ASHGROVE

The regular missionary meeting of the young people's union was held on Sunday evening. May 2nd, with a splendid attendance, Mr. John Bird. convenor, in charge. The first part of the program consisted of the worship service and an interesting paper on the life of Robert Moffatt. The rest of the program was given over to thoughts concerning Mother's Day. A pleasing vocal, double-duet; a paper on "A tribute to our Mothers," and a well-selected reading provided ample material. A number of our young people at-tended the Rally held in St. John's United Church, Oakville, Monday,

The regular meeting of the Ashgrove Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Walter Brownridge, on Tuesday, April 17th. After the opening exercises and business discussion, the roll call was answered by "White Elephants." The motto: "As thy days," was given by Mrs. N. Wrigglesworth. Miss Applebe of Georgetown, our special speaker, told us many interesting things about the early history of Halton County. Mrs. Geo. Pisher, Mrs. Chas. Austin and Mrs. Thos. Giffen, each contributed toward a demonstration, "Ways of Serving Eggs." A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

Mills Kate McKay of Georgetown visited with friends here last week. Sherlock and Phyliss Poreman of Paranto were home for the week end. The Mission Band held their thankoffering meeting in the church Priday night. They had as their guests the Mission Band from Melville, who took part in the program, which consisted of songs, recitations and musical numbers. Rev. Mr. Poreman acted as chairman. Lunch was served at the close of the meeting. The April meeting of the W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. R. Mc-Enery. The scripture lesson was read responsively after which the president led in prayer. The roll call was answered with a saying of Christ's pertaining to nature. A report of the conference branch meeting was given by Mrs. A. O. W. Poreman. The supplies which had been purchaseo for the thale were displayed by the secretary. Mrs. A. Starrit had charge of the acripture study on the life of Andrew, and Miss B. Hills gave an interesting account of the 4th chapter of the study book. Miss R. Shortill and Mrs. A. Starrit contributed a duet. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. Shortill. The regular meeting of the Mission Circle was held Tuesday night in the church. It was decided to hold a lawn social sometime in June. Squar Old Story A private, walking down a street with his sweetheart, met a sergeant belonging to his regiment. "My aister, Bergeant," said the bashful young man, "That's all right," said the sergeant.
