LOCAL NEWS

Saturday the 21st March is the day of Spring. "Will of the Wisp" at the Grand Theatre to-morrow night. We don't believe St. Patrick had anything to do with arranging the wisp yesterday.

The Local Council of Women will meet on Friday, March 20th at 3 pm. in the Public Library. The Ladies Club will hold their Annual Charter Night, dinner in the Army on Friday, April 24th.

Some people are born great, while others roll up their trousers and wade right into the middle of it. The heavy snow storm on Monday night and Tuesday blocked the roads badly in some sections. Trading with the merchants advertising in these columns, you are buying nothing but quality goods.

The W.A. of St. George's will hold a sale of books on Saturday, April 11th at 2 pm. in St. Thomas's Church. The sale will include books on various subjects.

Mr. Ward Huddell has purchased the site at the rear of the United Church and is moving it to the farm in the township, where he has already implemented a plan for the site.

Mr. R. R. Speight is remodeling the front of his garage on Guelph Street this spring. He is also making other alterations and improvements to the garage.

All users of Hydro in Georgetown and Glen Williams in arrears must settle their accounts by April 1st or service will be discontinued. These instructions have been received from the Ontario Hydro Commission and will be printed in the next issue of the paper.

The estate and effects of the late Catherine Campbell, consisting of property and household effects, will be sold by public auction on the premises of Glen Williams, on Saturday, March 21st at 2 pm. For particulars, apply to Mr. Frank Petch, Auctioneer.

Mr. James McKinney has rented his blacksmith and wood-working shop in Norval to Mr. Harry Walk who will continue the business, giving customers at reasonable prices. He solicits a share of your patronage.
