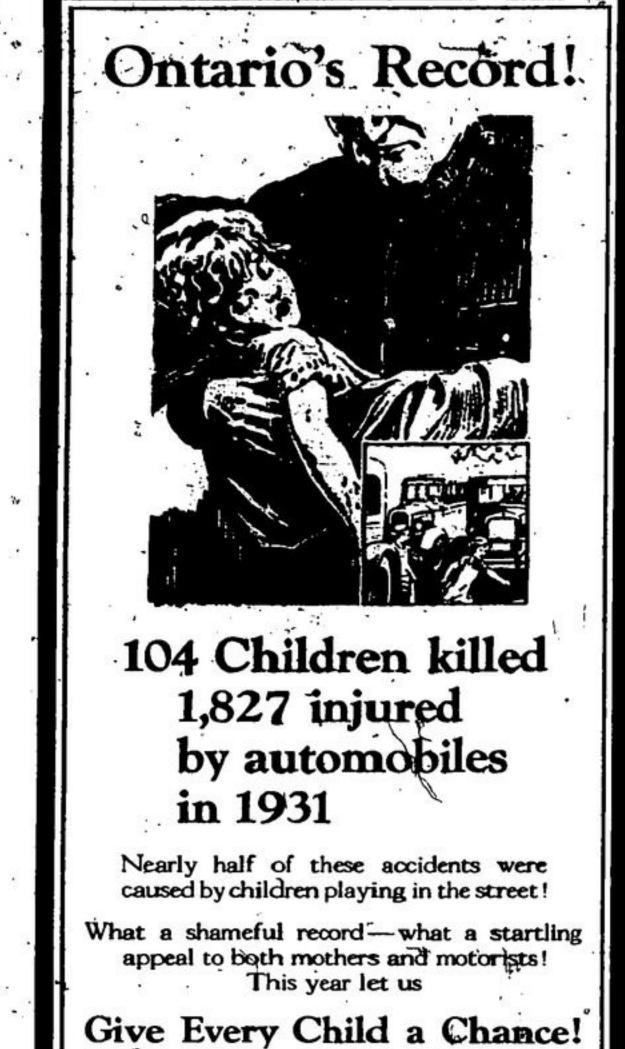

STRWARTTOWN GLEN WILLIAMS STONE SCHOOL Discount Allowed For Cash If Not Owing A Past Account

John McDonald

Have Your Eyes Examined

O. T. Walker, D.O.S.C.

Eyesight Specialist, Brampton who will be at Watson's Drug Store, Georgetown the Second Wednesday of every month PHONE WATSON'S DRUG STORE FOR APPOINTMENT Or you may consult O. T. WALKER at his Office in Brampton The newest style of glasses at reasonable prices

WE DO JOB PRINTING

MOTOR VEHICLES BRANCH

ONTARIO DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS

Leopold Macaulay,

Can you buy as much anywhere for the money?

Thrift is a most commendable trait. The practice of knowing what one gets for on money—and getting it.

Can you think of anything that gives you more value for your money than this:?

Notice that friends of yours, or friends of your friends are, visiting; have visitors; are ill; have been bereaved: have rebuilt or remodelled their home; bought a new home; are officers in a society; have been blessed with a new baby; that they have had an accident, or been married. In fact, the intimate activities of the community family life are reflected / the pages of your local newspaper 52 weeks in every year.

Besides, you read of your council's town, township or county-activities; of the progress or retrogression of your district, and literally hundreds of other

The business people send you each week messages of savings, latest styles, patterns, and weaves in wearables, and tasty, economical food stuffs. You can stay indoors for weeks and still be better informed of vital community affairs than many who are continually about and trust to hearsay for news, through your local

¶ Do you honestly believe that you get a bigger or better one dollar and fifty cents worth anywhere? If you agree with us that you do not, will you try to make our task of keeping our subscription list paid up, easier, by watching the label on your Herald and paying yours when it falls due? Thank you. Just to be sure-turn to the first page now and

"LOOK AT THE LABEL"

THE WAY OF THE WORLD Laugh and the world laughs with Weep and you weep alone.

This good old earth must borrow its Sigh and it is lost on the air. The echoes rebound to a joyful sound But they shrink from voicing care.

Rejoice and men will seek you. Orieve and they turn and go; They want full measure of your pleas-

But they do not want your woe. se glad and your friends are many. Be sad and you lose them all. There are none to decline your nec-

But alone you must drink life's gall east and your halls are crowded. Fast and the world goes by-Forget and forgive, it will help you But no man can help you to die.

For a long and lordly train, Thro' the narrow aisle of pain.

THE END OF THE TRAIL dob on the train. Where?" .

By Harriet Laumenis Smith

Robert Wayland turned his flushed Mr. Wayland, are you sick?" face toward the older man, "If anybody's going to stop work," he said, "why don't you? You go and pay put that idea into your head?" Mr. Watson, while I stick to the job." "Why, I don't know, You look paid. So many persons are hawking John Wayland's mouth twisted into 50 pale and queer." a rather grim smile. The man had plenty of humor, but of a ragged sort the thread of her story until the man Things like potatoes, beets, carrots, that people sometimes had difficulty recalled it to her. "You were saying etc, may, with greater wisdom be storin recognizing. "I guess I'll stand by about Bob."
my first ides," he replied. "You may be better at those logarithm things without noticing my existence. I you were trying to explain to me the could have attracted his attention of other day, but I'm better at the farm course, but I was afraid somebody standing him. He would have been to the city-" amazed had he known the amount exterior. "I know- my work is worth seems tough to leave you sweating in this heat, while I go off on an errand anybody could do,"

"You'll do your share of sweating can't let you have one of the horses today, and Cryder said he wouldn't have the car fixed before Friday. You can take the trolley, of course, but you'll have a good two miles to walk." "I'll be ready in ten minutes," de- that land I bought from Watson, and clared Robert, as he started on a he hasn't come back."

as no one was on hand to observe hardly above a whisper when at last him, his face, was suddenly trans- these words came, "There's a mis-was sitting at the dining-room table. way House." counting gold coins from a canvas with disapproval written on his ex- can get any news there." himself had selected, was his idea of all, Mattie." security. "Pive hundred dollars," he put it in Robert's hands. Then he never went near the Watson's, and every man, woman and child who you can put it all in one."

As the young man left the house, Sophia, Mr. Wayland's aunt, looked after him, and shook her head lugubriously. The warping of her nature had begun many years ago in her cion until now her habit was to think do that if it were my money," she he was going to, Maybe that was stated now mournfully. Her nephew's face became darkly red. "I'd trust Bob with every penny

"You don't know anything about the where the Pecks got him, since all their papers were destroyed at their death. Pires are awful things!" about him when I took him, that I at this station." do now, and there was never a better boy than Bob. Mattle and I did the Robert's non-appearance was necesbest job of our lives when we took sarily explained to Aunt Sophia, she Aunt Sophia shook her head like a fulfillment of her prophecy spinister old raven, "Blood will tell." she announced, and her nephew went peared, her eyes swollen with A little later the heat of the after-noon was broken by a violent thumderstorm. All work was interrupted room. "Don't people's memories somefor a good hour, and the men' worked times give way?" longer than usual to make up for their rest. Although supper was an hour they do, but it would be considerable

"Hadn't you better call Hiram Watson up?" asked Aunt Sophia as the family sat down to the table. "What for?" demanded her nephew.

"To see if Robert really did take him the money. It's a big temptation for a boy who never had anything." Had anyone but Aunt Sophia made vitation to spend the night: the suggestion Mr. Wayland might wanted to be on hand to hear the have acted on it. If he called up now, first word of any new developments, though, he thought, he would simply too. be sharing her doubts. "Robert will come home when he gets ready." he and a telegram was read over the appeared, however, and Aunt Soohia had gone to bed, he attempted to telephone to Watson, only to find that the Mr. Wayland repeated the telegram storm had put the wires out of com- to his breathless listeners. "He may mission. "Oh, well, the Watsons have be crasy." Cynthia cried. "For all we asked him to stay all night, that's know; there is sanity in his family. all," Mr. Watson consoled himself. "Or stealing," croaked Aunt Sophia Orimes of violence were unknown in "Blood will tell."; the community, and the possibility of At ten o'clock a motor drove to the nim or his wife. They went to bed PLAN FOR WINTER NOW and siept peacefully.

When morning came, and the boy had not appeared, Mrs. Wayland made ne snared her anxiety. He only said. ive got an errand in the viliage this morning. I'll drive out and beveral little matters delayed him. and it was past ten o'clock when he drove through the village. From the purch of Doctor Levett's nome, a voice natied him, and a girl of eighteen or increapouts, came racing down the path to the wagon. "Good morning. our. Wayland," sne cried. The tarther drove his horse up ing, Cynthia," he cried. "I'm cuming out to supper speak to him again." "You are angry at Bob?"

stood with his feet spart, as if on a leck of a rocking ship. "You saw-Why, I've been at Helen's for

With an effort the man regained about Bob-"

"Are you sure it was Bob?" You know that." "I didn't know whether you got asking me all these questions?" "I gave Bob five hundred dollars cash yesterday to make a payment on

The man and girl looked into each other's eyes. Cynthia's voice was

"Oh, John, what do you mean?"

is high time we, as Christ's repre-"I've done it already. The sheriff sentatives, started a campaign of right thinking. "Whateoever things are of good report, meditate on these things." -Outlook for Church in Globe. "He's not our boy after this. If the lad we've loved and trusted would do this, he's not going to get away with it. Cynthia heard him telling a young fellow the name of the hotel

"Did Cynthia speak to him?" "She bowed, but he didn't seem Warren Junction." "At Warren Junction! Why, how did he get there?" "I don't know, Somebody migh have given him a lift in a machine "Maybe I didn't know anything and of course he wouldn't buy a ticket The awful day larged by.

just a blind. We'll see."

was gloomily triumphant over During the afternoon, Cynthia weeping. "There must be some explanation," she said as she sat with Robert's foster parents in the living

Mr. Wayland smiled grimly. "Yes. and a half late. Robert had not re- of a coincidence if a young fellow's memory caved in just when he happened to have five hundred dollars in

"Perhans he's sick and delirious There must be something. Robert couldn't have done such a thing." To have Cynthia about was a comfort for she shared the grief of the others profoundly. Perceiving the girl accepted Mrs. 'Wayland's in-eller signe) "Starting for home with pris-Foher, insists that he lives in Chicago When at ten o'clook, Robert had not and that his name is Kennedy, will bring hm out to-night for your

The Provincial government has an-Dominion government it is the gov- Head Office of the Bank of Montreal Swimming in the pure quiet air! ernment's intention to continue assis- from its branches under date of Aug. Thy fleeces bathed in sunlight, wh of direct relief, by the payment of General Grain cutting is rapidly. Thy shadow o'er the vale moves along the control of the payment of the control of the two-thirds of the cost, the municipali- nearing completion in Manitoba and Where, midst their labor, pause the ty bearing one-third. It has been fur- in Baskatchewan over 50% of the ther stated that where the municipali- wheat has been cut. In Alberta and As cool it comes along the grain. ty considers it is unable to assume Northern Saskatchewan operations even this one-third of the cost of have been delayed by fairly general direct relies, representation should be heavy rains. Threshing is now under made to the Municipal board of the way in all three Provinces and is gen- To rest on thy unrolling skirts, and hel assistance from the government. Certain municipalities have made such good yields indicated, and later crops representations and have had their are developing normally. In the shre of the post reduced from a third to give serious consideration to this ported in some districts. Prospects Of the great ocean breaking round. question of fall and winter relief and continue good. or two, so tell Auntie Wayland to to ascertain whether they will be in Quebeo-Haying operations are gen-please have strort cake. But if Bob's a position to bear this one-third cost erally completed, the crop is below To blooming regions distant far, or not. It would be most unwise to average. Good grain yields are anti- To where the sun of Audalusia shines angry that I don't know as I'll ever wait until the cold weather is upon dipated. Corn is late but shows satis- On his own olive groves and vines, us, and the memployed are in need factory growth. Potato and other root Or the soft lights of Italy's bright of fuel as well as food, to then con- crops require warm weather. Tobacco sider the matter. We may as well is making favourable progress. Apple In smiles upon her rufhs lie. resterday, and he wouldn't speak to face the fact that unemployment will crop prospects are good. Pastures are oe with us just as much this fall and holding out well, winter as it, was last fall and winter. But if we plan wisely now, much of that the yield of fall wheat is above the confusion, delay and suffering ex- the average and barley average, while perienced tast year can be prevented. oats in many sections did not fill Municipalities should encourage strong well and the grain is light. In South- these days about a "Back to the month, and I came down on the afcommittees to get to work now in the ternoon train. Bob got on at Warren endeavour to raise funds for this work have shown marked improvement and where some men have been offered don't need to tell you that I want a rugged face that was staring down at most heartily commend them for this ly reduced from those of last year. from the federal treasury.—Ex. ner, then drew back with a start, "Oh, and in all good faith would suggest to Cutting and curing of tobacco is maksome of their garden produce for the able conditions and the former esticontrol of himself. "Sick?" No, what put that idea into your head?" nose for the very low prices that are the small produce of their little plot would think I was crying to scrape ac- present depression could be lifted if Under his tan, Robert flushed again, quaintance with a stranger, I thought men had faith, Constant meditation For ten years he had called John he'd get off at Mayfield, and then I upon evil reports and long periods of Wayland "father," but he had never was going to have a good laugh at hope deferred have sickened the him. But after I found he was going of the average man of today. True it is that faith in God is the first requisite to spiritual and material prosperi-Cynthia Levett had already become ty and faith in one's fellow-men. vaguely aware of the tension in the There can be no lasting growth of the mind of her listener. This question spiritual man until God is made sustole the blood from her cheek, "Am preme object of man's faith. God will I sure it was Bob?" she repeated. do His share. But, notwithtsanding Why, I couldn't be mistaken in Bob. man, the free will agent, has an imhe prayed: "Let the words of my pact. mouth and the meditations of my great apostle to the Gentiles. Paul. whose words echo so truly the voice I'd like to know how many own sens was going to the city?".

A TIMELY WORLD

was going to the city?".

is the Church to-day. The whole would be more willing to do their "Why, he was talking to a young world was the responsibility of a mere share. We didn't make any mistake man across the aisle, who asked him handful of persecuted men and woif he knew a good hotel in the city; men, and yet, in the face of the trem-When Robert came downstairs hand- that wasn't expensive. I hear Bob endous task and the empty treasury, some in his best suit, Mr. Wayland say, "I'm going to stay at the Hatha- they were enabled to attend to the "necessity of the saints" and push on Mr. Wayland wiped the beads of in the great work of evangelization. bag, and placing them in little piles perspiration from his forebead. "Til "As a man thinketh in his heart, so before him. The boy stood waiting drive on to the Watson's, to see if I is he!" Paithless thinking is the millstone about the neck of the Church pressive face. He had often discussed It was noon before Mr. Wayland and the world today. God has not with his father the advisability of walked into his own home, and at failed, the food supply has not failed, opening a checking account, but Mr. the sight of him his wife threw up though, we oftentimes think it has Wayland had little confidence in her hands. "He's dead," she cried. But men have failed, by placing their banks. Gold coin in a canvas bag, Mr. Wayland sati down heavily in faith in the wrong objects; money concealed in some hiding place he the nearest chair. I wish that was has falled in its highest purpose because men have failed to honor God with his substance, and that does, not announced, and replacing the bag, he "He's stolen from us, Mattie. He apply, solely to the rien—it applies to put it in Robert's hands. Then he lear the water the wat The broken-hearted man and wo- stely wasted one penny of it on that man stared at each other in a dase. which was not bread. Where is the The woman did not cry out, but in individual that can escape that indictthat moment of silence she tasted the ment? But God in waiting-waiting anguish of death. At last she forced for a pentent people to confess their her white lips to ask, "What are you sins and to return in faith to Him. It

IF BUICKS HAD KARS

What a story the McLaughtin-Buick used by Imperial Conference delegates could tell if they could only areak: What political and trade secrets have been whispered within the luxurious interiors of these cars in the past few weeks at Ottawa. Says a writer Mayfair: "Not the carillon, sending forth its missic over the city from fifty-three bells ten pounds to ter tons in weight nor yet the architecural dignity of that pile of stone which crowns Parliament Hill. Not the cared-for charm of The Driveway. as our car rolled into Ottawa along the banks of a serene, indeed historic, Rideau River. Nor yet the avenue of flags which leads up to that turreted castle which is the Chateau Instead, it is the battery of Dominion-crested McLaughlin-Bukeka and the Royal crown cars of Government House which gives one the singular thrill on reaching Ottawa today. If is the 'new' theme in our motor-con-Sleek, khaki-chauffeured motor carr dart at you from every line of traf fic. They have first right to the choice parking places; they have right of way upon each and every occasion With no license plate but the allcompelling "Imperial Economic Conference, 1937 and the flag of the particular Dominion at the radiator cap they assert their claim to precedence, noiselessly, swiftly as a Mercury. In the present scheme of Ottawa life, they take second place only to the viceregal cars from Rideau Hall. list. Actually, they excite more interest Ottawa people have become accus tomed to the 'crown' cars. More than that these very Buicks if they ever could get together and hold confab of their own, probably could reveal a more accurate story of this soon-to-be-historic Conference maskinonge. than any official documents"

CROP REPORT

nounced that in conjunction with the of telegraphic reports received at the ing of grains is becoming general with Maritime Provinces crop prospents generally are favourable. An British It would seem that this is the op- Columbia heavy rains have been bene- And hear her humming the curb and slighted. Good morn- portune moment for all municipalities ficial to crops, though damage is re-

Ontario-Threshing returns indicate ARMER Wayland stopped work and looked at the sum. "Guess and looked at the sum. "Guess would better knock off, now," he said to his adopted son. Robert: "I want you to take a payment over to Hiram Watson. As long as you're going to college in the fall, I guess I girl looked up laughingly into the laughingly into the girl looked up laughingly into the looked laugh with the object of lay-laugh average crops are now expected. Some the laugh average crops are now expected. Some saverage crops are now expected. Some to company all the way. I gave him a verage crops are now expected. Some the laugh average crops are now expected. Some the laugh average crops are now expected. Some to company all the way. I gave him a verage crops are now expected. Some the laugh average crops are now expected. Some the laugh average crops are now expected. Some the laugh average crops are now expected mate of a good crop of satisfactory few years ago threw up their jobs quality is borne out to date. Maritime Provinces-The hay crop high-paying and lucrative positions will be about average. Grains are in Detroit and other United States ripening and promise a good yield. cities are back again in the home Potatoes show satisfactory progress fold, poorer but wiser for their exbut rot has developed in some districts periences. When dull times came to due to excessive moisture. The An- the big cities the Canadians were the napolis Valley apple crop is reported first to get their walking tickets. to be of a very good quality. Some Some had been residents of the Reearly varieties are already on the public for twelve or fourteen years, market. Pastures continue in good but had failed to take out their final

PARLIAMENT TO MEET IN OCTOBER

some time in October to consider the more pleasant reports and fewer bitratification of the four trade agree- ter criticisms. If you want to be ments negotiated with different states popular, remember the nice things of the commonwealth at the Imperial which one person says of another and Economic Conference. While the Ot- then tell them. It is such a little tawa house is in session other em- thing to repeat a compliment. ' N pire parliaments will be considering portant part to play in keeping the the tangable results of the conference man, a genuine compliment gives pleatemple of God free from corroding twelve all-red trade treaties, designed sure. You like to hear pleasant thoughts. The Psalmist evidently to unite one quarter of the world's "Oh, yes I did. But why are you had come to such a conclusion when population in closer economic com-

From the Canadian viewpoint the heart be acceptable in Thy sight!" most important treaty is with the As a Church, we have reached the United Kingdom. In its broad outplace where we think upon things lines it secures for Canada a perfer- a few. If you can make a sad exthat are not accepable to God, since red position in the British market for perience less painful by saying a kind they lack the essential of faith. The such products as wheat, butter, eggs, word, why not do it? Desist from cheese, fruits, copper, tobacco and repeating the evil things you hear. modifications of rescrictions against him, his face, was suddenly transformed by an expression of affection.
"Folks say it's risky taking a boy when you don't know anything about his forebears," his thoughts ran, "but take. Bob couldn't..."

Whose words echo so truly the voice of God, in writing to the Philippians, urged them to think upon "things of grants new or increased margins of good report." The early Church was breference on 250 manufactured goods, is in him. What makes you think he confronted with greater burdens than confronted with greater burdens than chiefly iron and steel ,textiles, chemi- farmers to pay their debts in wheat. will secure triff concessions in the That will apply to dealings which far-South African and Rhodesian mar-mers have had with the government

chases of Canadian wheat

GAME REGULATIONS

severe penalties. It is unlawful in Ontario: 1. To employ a guide unless he i licensed.

2. To carry a loaded gun in a motor car or other vehicle. 3. To molest or destroy a den usual place of habitation of any furbearing animal, other than wolf. 4. To use snares for any purpose in the Counties of Victoria -Peterboro, Hastings, Lennox, Addington, Frontenac, Leeds and Grenville. 5. To shoot between sunset and sunrise (standard time) or between sunset on Saturday and sunrise on the following Monday (standard time). 6. To shoot or spear muskrat, or to set a trap closer than five feet to 758, while this year they fell to $ muskrat house, burrow, feed house or push-up, or within 20 feet of a mal or bird taken, suitable for food, be destroyed or spolit, or the of fur-bearing animals to be destroy-8. To carry a fire-arm for the purpose of hunting in Essex, Kent, Lambton, Elgin, Middlesex, Oxford, Norfolk, Brant, Haldimand, Welland, Lincoln Wentworth, York, Poel, Halton, Waterloo, Perth. South Wellington and South Huron, without a lic-9. To angle or hunt without a license mouthed black bass, maskinonge, on the surplus of former years. Dur-

11. To buy, sell or export black bass our imagined needs. What were remaskinonge, speckled trout, brown gared as luxuries but a few years ago. trout, rainbow trout or other Pacific | we have come to regard as necessities. trout, no matter how procured, or Now with our reduced income we must to sell pickerel (pike-perch or dore), give up many things, and it is interpike or lake trout taken by angling esting to observe the reactions of difor in any other manner, except under ferent persons to the enforced econlicense. Non-residents may, on leav- omy. Some become bitter, and blame ing the province, take the lawful the social order, the government and catch of two days' fishing is shipping everything but their own lack of fore coupon supplied with angling license sight in not providing for the rains

dosting device or through the see in their old schedule, until the bills come the Counties of Victoria, Peterboro, in, and the bank account is exhaust-Durham and Northumberland, and the ed and necessity compels them to call waters of the river Trent and Lake a hait, and there are those who are Scugog in any county during the close tually get a good deal of fun out of

SMILE CONTAGIOUS Smile even if it hurts you. The reor does the doctor doing the doctoring face. Frown at it, and the world will some day and find himself famous

TO A BEAUTIFUL CLOUD

Beautiful cloud! I would I were w In thy calm way o'er land and sea;

And the long ways

Ay-I would sail upon thy air-borne

A GREAT many Ontario men who citizenship papers with the result that they were recently told to "get out matter how hig and important the things about yourself. You feel that you do is "not much," and that you are given little credit. And at the

Until November it will be accepted Canadian automobile manufacturers on the basis of 70 cents per bushel. kets through treaties with these Do- in the way of relief and advances for minions. The Irish Pree State is ex- seed grain, etc. Details are not givpected to materially increase its pur- en in full, but with the exception of binder twine the farmer can pay his From all parts of Canada the com- obligations to the government with ments of Canadian statesmen, manu- his whest. Relief, as we have come to facturers and agriculturists express understand the word, is something high hopes and gratification at the which is not repaid by the person who understandings arrived at by the son- receives it. If it has to be paid back ference. Prospects of increased trade it is not relief in this sense; it is a with the United Kingdom are receiv- loan. The Sentatchewan idea is sensible. The farmers cannot pay their debts in the form of taxes and loans in cash because they have no onah. Wheat to them is the one medium of exchange, and it is reasonable one for breaking it. Killowiedge to accept it an advance of that paid

> June and for the first six months of this year, reported by the Ontario increase in fires, but a decrease in losses not covered by insurance, > comparison with 1931. There was an increase of 67 in fires reported for June, and for the period. January to June, an increase of 688. Losses not covered by insurance in June 1931, were $93,163, as compared with $01,200 not insurance covered for June 1932. From January to June the losses not taken care of by insurance in 1931 amounted to $1.573,- > were burned, 6.540 dwellings, 645 stores and 162 factories. These figand 38 in factories, and an increase last year of the same period. The largest fire in the month of June was the burning of the Letherby lumber at $225,000.

been seriously reduced, salaried people, business people, farmers and wage carners; many are quite up against it 10. To take any small or large with no income at all, and have to live speckled trout, brown trout, rainbow ing the days of prosperity money trout or other Pacific trout, accept by came easily, and we became careless in our spending and extrawagant in is attached to package containing such day. Some are unable to readjust their spending to their reduced in-12. To fish from a boat or other come, and are trying to carry on on consider and weigh values plan what is necessary and what can be done without, and find that after all a owered income need not effect the lasting fundamentals of a happy home season for the taking of bass and budgeting their reduced income. They "When a doctor doctors a doctor, suits may be a surprise. This world does he doctor the doctor the way the is only a looking glass, giving back doctored doctor wants to be dectored, to every man the reflection of his own . Every man expects to wake in