New Business in McGibbon Block

On Saturday next, May 29th, Mr. George Alcott will open up a choice fresh stock of tobaccos, cigarettes, cigars, confectionery, ice cream and soft drinks in the McGibbon Block, Main St. He will also serve light lunches at all hours. Your patronage will be appreciated.

A Generous Offer

The offer of Smith & Stone, Ltd. to pay one third the cost of laying a hard surface road on Victoria St. from the railway tracks to their factory premises is a most generous offer and should be appreciated by Georgetown ratepayers. The Council are seriously considering the offer and it is quite possible the roadway may be built. There is a lot of traffic over this section and it is in very bad condition. The total cost would be in the neighborhood of $3000.

PALERMO SECTIONAL MEETING

The Eastern Sectional Meeting of the Woman's Society was held at Palermo United Church on Tuesday, May 18th, with a splendid attendance. The morning session opened with a call to worship, the "National Anthem and prayer. A few necessary business items were discussed, following t he reading of the minutes of last year's meeting by our secretary, Miss M. Sharp of Melville United Church. Our delegation was heartily welcomed by Mrs. Janet Gilbert, honorary president of Palermo Auxiliary and graciously replied to by Mrs. A. O. W. Foreman of Ballinafad, who made us feel that the success of the day depended on each one, thus creating an atmosphere of real helpfulness which was an ideal start for the day. The Wesley Auxiliary lead in the first worship service. Reports were then in order, first, our auxiliaries and associate society; then, Mission Circles and C.O.I.T., and lastly, our Mission Bands and Baby Bands. There was real inspiration and many helpful suggestions from each report, showing also, advancement and good work faithfully done. During the morning session, we had a solo from Master Norman Wood, and a duet by Norman and Helen Condor, Palermo Mission Band members. These numbers were fully enjoyed and beautifully given. The quiet half hour was impressively taken by Miss E. McKay and Mrs. Preure of the Georgetown Auxiliary. A hearty luncheon was served by the Palermo ladies.

In the afternoon, the Melville Auxiliary lead in the opening worship service; this being followed by the report of the Conference Branch meeting by Mrs. E. P. Lunau of Oakville. This report was complete in every detail and excellently given. The roll call was taken, which showed a good representation from each society in our division. A pleasing solo, entitled, "Ivory Palaces," was sung by Mrs. Gardiner of Acton; then our main address was given by our special speaker, Miss Evelyn Mitchell, Toronto, travelling secretary of the W.M.S. In her address she stressed our main purpose in this great work was to build the Kingdom of God on earth, beginning first with our own hearts, then sharing with others. We were lifted up by this powerful inspirational talk. Helen Condor of Palermo Mission Band favored us with a lovely solo at this time. Reports that showed much careful thought, and energetic work were given by our Presbyterial secretaries. An open forum, with questions received from many of those attending, was capably handled by Miss Mitchell. Much helpful information was gleaned in this way.

The courtesy committee was reported by Mrs. Bert Mowat of Acton, thanking one and all for making our meeting a success in giving their best in song, reports, address, entertaining us so hospitably, and all else that added to our needs and enjoyment.

Mrs. Inglehart, our Presbyterial President, brought us a filling closing message on loyalty and service. Mrs. H. S. Fiddis of Bronte closed our meeting with prayer.
