OBITUARY

WILLIAM REID MULLIN

A highly respected and life-long resident of this district, William R. Mullin, passed away at his home on Arthur Street, Acton early Monday morning, in his eight-third year. Mr. Mullin had been in gradually failing health for some time and has been confined to his bed for many weeks.

William Reid Mullin was born at Glen Williams, a son of the late Thomas Mullin. Fifty-five years ago he was joined in holy wedlock to Martha Florence Scott, who predeceased him five years ago this June. Shortly after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Mullin settled on a farm on the first line, Esquesing, where they resided until their retirement to Acton, about twelve years ago. A family of four children remain to revere the memory of this beloved parent. They are: Bert and Mrs. Connell, at home; ex-Deputy Reeve Lorne L., of Esquesing; and Mrs. N. McEachern, of Waterloo. The eldest son, Wm. predeceased his parents several years ago. One brother, Thomas, of Glen Williams; and one sister, Mrs. James McGarr, of Windermere, Dakota also remain.

WILLIAM C. IRVIN

After an extended illness, William Charles Irvin, President of The Irvin Lumber Company, Ltd., passed away on Friday, May 22nd, at his late residence, 196 High Park Ave., Toronto, in his seventy-seventh year.

Mr. Irvin was born in Oxford county on January 3rd, 1860. His father was John Irvin, who was born at Mount Charles in Peel County, the son of an early pioneer settler, Charles Irvin, who had come from England. His mother was Emily Sly, who as a girl of ten years of age had come from England and lived on an adjoining farm at Mount Charles.

In 1867, the year of Confederation, Mr. Irvin's father moved from Oxford County to Halton County, where he started a lumber and shingle mill at Hornby. While yet a boy, Mr. Irvin helped his father in the operation of the shingle mill. As he grew older he enlarged his experience to cover in turn every phase of sawmill operation, which experience was to stand him in good stead in latter years. As a young man, he finally entered into partnership with his father and brother, the late John H. Irvin, who predeceased him two years ago.

In 1887 he married Mary A. Brownridge, daughter of Joseph Brownridge, who occupied an adjacent farm on the 7th line of Esquesing township, which had been homesteaded by his father, Thomas Brownridge, in 1819, and which is today occupied by a great-grandson, Thomas J. Brownridge.

In 1894 Mr. Irvin and his young wife moved to Pontypool where he started a lumber and shingle mill. From Pontypool he moved to Dundalk, in 1895, where he carried on similar lumbering activities in association with his father who operated a retail lumber business in Brampton.

After several years his attention was directed to the rapidly growing young town of Toronto Junction as a likely looking place for a retail lumber business, and in 1902 Mr. Irvin moved, with his wife and family of seven children to Toronto Junction where in association with the late R. L. McCormack and the late R. E. Gibson, he founded the Toronto Junction Lumber Co. Ltd. As manager of this business, to intimately a part of the construction industry, he witnessed at close hand the growth and expansion of this young community from an isolated but thriving little railroad town into one of the great wards of the City of Toronto.

Following the death of his Associates, the business was taken over wholly by Mr. Irvin and his sons, Charles and John C., and since 1918 has been operated under the name of The Irvin Lumber Co. Ltd. Seldom absent from his place at the helm he was actively engaged in its management and direction until illness overtook him six months ago. Always interested in the conduct of his own and other related businesses on a sound business basis, he lent his support to numerous organizations and projects for the furtherance of better business practices. He was a Charter Member and Past President of the Lumbermen's Credit Bureau of Toronto, and a Charter Member of the Ontario Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

Mr. Irvin was an enthusiastic lawn bowler and a life member of the West Toronto Lawn Bowling Club. Out of respect for his memory the club cancelled the usual holiday afternoon bowling tournament on Monday, an act which was deeply appreciated by his family.

The death of Mr. Irvin marks the first break in the family circle of which he was the head. He is survived by his wife, three sons and four daughters: Charles of Toronto, John C. of Weston, both associated with him in the business, Mrs. Malcolm MacMaster (Ethel), Mrs. E. L. Perry (Agnes), Miss Emily at home, Wilfred F. and Mrs. C. K. Westbrook (Isabel) all of Toronto, as well as six grandchildren and one great-grand child. Mr. Irvin is also survived by eight brothers and sisters, Mrs. A. McKechnie of Brampton, Mrs. Jas Reynolds of Sudbury, Frank of Saskatoon, Mrs. H. E. Drummond, Mrs. Ira, Miss Nancy, Christopher and Fred, all of Toronto.

The funeral took place on Monday, May 25th, at 3.30 p.m., from his late residence to Park Lawn Cemetery. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. H. W. Avison, pastor of High Park United Church, with which church Mr. and Mrs. Irvin have been connected for nearly thirty-five years. Associated with Rev. Dr. Avison was the Rev. Dr. W. H. Hincks, former pastor and friend of the deceased. The pallbearers were: Mr. H. J. Terry, Mr. E. J. Gill, Mr. J. W. Wanaborough, Dr. S. L. Frawley, Mr. S. S. Mellman, and Mr. Alex. McLean. The funeral was attended by a great number of relatives, friends and business associates, many of whom has known the deceased for upwards of thirty years. Floral tributes betokening the esteem in which the late Mr. Irvin was held were received in large numbers from a wide circle of friends in this City and from many distant points as widely separated as Montreal and Vancouver. In the passing of Mr. Irvin the business and community life of West Toronto has suffered the loss of an honored, familiar figure.

Sloan—Stringer

A quiet wedding took place at St. James' Anglican Church, Caledon East, when Rita Lavina, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Sloan, Cheltenham, was married to Mr. John Gordon Stringer, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stringer, Terra Cotta, by W. Pooley, officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming dress of pale blue satin faced crepe with white trimmings and carried a bouquet of pink roses. She was attended by her sister, Mabel Louise Sloan, wearing a dress of French blue crepe with hat to match. The groomsman was Mr. William Henry Stringer, brother of the groom. They went on a short honeymoon trip to Barrie and other Northern points, the bride travelling in a navy coat and dress and hat with other accessories to match. On their return, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. About 30 guests sat down to a sumptuous repast. They received many beautiful gifts. They will live on the groom's farm at Terra Cotta.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. W. B. Shortill wishes to convey his very sincere thanks to friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses and sympathy extended to him in his recent sad bereavement by the death of his beloved wife; also for the many beautiful floral tributes.

BOUGHT 1,000 RAISED 1,000 BRAY CHICKS

LEONARD SHOULDICE and his mother, Mrs. W. J. Shouldice, Shallow Lake, Ontario, went into partnership on the poultry end of the farm business this spring and ordered 1,000 Barred Rock Chicks.

Not only ordered 1,000—but RAISED 1,000. The 15 "extras" completely covered their losses. At 9 weeks, 38 of the biggest cockerels averaged 2½ lbs. At 10 weeks they sold 300 more cockerels — averaging 2½ lbs.

"We never had chicks live and grow like this before," says Mrs. Shouldice.

That's what a great many people have said after raising Bray Chicks. We believe it's what YOU'LL say too.

With high vitality, fast growing, early maturing stock of that kind, there is no reason why June chicks should not develop into profit makers. On the other hand, for June chicks to develop into profit makers you NEED high vitality, fast growing, early maturing chicks of that kind—the Bray kind.

Our special "end of season" prices are most attractive.
