WILL
Sudden, at the result of an accident, on May 22nd, 1937, William John Miller, aged 19 years.

OBITUARY
JOHN COURCOR COOK
One of Georgetown's best known and highly respected farmers in the person of John Courcor Cook, son of the late Daniel Cook, passed away at his home, near his farm, on Saturday, May 22nd. He was born on his father's farm about 15 miles west of Georgetown and lived in Georgetown all his life. He was twice married; his first wife being Catherine Murray, who died in leaving two daughters, Mrs. A. E. Black of Hocking and Mrs. A. E. Cook, high school teacher at Millersburg, Ohio. He was 75 years old at the time of his death. He was a member of the United Methodist Church and a member of the Georgetown Agricultural Society. He was a kind and generous man, and his death is deeply regretted by his family and by a host of friends. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock on Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. E. Black, and was conducted by Rev. W. R. Johnston. Burial took place in Glen Williams cemetery. The pallbearers were Lloyd Grace, Jas. Emmons, Harry Allen, Leo Raynor, Marie Davidson, Elmer Thompson, Mr. Robt. Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goldhamer, Mr. John Greenwood, Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Mrs. Charles Walters, Mr. Gamble, Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Williams and family.

WILLIAM JOHN MILLER
Death came suddenly to Wm. John Miller, beloved grandson of Mr. and Mrs. William Ward, Georgetown, when he was fatally injured in an auto accident last Sunday evening. Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Miller and had lived with his grandparents here ever since his death of his grandparent (Miss Cora Ward) who passed away in West Virginia when he was 18 months old. He was one of our best and most promising young men and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. His death is a heavy loss to his family and to the community. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock on Monday at the home of his mother, Mrs. C. J. Miller, and was conducted by Rev. F. C. Greenwood. Burial took place in Glen Williams cemetery. The pallbearers were Lloyd Grace, Jas. Emmons, Harry Allen, Leo Raynor, Marie Davidson, Elmer Thompson, Mr. Robt. Pipe Band Celebration
LARGE CROWD ENJOY SPLENDID PROGRAM AT PARK ON MONDAY

The Georgetown Pipe Band Centennial Celebration on Monday last was a grand success and the splendid program attracted large gatherings both at the midnight frolic and the sporting events. There was not a dull moment during the afternoon and the varied entertainment of music, music and special attractions delighted the crowd. The opening event was a parachute jump from an aeroplane by Terry McGovern of Toronto, who made a safe landing at the Golf Course some distance from the park. The novelty, track and field events which followed combined to make one of the most successful celebrations ever held in the town. The Pipe Band provided the music during the afternoon and many complimentary remarks were heard regarding this popular musical organization.
