PEEL FAIR BOARD IS REORGANIZED

New Executive Elected on Request of

At a special meeting in the Peel County building, Brampton, Saturday, members of the Pael County Agricultural Society launched's drive to enable them to retain the use of the Pair grounds, and continue the Pair which has been a yearly event at Brampton for the past three-quarters

In accordance with a request from Miss Jane Craig, who holds the morigage on their grounds, the members ismissed the entire personnel of their newly elected executive and elected a new board. The move was the condition on which the mortgages, who threatened recently to deprive the organization of the use of the grounds because of unnaid interest and principal payments, consented in a recent communication to re-open negotiations for continued use of the land and buildings. Miss Craig consented to allow the society to hold its fairs in the Elliot Street grounds providing it would make a payment to her of $1,050, pay the tax arrears on the property, and make out to her a new mortgage for $7,000 for five years at 5 per cent. The new officers elected were: President, J. W. Crashley; first vicepresident, Alec McKinney; second vice-president, William Houvaird; directors, Brampton, L. J. C. Hull, J. W. Crashley, W. A. Bates, D. E. Smith, H. H.
