They Come Back For Bray Chicks Year After Year

When a man buys 300 Bray Chicks— And takes 204 out of the chick house— And raises 201— One more than he paid for— And the 201 call him 'right down to the ground'— What happens? Well, naturally, he writes (as did this customer at Haman, Ont.): 'I was certainly well pleased, so will you send me this year's list. I hope to have the same good luck this Spring. And, ordering 1,500 chicks again, he can very properly expect the same 'good luck' after all, it isn't good luck, it's good management. Bray Chicks are bred and hatched to behave that way. There's no reason why they shouldn't do it for YOU, too. Order yours today, and see if they don't!'

The young man decides to marry. He gives his bride a fur coat as a wedding present. The trapper who caught the mink had a trapper's license, and the dealer who sold the fur coat has a fur dealer's license and the retailer who sold the coat has a retail license.

POST OFFICE NEWS

Post office pen pals have long been a joke, particularly as to their poor quality, but the British post office appears to have solved the problem both as to durability, and unsatisfactory. A new nib first tried out in 1929, has been found most successful, and the government has just ordered 1,500,000 of them for the offices throughout the United Kingdom.

RAIN GAMBLING AT FARM FAIRES

J. A. Carroll, Ontario Superintendent of Agricultural Societies, addressed a representative meeting of fall fair associations from various parts of the Counties of Durham, Peterborough and Victoria and stated that he wishes to get the matter of fair gambling through the district to the Government's proposal to abolish all gambling at fairs.

HELP TO MAKE CANADA MORE BEAUTIFUL

The untoward things and unattractive places in Canada that displease the eye are made by man. If man sets out to undo some of the damage that has been done, there are numerous paths for all to tread who care to make them. An outstanding amount of worry can be expended under some of these paths in a single afternoon. Since Adam tilled the first garden many paths have come to claim their thousands but in the garden of the picture while gardening has stood through the centuries. There must be something in it. If you have flower seeds, plant some flowers or shrubs this spring. Help to make Canada more beautiful.

The Publican's Prayer, 18. When the publican prayed he did not do so to God. He prayed to his head toward Heaven. Standing afar off in the temple court he prayed for release through confession, a sense of forgiveness, a lessening of his burden of guilt. In respectability of character exceeded the publican; the difference was that the Pharisee believed chiefly in himself, while the publican believed in God enough to look for forgiveness. That is the kind of faith that delighted the heart of Jesus. Prayers free from ritualistic phrases are really the prayers of men. Many people say that they cannot pray in public, but all the while they are secretly cursing and seeking a cure.

Kagawa's Prayers Toyohiro Kagawa, the Japanese mystic and practical economist, is stressing the need of education in prayer. He says that in this busy Western world that Christ spent forty days and forty nights in prayer, has often found it necessary to pray than to sleep. 'To calm one's spirit and meditate before God is no easy job; it is the best way to unite with God's absolute, serene and universal law. There are great resources of power in meditation. Kagawa finds strength "keeping stillness in the hand of God." For him prayer is not a willing thing but a period of action for growth in morality. In youth Kagawa stresses action, but as he found power to grow in meditation, he turned to prayer. He says that he has found prayer for an hour and a half, and he describes his experience thus: "I felt myself surrendering absolutely to God, and I felt the miracle of the universe." So he makes the habit of sitting quietly, feeling out the power of God and then he wants to pray. To him prayer is concerned with God's plan. It is feeling out God's intention. 1. Is prayer bending God's will or bending our wills with His? 2. What is faith? 3. Why is self-congratulation unfitting in prayer? 4. What was it that Jesus commented on when he said, "I believe, but I do not believe." 5. How are our prayers answered? Catty Quest.—"My dear me, but I noticed at the dinner table that your husband's lips were quite loudly when he ate. Believe me, that is one thing my husband does not do." Calli Hooters.—"No, I suppose not. You heard your cooking."

LIVE STOCK RAISING

JOHN SR.: "Well, son, I'm glad you are doing so well with the outfit. You are going through my old experiences of hard but satisfactory work. We are happy now to rest." JOHN JR.: "You deserve to rest after all your years of hard work and I realize I owe all this opportunity to you and mother. I have often heard you say how successful the was with the poultry and dairying end of the business." JOHN SR.: "Thank you, son, but we don't deserve all the credit. In 1900 when we had only a homestead and preemption, with shack and barn, and had to haul water five miles and drive 20 miles to market, the Bank of Montreal made me the seasonal loans I needed to carry on. In five years we had clear title to the 320 acres and three years later owned 640, with good buildings and equipment. The bank kept on lending for harvesting and feeding, because I carried out my contracts and kept my credit good. You remember, son, we sold out in 1919 for cash, and were able to retire. You were lucky to rent the old place, for it's a good one." JOHN JR.: "I was lucky, father, and I am trying to live up to your reputation." JOHN SR.: "Some of the Bank's services to farmers and ranchers: Business checking accounts; savings accounts; safekeeping of securities and documents; loans for feeding, harvesting, equipment, feeding, purchasing feeders, etc.; money orders; financing shipments; advice on credits; banking by mail.
