IF. BUT AND WHEN

It is a bungler that leads you astray When something comes up to be done right away. When teacher has set you a task that he stiff. Sometimes you get round it by find-

But is as bad as a stone in your shoe, Which makes you go lame when you need to get through. It's a difficult thing to get out of a rut When you're loaded and hampered and bothered with BUT.

When is the worst of the three: the mean speak Says, "Do it to-morrow, next day, next week." Great schemes have been ruined again and again By sand in the gear from that little word WHEN your mind. To begin with just leave those poor, creatures behind; Por the world will be his who in boyhood learns how To establish an intimate friendship with NOW.

If you want to earve out a career to

-Gamaliel Bradford.

READING HORSES TEET'S You think you, know. The is firm, his eyes bright. He looks well, and proves it on the road. After you have examined his teeth, you feel more convinced than ever that you have judged his age commetty But say. Have you read his teeth right? To begin with his milk teeth are present still he is between four and five years old. Then the mark or dark central depression on the surface of the incisors becomes gradually worn out. In a horse over eight years old, the markings have nearly always disappeared from the teeth of the lower law. Then the shape of the tooth alters as the animal grows older. At first the surface of the tooth is much wider from side to side than it is from back to front. In the older animal. the surface becomes progressively narrower from side to side and, instead of remaining always oblong, it

In judging the age of a horse then, observe which of the milk teeth are present, and which have been replaced by permanent ones. Of the two, the former are smaller, whiter, and posses a distinct neck. Until a colf is over two years, his are all milk teeth, but his age is estimated by the amount of wear as shown on the

The first permanent - teeth make their appearance the the second and third year. They push out the middle two teeth in both upper and lower and flavoring and fold in stiffly beatjaw. When these central permanent incisors are in full wear, the borse's baking dish. Bake in a moderate age is three years.

The second pair of permanent Six portions. teeth appear in the following summer. When they are fully grown and in wear, your favorite is then four years old. Between four and five years the last pair make their appearance and the horse pomesses a full mouth. Up to this stage, marres and horses are alike. In or near the fifth year, however the canines or tustes an-pear in the male sex enty. After a full mouth is obtained, the correct judging of a horse's age by his teeth becomes so intricate that it s popularly supposed to be impossible. specially after the eighth year. This is incorrect. To the expert it s not difficult to tell the age of any borse up to the fifteenth year, and with a fair degree of accuracy. After that it is possible to approximate it within a couple of years.

By Betty Barclay Seasonal adjustments-in the family bill of fere are now in order. Brish fall days call for hot or heavier desserts. Here are two very economical ones that are as delicious as they are new, and they are made according to the very last word in the new school becomes triangular, and even flattenof cracker cookery:

AUTUMNAL DESERTS

Nut Brown Puff

1 cup crumbled graham crackers 4 cup sugar teaspoon salt 3 cups scalded milk 4 egg yolks, besten % cup nut meats chopped

& teaspoon almond flavoring 4 teaspoon vanilla 4 egg whites Mix crumbled crackers, sugar, sal and cover with scalded milk. Stir into beaten egg yolks. Add nut meats en egg whites. Pour into buttered oven (350 degrees P.) 35-40 minutes

Cramberry and Apple Pie 1% cups crumbled soda crackers 1-3 cup butter 1 out shear

1% cups cranberries 1% cups diced cooking apples 4 cup water Crumble crackers fine and mix with butter and one tabelspoon sugar. Press mixture in an even layer against sides and bottom of buttered ple Cook cramberries and apples. and sugar together until tender. Cool and pour into cracker-lined plate. Bake in a hot oven (425 dgrees P.) 12-15 minutes. Right-inch pie,

> Orange Bread 4 cups flour 2 teaspoors baking powder 1 teaspoon salt % cup butter cup sigar

2 cggs Orange peel, candied 2 to 3 cups milk Sift flour, baking powder and sal together: add sugar and (creamed together), eggs, well beaten and orange peel, using between 2 and 3 cups of milk to form soft batter. placing in oven spread one teaspooncrust glossy finish.

> Candled Orange Peci (For above recipe) 3 oranges

4 cup sugar 1 cup water Soak akins of oranges overnight to soften. Remove and dice; mix with sugar and water and boil (low-heat)

OYSTERS ARE IN SEASON September contains that magic etter "R." so once again the orster makes his friendly bow. Most women can make a good oyster stew, but here are two oyster dishes that may be new to you:

Baked Oysters

Wash the oyster shells thoroughly by scrubbing with a brush. Prace with the deep shell down in a baking par in a very hot oven bake until the shells open, remove the upper shells, add a little butter, salt and pepper to each oyster, and serve in the un-

> Panned Oysters l pint large oysters 6 slices buttered toast

-K cup oyster juice Lay the oysters in a shallow dripp ing pan and pour over them a small quantity of oyster julce, but not sufficient to raise or float them. Place the dish carefully in a hot oven, and just heat the cysters through, being careful not to bake them. Moisten hot buttered toest with the hot juice from the oysters and serve the oysters on

THE GENTLE REINDERR

I was afraid, from what I knew the habits of sheep, cattle, and horses, that a sight of strangers would stampede the herd when we met. But of either winter or summer. On they came, while we gased eagerly at the novel sight—a thicket of antiers, big and little, old and young, led by the sloping bank where we were waiting, to good pastures, but that farmers are of religious expression. Even the desnearer, nearer, until we could see finding it necessary to out down on sentants of the Puritan churches retheir eyes, their smooth, round limbs, the number on hand owing to the the velvet on their horns, until within Hight hay crop and also due to the five or six yards of us, the drivers fact that they have been unable to in front looking at them as they came save their harvest. saying scarce a word, and the owner in front looking at them as they came up without making any call or movement to attract them. After giving us the benefit of their magnificent gres and sweet breath they began to feed off, back up the valley. Thereupon the boys, who had been lottering on the streamside to - catch a foreign applies provided for by the programmes for the Sunday services. salmon trout or two, went round them Ottawa Conference agreements, aand drove them back to us. Then the deer stopped feeding and began to chew the cud and to lie down, with eyes partly closed and dreamy-looking, as if profoundly comfortable, we benefit of the tariff will be feit until the full that it is doubtful whether the full that i strangers causing them not the slight- the season is well advanced, probably member of that committee, or in est alarm though standing nearly within touching distance, of them. Cows in a bernard, milked and petted every day, are not so gentle. Yet these beautiful animals are allowed to feed at will, without herding rushed over before the new tariff to any extent. The minister is not element to the committee, or in something like control over it. Probably there are few observing persons of good taste who have not winced ing shipped to England and also large or of inappropriate music from the choir seats. to any extent. They seem as smooth could come into effect. Theerfore the and clean and glossy as if they were general supply of apples from now wild. Taming does not seem to have until December will greatly exceed the injured them in any way. I saw no demand and it will be difficult to They are not so large as I had been led to suppose, nor so rough and bony and angular. The largest would not much exceed three or four hundred pounds in weight. They are, at ed after the New Year and Mr. Pulthis time of year, smooth, trim, de- ton advises growers to hold back a licately molded animals, very fat, and good percentage of the best-keeping apparently short-winded, for they varieties until that time, and meanwere breathing hard when they came while to expire only well-descured, up, like onen that had been working attractive varieties, as only outstandon a hot day. The horns of the ing quality can compete against the are qualities of quite as much momlargest males are about four feet cheep fruit that is on the market, and long, rising with a backward curve, make satisfactory returns to the

News and Information For the Busy Farmer

Britain Bays Bariey Receipts of Canadian barley on the British market for the past five or six weeks are as follows: 1500 tons for the week of August 16; 1249 tons for September 2; 1337 next year's Harmsworth Trophy races than usual, that is. tons for September 16; 1069 tons for for the competitive speedboat cham-September 23; and 396 tons for the pionship of the world. week September 30.

Horseshee Pitching competitions to decide the champroninion Horseshoe Pitchers' Association Canadian engine. will govern the contests.

Seed Industry The seed growing industry in Canada has been gradually developed and improved during the period of the past thirty years. It now embraces the production and improvement of approved varieties of eals of pedigreed stock, the produc--tion of forage crop seeds, and the production of field root, garden vegetable, and flower seeds. It is estimated that in 1931, 3.710 farms were producing seed crops subject to federal inspection, and that around 12,000 persons were engaged in the produc-

Honey Prices Going Up Honey producers throughout the Province are considerably gratified September alone, the domestic price ger at the same time in defence of has risen from a cent to a cent and the trophy. ler producers are preparing to take out of the running. advantage of an improved domestic market, which now freed of the pressure of large individual lots of honey.

sold under the industry's own brand tity is retained through to the consumer and every advantage taken of the powerful "buy British" sentiment in Great Britain.

has lost most ot its former bearish-

Ontario Rutabagas Shipped The Ontario Marketing Board reports that 2,000 bushels of Ontario rutabagas are being shipped by water tario rutabagas have been shipped to New York by water.

Mixing Infected Potatoes

Increases Marketing Cost Cassin, Ontario Marketing ness of jaron rather than the ring Board says that, if the portion of of maric. the potato crop infected blight rot is mixed with the remaining good potatoes, the entire lot will Bellgia, Verna and Lugano illustrate become affected. This, of course, calls the Italian faculty for bestowing for a needless picking over of pota- names that have cadence and charm. concile itself with the policy of cutting down marketing costs.

Definite Expert Market If Quality According to Garnet Duncan, Ontario Marketing Board, only two car loads of calves have been exported to Buffalo during the past month. Mr. Duncan states that there is a definite market for a much larger number providing the quality is right. Little more than 10% of caives being offered, however, meet.export requirements. Mr. Duncan said that fully 50% o the anmals offered, while being suitable type lacked proper finish.

Weekly Crop Report Harvesting of mangels and turning is well advanced, with excellent yields liar, tame animals man has gathered of both being reported from many about him, the reindeer is the tamest. parts of Western and Bastern Ontario. It not an Italian who declared that ticated, since they are not shut in found in the potato crop, particularly guage was an English word—and that around the huts, or put under shelter in districts where systematic spraying strongest, holding their heads low County comes a report that owing most of the time, as if conscious of to restrictions recently imposed by the fact that they were carrying very New York State, requiring cattle to big, branching home. A straggler be from Bang's accredited herds, the fell behind now and then to cull a export business in dairy cows has been choice mouthful of willow, or dainty, practically killed. Algoma district gray lichen, then made haste to join reports a good yield of potatoes, from 100 to 150 begs per acre. From Tem-They waded across the creek and isksming comes word that all livecame straight toward us, up the stock are in splendid condition owing British Apple Market Reporting on prospects for Ontario apples in the British market, Mr. Andrew Pulton, growers' overseas representative, states that there is no tistic freedom and latitude than he doubt that the new tariff against could have in making up the musical realize satisfactory prices at the preand then forward and dividing into growers.

Mr. Fulton reports a ready market . A sad looking specimen of the genus three or four points, and with a number of short palmaned branches putting forward and downward from the base over the animal's forchead. Those of the female are very slender and elegant in curve, more so than any horns I have seen. This species of deer is said to be the only one in which the female has horns. The fawns also have horns already, six inches, to a foot long, with a few blunt, mothly branches beginning to sprout.—John Muir, in "The Cruise of the shorts of Origin must be sent the answer, "I can fry them of the genus "hoto" applied at a house for a hand-out. The door was opened by the man of the house himself who happered to be superintendent of a large factory. Being short of help at the moment, he said to the tramp:

"Are you looking specimen of the genus "hoto" applied at a house for a hand-out. The door was opened by the man of the house himself who happened to be superintendent of a large factory. Being short of help at the moment, he said to the tramp:

"Are you looking specimen of the genus "hoto" applied at a house for a hand-out. The door was opened by the man of the house himself who happened to be superintendent of a large factory. Being short of help at the moment, he said to the tramp:

"Are you looking specimen of the genus "hoto" applied at a house for a hand-out. The door was opened by the man of the house himself who happened to be superintendent of a large factory. Being short of help at the moment, he said to the tramp:

"Are you looking for a job?"

"What kind of a job?" "What kind of

CANADIANS TO SEEK . HARMSWORTH CUP

Syndicate of Orillia Sportsmen Formed to Enter Boot in 1933

nounces that Bert Hawker. Graven- arefled air north of the fifty-eighth hurst designer, has completed draw- parallel and elicit scorn instead of ings for a Miss Canada I, which he laughter. One of the Centures of the Royal will pilot himself in an attempt to > tempts by the syndicate to buy Kaye lightsome recreation. Don's boat, Miss England III., after The reason for this Sparton indif-efforts for many years. come through an established tion and marketing of the improved erica.

ago.T

The challenging or defending country may have three boats in the race absence. if desired. The winner has to capture two heats to get the trophy. There have been rumors of a possible challenge from Italy next year. away. with the recept steady rise in price If both Canada and Italy challenge it for their product. As a result of will be the first time Gar Wood, Unit- A FRIEND IN NEED heavy exportations totalling over one ed States defender has been in comquarter of a million pounds in petition with more than one challen-a half, and most producers are now The Harmsworth crophy has been in refusing to sell for less than six and the United States since 1920. Wood deed." half cents per pound net. With re- having won it at Cowes, England, that ports of further heavy export ship- year. Since then every attempt by a ments going forward in October, large foreign challenger to lift it has met beckeepers are watching the situation with failure, mainly because of miswith keen interest. Meanwhile smal- fortune that put the challenging boat

MAGIC IN-NAMES

Is there any young person who has not from his reading derived a sense of the magic of the East? And if the motorist at a 60-mile clip. After the reason for his impressions were an- usual "Where's the fire?" the conalyzed, would not the mere sound of stable produced a red letter note book names be found in large part account and copied down the license number able? Spicy odors, tropical jungles, of the car, the driver's name, the adstrange beasts and reptiles and dress and other particulars. peoples, all play their part; but it is "A summons will be along in a day such words as Samarkand and Ind. or two," the officer told the motorist Pokhara and Bombay, Ceylon, Ganges as the car got under way. Kashmir and Himalaya, ringing poetically in the youthful ear, that fill the turned to his companion youthful mind with impulses of vague adventure. India more than any other Par Eastern land stirs the imagination—and is it not because it is so besprinkled and bejewelled with magiately. This, it might be stated is cal names, rather than because it has joined the passenger. He produced tigers and cobras and elephants in a familiar, red leather not book. The its forests? China does not have the motorist recognised it as that in which that a woman isn't an "ordinary perfascination for youth that India has the constable had inscribed certain -perhaps because there is less romance in the singsong Chinese syllables. Hongkong, Yangtse, Shanghai, Hoangho have somehow the uncouth-

> The Italians and the Spaniards have happy gift for names. Cadenabbia. The best legacy that Spanish explorers and settlers left the New World is the names that still abide: Orinoco. Colorado, Vera Cruz and Monterey, to take a group almost at random, have a sonorous majesty that is not to be ound in any purely English names. In fact, English names, whether of persons or of places, are rather deficient in the quality of charm. The English language has beauty, but English people have sought the quality of homeliness rather than that of magic in their names. In the Arthurian legends the names of Lancelot and Guinevere have the same sort of romantic charm as some of the names that are common among Italians and Spaniards; but it is the exceptional Englishman or American that would wish to name his son Launcelot or his daughter Guinevere. Some of our most engaging words are used to designate commonplace objects. Was the most beautiful word in any lan-

CHURCH MUSIC

No church-going person whose memory compasses a period of twentyfive years cannot have failed to notice the change which has taken place in

The change is still going on. More and more the organ and the choir as agreeable and edifying accessories. cognize the fact, and most of them now have their organists, choirleaders and music committees. The new order of things is not without its possibilities of friction and disappointment. A few weeks ago one of the best-known organists and composition because he desired more ar-There are many who will sympathise judge of what is proper and what is improper in church music. Nevertheless, he usually exercises some restraint. There is consequently an advantage in co-operation between the minister and those who furnish the music. It is creditable to the good sense of both parties that such cooperation usually exists. If only it is recognized that neither musical excellence or literary beauty is alone to be considered, but that appropriate

MOVIES, MAIDS AND MEN

Northwest men. still are - men. but movies are no magnet. The strong, silent men woh push the outposts of civilization into the iron law of the ment a syndicate of Orillia sportsmen polar belt spurn the silent screen and has been formed to enter a boat in the talkies leave them cold-colder Pictures that tickle the risibility ianguid audiences in crowded yet un-Mr. E. Webb, Orillia contractor, an- sophisticated urban centres pate in the

At least, that is the report from Winter Pair again this year will be win for British Empire the trophy Churchill, Manitoba, most northerly the horseshoe pitching championships which Gar Wood, Detroit ace designer port in Canada, where, instead of a for all Canada. In addition the final and driver, has held for many years. joyful S.R.O. sign in its lobby, the sole Hawker, who drove a sensational theatre in the place has gone dark. ship for the county and rural fairs in but losing race in Miss Betty Car- and the only sign reads "For Rent." 'Ontario will be held at the Royal, stairs' entry a few years ago, will. Half a therard men working on conopen only to winners at agricultural superintend building of Miss Canada, struction jobs and living in frontier fairs in 1932. The Ontario Athletic Webb said. The boat will be built of Camp have sternly resisted the lure of Commission is again sponsoring these Canadian material by Canadian work- stellar personalities. feminine and competitions and the rules of the Dom men and will be powered with a masculine, preferring, presumably, to spend their evenings with Gibbon's Webb said the Orillia attempt to "Decline and Pall of the Roman Emtake the prized trophy with its own pire" or Ruskin's 'Seven Lamps of boat was a sequel to unsuccessful at- Architecture," and similar forms of her unsuccessful race a few weeks ference to mere amusement affords a piduant study in sociology. It throws The Orhila syndicate, Webb said, neither slight nor slur on the films. will by to carry on the work of Lord It was not lack of uplift in the scenes Wakefield, who has sponsored British presented that wounded the sensibilities of these hardy handlers of axe A challenge for the trophy must and hammer. Nor was the rare and yacht subtle humor peculiar to the film lost club in the country where the bid ori- upon them. Rather was it the absence ginates and it must be filed before in Churchill of the chief, nay altruis-March 1 in the year of the race, with the motive for going to the theatre. the Yachtmen's Association of Am- In that frontier settlement the fair sex, with the exception of a few wives of officials is conspicuous by its "What's the gode going to a show if you can't take your girl?" demanded the men and resolutely stayed

IS FRIEND INDEED

This story illustrates the old adage of "One good turn deserves another. or "A friend in need, is a friend in-We do not wouch for the truth of the tale. A motorist was travelling alone from Toronto to Montreal during the past week. At the eastern outskirts of Kingston he was hailed by a hitchhiker. "The "Thumber" appeared respeciable and the motorist, welcoming company for the balance of his trip. pulled to a stop and took on a pas-

Schnewhere east of Brockville, highway traffic officer overtook the least $25," he mouned, "Dash these "It won't cost you anything unless that officer has a go d memory," repainful détails.

"Oh, I just took it out of the cop's pocket when he was talking to you. the mysterious passenger declared "You see, I'm a pickpocket. I just got out of the pen this morning." The motorist's relief changed consternation. Dusk was failing when will be offered for sale by public auche reached Cornwall, and he decided tion at the premises on to spend the night here rather than of risk an 80 mile night trip to Mon- Friday the 28th day October treal with such an efficient member of the light-fingered gentry. The story reached us by devious means. Believe it or not. Cornwall

Standard-Precholder.

THE LAUGH CORNER

Visitor-"I hear you've lost you parrot that used to swear so terribly. Hostess-"Yes, poor dear, we found him dead on the golf links.",

Heard at the Navy Crew Race Biddy-"I suppose you've been the navy so long that you are ac-Middy-"Lady I wasn't Dector (inquiring after boy boy to-day?" Anxious Mother-"No change yet." Have you heard the one about the ellow with a lisp trying to tell a gir that he liked her size? Personal-"A young wcman. whom black is particularly becoming would like to meet a gentleman in poor heatlh; object, widowhood." Still- Booming-Our financial viser, who has made an exhaustive study of the subject, informs us that there is no truth in the rumor of an impending ten per cent. reduction in the wages of sin.

Agent-"Well what do you think of our little city?" Prospect-"I'll tell you, brother. This is the first cemetery I ever saw

Piain Logic-A Scotsman, upon entering a saddler's, asked for a single ly described, being twenty feet 'h "What use is one spur?" asked the boundary of said parcel firstly was introduced as follows: "You have have a frontage on Mill Street been giving your attention so far to a 75 feet by a depth of 70 feet, and the turkey stuffed with sage. You are now upstairs dwelling is said to consist of about to give your attention to a sage seven rooms. stuffed with turkey."

Professor—"Will you please stop Student-They're not notes. They of sale. are dollar bills. We're shootin' craps." Professor-"Oh, pardon me."

ary person retains only one-fifth of what he hears. Which goes to prove Mortgage Sale contained in a certain mortgage which to will be produced at time of saie, there at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon, the following valuable freehold property. ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the Village of Georgetown in the County of Halton and Province of Ontario and being composed of parts of Village lots numbers Porty-seven and Forty-eight in Young and Barber's survey of that part of said Village, and which may be more particularly described as follows: FIRSTLY, commencing at the westerly angle of Village lot Forty-eight aforesaid thence north casterly along Mill Street one hundred and twelve feet to a point thence south easterly parallel to Market, Street one hundred and fifteen feet to a point, thence southwesterly parallel to Mill Street wallowed a half dollar): "How is the one hundred and twelve feet more or less to the northerly limit of Market Street, thence northwesterly along the northerly limit of Market Street, one hundred and fifteen feet more or less to the place of beginning. EX-CEPTING thereout and therefrom that portion of said lot forty-seven and forty-eight heretofore conveyed by the Grantor to George Albert Henry by deed dated the Righteenth day of December, 1915, and registered the Registry Office for the County of Halton on the Eighth day of May. 1916, as number 4101: 80000ND&#: Commencing at the northersy angle of said Village lot forty-eight thence southwesterly along Mill Street twenty feet thence southeasterly parallel with Market Street sixty-five feet thence northeasterly parallel Mill Street twenty feet thence northwesterly sixty-five feet to the place of commencement together with the full right and liberty of passing and repassing on foot or with horses of other animals, wagons or other vehicles through, along and over that width and along the southeastern

On the said land there is said to be erected a two-storey building of stone and brick occupied as a garage, show room and office and overhead At a dinner a well known professor dwelling. The building is said to

TERMS-10% down at time of sale and belance within 30 days with interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum. The said property to be sold

For further particulars apply to w dersigned solicitor. T. P. CHISHOLM.

DATED at Militon, September

Commercial Printing

All, kinds of Commercial Printing turned out Promptly and Efficiently at the Office of the

Georgetown Herald

Your Home Printer and Publisher

is prepared to fill any of your Printing Requirements, and is a local industry deserving your patronage.

Georgetown Herald

GEORGETOWN

ONTARIO

"I'll see if Ella

help us out."

tion calls begin

7.00 p.m. Still

HIS ALLOWED 1 50 FOR OUR OLD O

8.30 p.m.

can come

The very day visitors were coming, Bob Emery's wife caught a bad chill. She tried to keep going, but it was obvious that

"Now don't worry," Bob said,

"Ella's only 30 miles away. I'll just get her on the telephone and see if she can't come and

A few minutes later they had

Ella's cheery promise. Once more, in an emergency, Long Distance had proved quick, dependable - and surprisingly in-

NEW Coleman

... that's the big value

you are offered for a limited time. Your old

THIS OLD LAMP W

she would have to go to bed.

NEW, VALUES . . . You can get a Coleman for as little as $7.50 and your old lamp.

SEE YOUR LOCAL DEALER ... Ask him to demonstrate Coleman Lamps and Lanterns. If he is not supplied, write us.

THE COLEMAN LAMP AND STOVE CO., LM. TORONTO, 8, ONTARIO