THE BETTER WAY
God would not send you the darkness if He thought you could bear the light. But you would not cling to His hand. The way was always bright. And you would not care to walk in faith. Could you always walk by sight?

And the nature of ever-faith hearts... they reach your hand in your Father's. And you can see your way. Your soul may have been once blind. Where you're looking for. And well if your lips do quiver. God will love you better than you know.

THE STORY OF A DOG'S SENSE OF HUMOR
The story of a dog's sense of humor appeared in the Journal of the English B. P. C. A. An elderly lady rented a furnished villa for the summer, and with the villa went a dog. In the sitting-room there was a comfortable chair, for which the old lady always made the first thing each morning. But, alas! it was also the favorite seat of the dog. She invariably found it occupied. Being afraid of the dog she dared not sit on the chair, so she would go to the window and call out "Cats! Then the dog would run to the window and bark, and the old lady would slip into the vacant chair.
