Thousands of City Families Establish New Farm Homes

Montreal, Nov. 17th — More than 2,000 Canadian families, or approximately 10,000 people, have been established in farm homes so far this year through the efforts of the Colonization Department of the Canadian National Railways, in co-operation with the Federal and Provincial governments. The great majority of these people were city dwellers—many of them on relief—who obtained a new start in life by taking up farming in the various land settlement districts of the country.

Figures issued by Dr. W. J. Black, Director of the Railway's Colonization Department, show that some 1,500 families were settled adjacent to the lines of the National System without government assistance, while over 500 families were placed on the land in co-operation with the Federal and provincial governments, under the various relief settlement plans of the provinces. In addition, nearly 700 heads of families were assisted in selecting farms, and were moved to various settlement districts to prepare new homes for their families; while 1,700 single men were directed to points along the railway where settlement opportunities were available.

While the chief movement has been in the province of Quebec, settlement work has been carried on by the Railway's Colonization Department in practically all of the provinces in the Dominion. This work has been going on for four years, and during that time a very large number of Canadian families have been settled on farms of their own without government assistance, and many others have been placed on the land through the co-operation of the Canadian National and the Federal and provincial governments.

Detailed figures for the first nine months of 1936 follow:

Direct Settlement—Families settled adjacent to Canadian National lines, without Government assistance: 1,514 families.

Relief Settlement: Families settled under the Relief Settlement Agreements between the Federal and Provincial Governments, with the assistance of the C.N.R.: complete families 343 families; dependent families—(moving to join husbands previously settled): 174 families; heads of families proceeding in advance of their wives and children: 681; single men: 447.

Single Men: These men have been directed to points on C.N.R. lines where settlement opportunities are available. Proceeded without Government assistance: 1,739.

Many of the lines of the Canadian National System were constructed originally as colonization lines, and were intended to provide a means of developing Canada's vast natural resources. A number of these lines were constructed in advance of the development, and it is with a view to carrying out this development work, that the Colonization Department of the Railway directs its efforts. There are today very extensive areas of desirable farming land in territory served by the lines of the National System available for settlement. The settlement and development of these lands is, of course, of prime importance to the railway in the immediate future.

The work of the Colonization Department covers a very wide field of activities. In an interview here today, Dr. Black summarized it as follows:

"The examination or survey of vacant lands adjacent to the Company's lines. A record is kept of lands available for settlement, whether Crown lands or privately owned.

"Giving information and advice in all enquiries addressed to us dealing with land settlement in territory served by the Railway. For instance, during the nine months ending September 30th, 1936, 6,678 individuals, as prospective landseekers or farm workers, applied to our offices seeking information on lands for settlement and employment on land on our lines.

"The settlement of families on farms and advising them where necessary regarding the purchase of stock and equipment. Every effort is made to locate settlers on properties suitable to their financial requirements and the type of farming they desire to follow.

"Representatives of societies or groups of families are accompanied on inspection trips to locate tracts of land suitable for their requirements.

"Co-operation with the Dominion and Provincial Governments in the resettlement of unemployed families, under the Relief Settlement schemes. Our Department is represented on each Provincial Committee, assists in the selection of the settlers and their location on the land.

"Representatives of our department accompany all organized parties of settlers and their families to the new colonization areas on our lines.

"The care and success of after them have been established. The basis of our work must be successful settlement, otherwise our work is wasted.

"In carrying out our development programme, we believe that the pursuit of a progressive policy of land settlement reflects itself in rural stability and provides a direct and natural stimulant to our industrial life, as well as providing new and additional freight and passenger traffic for the Railway."

In addition to the land settlement of Canadians there has been a substantial movement of experienced farming families from the United States. Dr. Black added; and also a repatriation movement of former Canadian families from across the line.

W.C.T.U. MEETING

MRS. E. E. WATSON OF ESQUESING WAS THE GUEST SPEAKER

The regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union was held Nov. 13th at the home of Mrs. W. G. Marshall. Main St., Mrs. A. E. Vannatter, presiding.

The devotional study, conducted by Mrs. W. Deans, was a presentation of Dr. H. Emerson Fosdick's on the subject of prayer, based on Matt. VII.

Mrs. E. E. Watson of Freeman, who is Temperance secretary of the United Church W.M.S. Presbyterial, was introduced by the president, as guest speaker of the afternoon. In her address, Mrs. Watson very earnestly combined information and instruction thereon, endeavoring thus to further equip her hearers to meet the difficulties facing those who endeavor to bring about reform of present evil conditions. Speaking of the apparent indifference in so many quarters, to the lamentable results of liquor drinking, she urged all to accept the responsibility which belongs to each citizen, of facing this enemy in our midst, remarking us that "the town which worketh no ill to his neighbor" must be the mainspring of every effort. She urged a re-consideration of our life's activities lest we be allowing the good to become the enemy of the best in life.

Mrs. A. Reeve expressed the thanks of the gathering to Mrs. Watson and Miss Ruth Anderson whose two vocal selections added so much to the pleasure of the afternoon's programme.

The half-hour spent over the cup of tea, kindly served by our hostess, gave opportunity to the members to meet Mrs. Watson, whose kindliness in bringing us her message is so much appreciated.

The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Cripps.

Cameos.

"Eat your spinach, child! Don't you know it puts firm, white teeth in your mouth?"

"Then feed it to grandma."
