POPPY FUND APPEAL

This past summer Canada remembered her war dead in an inspiring fashion the memorial itself, the epitome of the nation's past and the future, the participation of the King, the President of the French Republic, the Prime Minister, the Governor General, and the people of every Canadian must feel proud in this duty to wholly and beautifully clear their hearts of all that is dark and evil. The opportunity is given to render some measure of gratitude to those who have laid down their lives for our country and the world.
