Double-Barrelled Opportunity For Poultry Raisers

Official Forecast that Eggs will be Scarce from September to January . . . Chicks and Pullets for May Delivery at Prices you don't expect till June.

HERE always has been money in May chicks, when you bought quick-growing stock that would develop to laying at five months old. Five months ago, in October, we right in the high-expense season, this year's opportunity for May chicks has been better than ever. You can buy chicks or started pullets today, for May delivery, at prices you don't expect till the middle of June. You have the Department of Agriculture's official forecast that eggs will be scarce (and the price high) in the fall, and there is every likelihood that feed prices will drop away down, as soon as this crop is harvested. The fellow who has eggs to sell between September and January should be able to more than make up for the past winter's unfavorable situation.

Buy Started Pullets that will Lay in September

We can supply you with pullets that are well started, and will be laying in early September (or before) if well fed through the range period. They are now three to 10 weeks old, and they are from our famous "Extra Profit" stock which has built up a country-wide reputation for rapid development, early eggs, large eggs, and the necessary ruggedness to stand continued heat, lay school moults or set-backs. We have any number of reports showing "Extra Profit" pullets up to 60% production at six months old, and continuing at 50% to 70% production through the entire Fall and Winter.

We can give you your choice of seven popular breeds. Pullets three weeks old and upward in all breeds, and up to 10 weeks in some breeds.

Same Prices $1.00 per Hundred

We are going to clear these pullets in May, at prices way above our April quotations. We can also supply day-old chicks and started pullets in all breeds, at correspondingly low prices— for immediate delivery. (Some of our May prices are $7.00 per hundred lower than previously published in this paper.) You are the most outstanding values we have ever offered to the poultry-minded public. Buy till you see us this May, price list, and get full particulars about the latest development of Bray's "Extra Profit" stock. Call, write or phone TODAY.

OBITUARY

MRS. KELEN STARK

Following a lengthy illness, Mrs. Kelen Stark, widow of the late Abraham Neelens, died at her home on the Fifth Line, Esquinton, on Tuesday, April 18th. Mrs. Stark was a beloved member of highly esteemed citizens and had been a resident of the township all her life. She was born within a few miles of the farm where her parents had been an active member of the Reformed Presbyterian Church. She is survived by her son, A. Nelson Stark, and a granddaughter, and a brother, Andrew, of Esquinton. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon when the service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Andrews of Boston Church. The remains were interred in Woodlawn Cemetery, Georgetown.

GEORGETOWN PUBLIC AND HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS WIN PRIZES IN HALTON'S ANNUAL COMPETITION

Georgetown Public and High School pupils kept up their good record again this year by winning a number of prizes at the annual Halton's Musical Festival on April 22nd, 23rd, and 24th. Although there were fewer entries from Georgetown this year, a good proportion of the awards came to pupils from the town. The grand total was won by the girls' double trio. This event was also won last year by the Georgetown school; only two of the girls that won on the double trio this year had participated last year. Those composing the trio this year were: Valerie Herbert, Joan Hale, Mary Paul, Beth Short, Rita Doyle, Laura Whittlefield. The prime winners were: Girls' solo—Joan Hale (gold medal); girls' duet—Joan Hale and Valerie Herbert; boys' duet—Alie Tuck and John Miller; boys' trio—John Miller, Peter McNeil, Stephenson; Georgetown (gold medal); Margaret Beatty, Omagh (silver medal); John Nicholson, St. Catharines (bronze medal); Gladys Williams, Oakville (silver medal); Shirley Williams, Oakville (gold medal); Barbara Donnelly, Oakville Woods (silver medal); G.
