HOLSTEIN BREEDERS FROM YORK, PEEL AND HALTON PICNIC AT EDGEWOOD PARK

Five hundred "Black and White" enthusiasts congregated at Edgewood Park, Eden Mills, on Saturday last for their annual picnic. Favored with splendid weather an excellent programme and ideal grounds for the occasion, the event was the most enjoyable on record. President Herbert Inglehart of the Halton Club acted as chairman, and extended a welcome to the visiting breeders of Peel and York. W. R. Reek, Director of the Ridgetown Experimental Station was the guest speaker, and his practical address of inspiration and leadership was particularly well received. Other speakers included H. W. Parkinson, President of the Holstein Association of Canada; Robt. Cooper and J. Darlington, Presidents of the Peel and York clubs, respectively. Another interesting feature of the day's program was the live stock judging competition conducted under the direction of Prof. Geo. Stuthby, of the O.A.C., Guelph. Two excellent classes, one of yearling bulls and the other 3-year-old cows were brought into the ring where two and three hundred men, women, boys and girls, vied with another for top honors. The winners were as follows: Seniors—Frank Stark, Milton; Wm. McGillgherty, Streetsville; D. S. Dunton, Brampton; Geo. W. Manns, Cedar and Howard Dolson, Georgetown. Juniors—Craig Reid, Georgetown; Edward Laidlaw, Norval; John Vanneblis, Palermo; Frank Dolson, Brampton and Carman Livingstone, Woodbridge.

The sports program brought with enthusiastic response from the little tots all the way up the line to the bald-headed fat men and the aged grey haired ladies. During the afternoon three Holstein calves were competed for, the winners being Oliver Hunter, Norval; Eli Meehan, Campbellville, and M. Dolson, Brampton.

Musical Recital Much Enjoyed

The auditorium of the Public School was fragrant with baskets of spring flowers Friday evening, June 4th for the annual summer recital of the piano pupils of Miss Margaret Dickie, A.T.C.M. The pupils, both class and private, taking part in order of appearance were: Douglas Peck, Roy Peck, Brenda Robinson, Riley McClure, June Clark, Jean Dickie, Peggy Kelly, Bill Kelly, Bernice Hughes, Nora Cleave, Agnes McClure, Doris Armstrong, Mary Dobson, Dick Crichton, Lois Nielsen, Margaret Bradley, Beatrice Brill, Isobel Dobson, Helen Blackburn, Helen Williams and Esther Brill. The assisting artist of the evening was Mary Zimmer of Toronto, 11-year-old pupil of Miss Naomi Chateauvert, L.T.C.M. She delighted the audience with her two violin selections. On behalf of the pupils, Mary Dobson presented Miss Dickie with a beautiful bouquet. June Clark presented Mary Zimmer with an old fashioned nosegay from Miss Dickie. Following the recital, Miss Dickie entertained her pupils at the home of Mrs. Herbert Erwin. Those assisting in giving out programs and serving refreshments were the Misses Hilda Erwin and Jean Mackenzie. Those present from Toronto were: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Zimmer, Miss Mary Zimmer, Miss Esther Brill and Mrs. Sherry Dickie.

CALF CLUB MEETING WELL ATTENDED

The second meeting of Halton Calf Club for the current year brought out an attendance of approximately 100 at J. L. Neelands & Sons, Hornby, on Monday evening of last week. Have under ideal conditions, thanks to the flood lights which had been erected by the hosts of the evening, the club members and older breeders followed with interest the demonstrations conducted by Byron Janvey, Holstein Fieldman for Western Ontario, and J. M. Fraser, prominent Holstein breeder of Streetsville. In the judging competition which ensued, the winners, namely, Craig Reid of Georgetown, in the section open to club members, and Addison Woodley of Milton in the open section, were presented with show halters by V. Lawrence, secretary of the Halton Holstein Club. The attendance constituted a record for any meeting of its kind ever held in the county.

Nod So Sure

The Lions Club, under Chairman Kennedy, we understand, asked Chief Marshall for a Parade Permit in connection with their Donkey Baseball game, and the Chief declares, "The biggest donkeys would not be the four-footed ones and see no reason why the streets should be cluttered up with such foolishness; that any same person knows most of the men could not play ball, let alone on a donkey." If chairman Kennedy can show the Chief this is not so, he is willing to give the permit for the parade on Thursday evening, June 17.

A Public Invitation

An invitation is extended to the citizens of Georgetown to attend the special services being held in St. George's Church, June 13th. The morning service will be in charge of Rev. Canon T. G. Wallace of St. James' Church, London, a former rector of St. George's. The Rt. Rev. L. W. B. Broughall, Lord Bishop of Niagara, will be the preacher at the evening service. These services are being held in recognition of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the ordination of the Rector, Rev. W. G. G. Thompson, to the Priesthood. Everyone welcome.

Comedy Farce a Success

"The Spinsters' Convention," a comedy farce presented by the Daughters of St. George's Church, under the direction of Mrs. (Rev.) W. G. G. Thompson and Mrs. Fred McNally, in the Gregory Theatre last Thursday evening, was a decided success. A wide variety of entertainment was offered, but the chief theme of the show was that spinsters of the province had gathered at Georgetown, and as the convention was coming to a close, the delegates received the somewhat startling offer that they could be transformed into whatever their hearts desired by "Prof. Makeover," who was impersonated by Jack Thompson. Spinsters were exchanged in a "makeover machine" for the visiting artists: Florence Richardson, vocalist, Hamilton; Paul Campbell, Nanette and Willa Hagarth, dancers, Hamilton; Mrs. W. Cromar, elocutionist, Georgetown; Miss P. Wright, dancer, Toronto; Helen McIvor, vocalist; Limehouse and Norman Rapson, juvenile singers, Hamilton. Members of the Daughters of the Church who took part were Bessie Walker, Mrs. T. Hahn, Florence Brandiford, Dorothy Sargent, Floria Peller, Peggie Taylor, Elizabeth Bonathan, Annie Hall, Alma Tost, Mrs. J. Williams, Betty Grant, Freda Herbert, Mrs. William Marshall, Yvonne Adams Eva Parton, Lillian Russell, Peggie Adams and Edna Hurley.

MISS QUEENIE MARCHMENT IN CAR ACCIDENT

A rather bad collision occurred on the 7th Line, just above Georgetown, on Sunday evening last, when cars driven by H. A. Timberal, Toronto, and Colin Green, Brampton, met almost head-on. Miss Queenie Marchment of Georgetown, a passenger in Green's car, suffered painful cuts and bruises, and was given first aid by Dr. C. V. Williams. Green also suffered a twisted left arm. Mrs. Timberal and her two-year-old daughter, who were driving in the other car, suffered minor cuts and bruises.

Night Constable Wm. Emmerson was on the scene shortly after the accident, and kept the heavy traffic moving, while Chief W. G. Marshall of Georgetown and Traffic Officer Bert Howell of Guelph, investigated.

CONSERVATIVES SET DATE FOR CONVENTION

Lloyd D. Dingle, Burlington, was elected president of the Halton County Liberal-Conservative Association for the second consecutive year, at the annual meeting in the town hall, Milton.

It was decided to hold a convention on June 25 to nominate a candidate to contest the next provincial election.

Others officers elected were as follows: Vice-presidents, John Irving, Milton, and Mrs. Frank Pullen, Oakville; treasurer, Arthur Beaumont, Glen Williams; secretary, F. W. B. Fitzgerald, Milton.

JUNIOR PLOWING MATCH A HUGE SUCCESS

The annual Junior Farmer Match sponsored by the Halton Plowmen's Association, was an outstanding success according to President L. W. Chisholm. The event, which was held on Friday last on the farm of J. H. Wilson on the third line of Trafalgar, brought out 18 lads in the class for boys 19 years and under. Notwithstanding the somewhat dry and lumpy condition of the soil, in general the work was of high calibre. Mr. N. G. McLeod of Galt, who acted as coach and judge, stated that the competition was closer than any he had judged in some time. The results were as follows:

Esquesing—Juniors, 1st Fred Ruddell, 2nd Kenneth Marshall, 3rd Bob Alexander; seniors—1st John MacNabb, 2nd Kenneth Peddle.

Nassagaweya—Seniors, 1st Ivan Taylor, 2nd Geo. Simpson.

Nelson—Juniors, 1st Geo. Heatherington, 2nd Gordon Cartwright, 3rd Jack Hamilton; seniors, 1st Grant Baker, 2nd Lyle Dales, 3rd Fred Dixon.

Trafalgar — Juniors, 1st Gerald Marchment, 2nd Jim Emslie; Seniors —1st Leonard Lister, 2nd John Dixon, 3rd Wm. Bradley.

Champions over all—Juniors, Gerald Marchment; seniors, John MacNabb.

The officers and directors of the local Plowmen's Association are indeed to be commended for the leadership and encouragement they are giving to the younger lads of the county.
