

THE GEORGETOWN HERALD

First Year of Publication

The Georgetown Herald, Wednesday Evening, November 3rd, 1937.

$1.50 per Annum in Advance - $2.00 in U.S.A.

Our Town will be Better by Eight-Page Newspaper

In New Form This Week—Hope Change Appreciated by Subscribers and Advertisers.

Years of service and citizenship of our town's weekly newspaper, the Herald, have been a constant reminder to its readers of the growth and progress of our town. The Herald has grown from a four-page newspaper to an eight-page newspaper, and its content has grown from a simple news sheet to a comprehensive newspaper. This change is the result of the efforts of the Herald's management and its subscribers and advertisers. The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all.

The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all. The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all. The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all.

The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all. The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all. The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all.

The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all. The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all. The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all.

The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all. The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all. The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all.

The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all. The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all. The Herald is now published in a new form, and we hope that this change will be appreciated by all.

Poppy Day Saturday, November 6th

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders Fields the poppies grow between the crosses, row on row. That mark our place; and in the sky, The lark, still bravely singing, fly. Scarce heard amid the guns below. We are the dead; whose days are done. We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow. Loved and were loved, and now we lie In Flanders Fields.

Those who sacrificed for you, appeal to you through the Poppy Fund. Make your contribution generous. Last year, Canada remembered her war dead in an inspiring fashion at Vimy—the memorial itself, the pilgrimage of veterans and mothers and wives, the participation of the King, the President of the French Republic, the Prime Minister—that every Canadian must feel pride in a duty so wholly and beautifully done.

Very likely to be made by Canadians on November 6th this year when, with the appeal of the Poppy Fund, the opportunity is given to render some measure of gratitude to those who, one might say, fell in the war but did not die.

For that, in effect, is what happened to many thousands of Canadian young men. Wounded, damaged in body and spirit, these multitudes of our fellow men have survived twenty years of pain and handicap, of distress, frustration and disappointment in the daily race of life, regardless of all the help government and municipalities can devise for them.

LET US ALL WEAR A POPPY ON POPPY DAY! This one's on you. We were listening to a number of the day's news. They talked about the Ontario election, the latest crisis in Europe, the war in China, the stock market and infantile paralysis—all interesting subjects.

But they seemed to have overlooked an important story in that day's news. The British people have their various national holidays and their red letter days, but in the gift you make on Poppy Day, you are sharing in a duty universally British.

St. George's Celebrates Eighty-Fifth Anniversary

ELUQUENT AND INSPIRING SERMONES BY VENERABLE ARCHDEACON POTTERINGHAM OF TRINITY COLLEGE, TORONTO

St. George's beautiful church edifice was the scene of large gatherings on Sunday last when the members and adherents celebrated the eighty-fifth anniversary of the opening of the Parish in Georgetown. The special speaker for the day was the Venerable Archdeacon Potteringham of Trinity College, Toronto, and his eloquent and inspiring addresses were an incentive to all his hearers to be more faithful to the call of the church and the Christ it stands for.

At the morning service the speaker chose as his text the 24th verse of the 21st chapter of St. John: "And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written everyone I suppose that even the world itself would not contain the books that should be written." He said in part: "St. John bore his witness to Christ leaving his record that all might observe and build on a foundation. The Church of St. George's, which is eighty-five years ago, had built well, and have left something for us. How are we building, we who today profess and call ourselves Christians? How will those parishioners who follow us, eighty-five years hence, judge the quality of our work. Let us live and build, so that the record may be a worthy and a useful one."

At the evening service, after reading the 5th chapter of King Solomon and the 11th chapter of the Epistle to the Hebrews, the theme of the address was "The Communion of Saints," which was indeed very appropriate on the eve of All Saints' Day. He said in part: "We should thank God for the church and those saints of the early days whose names live forever more. Communion means a great deal to all of us, we cannot live for self, and life without communion is not normal. We are born and grow up in the spirit of communion which lifts us up out of ourselves to bigger and better things. Get away from the prejudices that ruin our own souls and those of others. If we would reach our goal for a bigger and better life we must commune with people of all nations. Many living before us, fathers and mothers, communed with God and are saints in heaven today. Many a life becomes brighter when drawn toward the life of those who lived before. Holy Communion is a sacred meeting place for those who believe in God. Let us all live for one another and the betterment of the world and make life one communion of saints in God."

The beautiful flowers which adorned the altar were placed there by the Women's Auxiliary in memory of all deceased members. The special music by the choir, organ and solo parts by Miss E. Bradley, Mrs. Ed. Hoare and Miss Bradford were much appreciated by those present and added to the beautiful services throughout the day.

and provincial debts increased by $22,712,975. Even in good times, with high taxation, we cannot pay our way—go more deeply in debt. Nor will we live within our income and see taxation reduced until the public itself demands balanced budgets of all governments. Governments are keepers of the public purse. That is your purse. The Government will pay for it," say, "I will pay for it."

There has never been a newspaper printed that satisfied everybody. But there is a very simple method by which better newspapers can be produced and that is for those who subscribe to them to take an individual interest in seeing that they get more local and personal news. Not that you are expected to become a reporter when you subscribe, but because the newspaper stands as its exponent of all that is good for your community and because civic pride should, therefore, lead you to another stage such an institution. If you have visitors, if you have been on a visit or if you are going on one, your neighbors are sure to be interested in knowing about it. Tell them through your house town paper! Every little item of a local or personal nature helps that which counts to make a still better newspaper and getting it to the editor reaches very little exertion on your part. This is how you can help make your newspaper more interesting, and you are invited to start doing so at once.

High School Board Want $38,000 for New Addition

Council will Submit Request for Approval of Property Owners of Municipal Election Next Month—Relief Costs Down—Grant to Poppy Day Fund

Council met on Tuesday evening with Mayor Joseph Gibbons in the chair. Present were George Davis and Councilors Harold George, James Cripps, A. E. Cripps, Tom Lyons and Joseph Hill present. Minutes of previous meeting read and confirmed on motion of Davis and Cripps.

Mr. John D. Kelly, on behalf of the Lions Club, asked permission to hold a tag day on Dec. 11th. Mr. Ed. Hoare, on behalf of the Basketball Club, asked permission to use the town hall two nights a week. Council granted the request.

Mr. J. H. Watson and J. H. Bincham, of the High School Board addressed Council regarding the building of two additional rooms for Manual Training and Household Science as requested by the Department of Education. The government would pay 50% of the cost of construction. The cost of the required addition to the school is $45,000. $7,000 to be paid by Government and approximately $38,000 by County, leaving $38,000 to be paid by town. The government increase to the yearly grant would be $700.00 a year.

Mr. J. H. Watson and J. H. Bincham, of the High School Board addressed Council regarding the building of two additional rooms for Manual Training and Household Science as requested by the Department of Education. The government would pay 50% of the cost of construction. The cost of the required addition to the school is $45,000. $7,000 to be paid by Government and approximately $38,000 by County, leaving $38,000 to be paid by town. The government increase to the yearly grant would be $700.00 a year.

Mr. J. H. Watson and J. H. Bincham, of the High School Board addressed Council regarding the building of two additional rooms for Manual Training and Household Science as requested by the Department of Education. The government would pay 50% of the cost of construction. The cost of the required addition to the school is $45,000. $7,000 to be paid by Government and approximately $38,000 by County, leaving $38,000 to be paid by town. The government increase to the yearly grant would be $700.00 a year.

Mr. J. H. Watson and J. H. Bincham, of the High School Board addressed Council regarding the building of two additional rooms for Manual Training and Household Science as requested by the Department of Education. The government would pay 50% of the cost of construction. The cost of the required addition to the school is $45,000. $7,000 to be paid by Government and approximately $38,000 by County, leaving $38,000 to be paid by town. The government increase to the yearly grant would be $700.00 a year.

THIS AND THAT IN SPORT

Ross Cap Won by Georgetown High School

Last Thursday afternoon the "crimson and blue" of Georgetown High School defeated their bitter rivals by the score of 14 to 11, and again because the possession of the coveted Ross Trophy.

Mr. J. H. Watson and J. H. Bincham, of the High School Board addressed Council regarding the building of two additional rooms for Manual Training and Household Science as requested by the Department of Education. The government would pay 50% of the cost of construction. The cost of the required addition to the school is $45,000. $7,000 to be paid by Government and approximately $38,000 by County, leaving $38,000 to be paid by town. The government increase to the yearly grant would be $700.00 a year.

Mr. J. H. Watson and J. H. Bincham, of the High School Board addressed Council regarding the building of two additional rooms for Manual Training and Household Science as requested by the Department of Education. The government would pay 50% of the cost of construction. The cost of the required addition to the school is $45,000. $7,000 to be paid by Government and approximately $38,000 by County, leaving $38,000 to be paid by town. The government increase to the yearly grant would be $700.00 a year.

Mr. J. H. Watson and J. H. Bincham, of the High School Board addressed Council regarding the building of two additional rooms for Manual Training and Household Science as requested by the Department of Education. The government would pay 50% of the cost of construction. The cost of the required addition to the school is $45,000. $7,000 to be paid by Government and approximately $38,000 by County, leaving $38,000 to be paid by town. The government increase to the yearly grant would be $700.00 a year.

Mr. J. H. Watson and J. H. Bincham, of the High School Board addressed Council regarding the building of two additional rooms for Manual Training and Household Science as requested by the Department of Education. The government would pay 50% of the cost of construction. The cost of the required addition to the school is $45,000. $7,000 to be paid by Government and approximately $38,000 by County, leaving $38,000 to be paid by town. The government increase to the yearly grant would be $700.00 a year.

Mr. J. H. Watson and J. H. Bincham, of the High School Board addressed Council regarding the building of two additional rooms for Manual Training and Household Science as requested by the Department of Education. The government would pay 50% of the cost of construction. The cost of the required addition to the school is $45,000. $7,000 to be paid by Government and approximately $38,000 by County, leaving $38,000 to be paid by town. The government increase to the yearly grant would be $700.00 a year.

HOME IMPROVEMENT

Bookcases are an asset to any home. If you have a particularly long or wide hall, a built-in bookcase will relieve the plainness of an unbroken wall.

On either side of a fireplace or set into a solid wall, bookcases add dignity to any living room. Very often they give a room the appearance of being much larger or deeper.

Another convenient place for them in a very small room is under a window. A window that has wide sills is particularly adaptable for this type of modernization.

THE ART OF MAKING TEA

To get the utmost flavour and quality from tea is an art, but it is an art in which anyone can become a masterpiece by following a few simple directions:

Buy the "old" tap water before filling your kettle. Use the water that is not too hot, but not too cold. Add the tea to the water and let it steep for a few minutes before drinking.

Our merchants report trade fairly brisk at present. Our home carries are running fairly busy just now.

ERRA COTTA

Mr. and Mrs. I. Miller and family have moved to Inglewood.

Mrs. J. Peley had a very successful sale recently. We understand that Mrs. Peley and family have moved to Florida. We are sorry to lose such an able citizen from our midst.

Mr. R. J. Stringer is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. C. McKeown of Annapolis. Our merchants report trade fairly brisk at present.