"I'm Your Watchman!"

"I'm a telephone, to be sure, and I'm an A-Number-One watchman at the same time.
I guard your home against emergencies—fire, sudden sickness, unwelcome prowlers—things that can happen in the heat of regulated families.
Let's hope they don't happen to you! But, in case they do, it's always wise to be prepared.
I'll work for very little, too, only a few cents a day."

THE INARTICULATE

Who who love you—and yet can make no sound.
We who are dumb when others fill the world.
What of our thoughts when thrilling notes resound.
What of our dreams when the great world is found.
That life is to be happy? Are we of little worth?

Who who love wonder and dream—and yet no note.
Who who are passionate, our hearts aching for love.
Clinging to God from the first to the last.
Weaving for ourselves, and Love's richest fruit.
Who who are simple, when the years are long.

When a wife dies a husband says: "I would be a better husband if I had it to do over again." But when a husband dies his wife says: "Well, I did my duty by him."
There's not so much difference after all between a "licker" and a "licker."

CANADIAN NATIONAL

FIFTY YEARS OF MILITARY BANDS

AND HANDMASTERS OF THE HALTON REGIMENT

By Lt.-Col. J. A. Ballantine, D.S.O.

There among the members of the band at the beginning of the decade, just referred to, is the day, when the "Bicycle Club" was in full swing with hundreds of fifty cent, bicycle members who rode out of town to meet other enthusiastic club members in a body in the direction of Georgetown. They went out in a body, but returned extended order, with wide caps, and Jimmie Jackson usually in the van.

When a wife dies a husband says: "I would be a better husband if I had it to do over again." But when a husband dies his wife says: "Well, I did my duty by him."
There's not so much difference after all between a "licker" and a "licker."

MUDDER is very 'cray' about an other 'goldfish', Harry, the Plashed, inferior one.
"And, besides," Mudder says, "I am going to marry very soon."
"We have heard that kind of a remark from Mudder plenty times before. In fact, when he is not changing his blood, we always call a doctor to find out if his chronic indisposition is worse. So when he declares that he is going to get married without a doubt, I do not believe him for no nobody else, because when he comes to marriage, Mudder is similar to the father who likes to stick his toes in the water but do not want to get wet.
"This yellow head promise would marry somebody, I am sure. I am going to get married without a doubt, I do not believe him for no nobody else, because when he comes to marriage, Mudder is similar to the father who likes to stick his toes in the water but do not want to get wet.
